Market Men Demand New Site

Pictured above:

Durban's Indian Top Market has 30 of its 254 stalls closed down. This is due to a City Council regulation which prohibits the transfer of a stall to the member of the family of the original stallholder in the event of his death.

These stalls, once thriving business houses, now lie vacant and have resulted in the loss of revenue to the City Council. In addition, the families of the stallholders have suffered a loss in income and many had no alternatives to turn to.

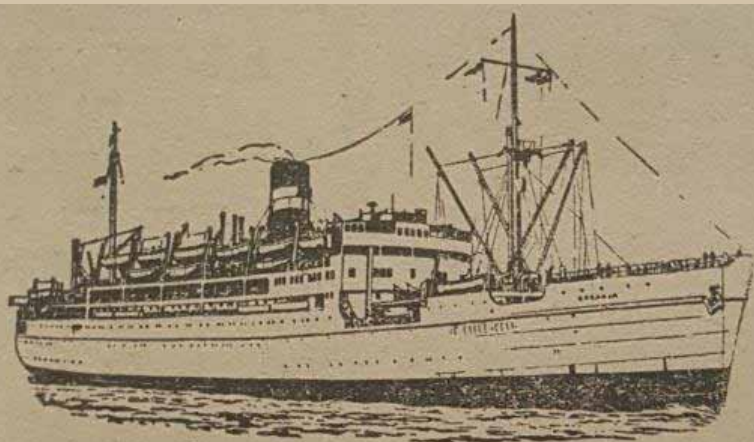

The Council now claims that insufficient revenue from the top market does not warrant its presence there any longer. Further, at least half the market has to be demolished to make way for the Southern Freeway interchange.

The remaining stallholders have been given notices to quit their stalls by June 31, 1973. Mr. V.M. Govender, treasurer of the Indian Market Stallholders Association, said that the stallholders were prepared to move out, provided they were given alternative sites and that a stall should be handed down to a member of the original stallholder's family in the event of his death.

As an alternative site he suggested the Bulk Sales Market opposite the English market in Richards Road. He said that this is an 'ideal site' for the stallholders.

The market established in 1910 is a regular haunt for tourist from within the country and from overseas. These stalls carry priceless and beautiful ornaments and, one in particular has a model of a carriage drawn by horses valued at R100 000.00 Councillors Pieter Breytenbach, C.A Haupt and Nick Steyn went on a tour of inspection of the market last week 'to see for themselves.' As the Councillors made their rounds they expressed genuine concern for the stallholders and were surprised that no renovations were carried out at the market over the years.

They promised to discuss their findings at a Council meeting this week and would let the stallholders know the outcome of their discussions in due course.

TINY PAMELA'S COMING UP IN THE SHOWBIZ WORLD

Talented little vocalist Pamela Royeppen, on the floor with Sagle Naidoo, one of the directors of Afro, at the Island Hotel.

She toured East London with the Dukes Combo and is making quite a name for herself in the showbiz world.

The Film World

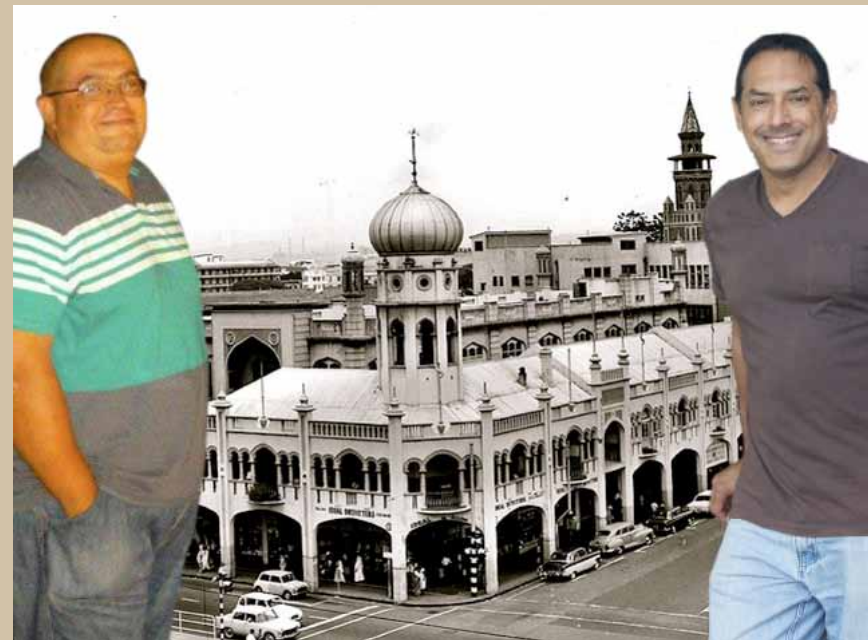

Photo R-L: Mr Paul, Mr M.A Moosa, Mr M. Vahed and Mr Sam Naidoo with Michael James (centre) in the foyer of Avalon/Albert.

Mr M.A. Moosa, director of the Avalon/Albert organisation introduced Mr. Michael James, Managing Director of United Artists in South Africa, before the screening of the film, 'The Mechanic' on Friday night. United Artists released such films as 'From Russia with Love', 'The Organisation' and 'Fiddler on the Roof.'

Mr Jones praised the Avalon/Albert organisation for offering their patrons 'the finest facilities and technological excellence.' He also said that a film called the 'Defiant Ones' formerly banned in South Africa will be released to White and Black audiences. The film stars Sidney Poitier and Tony Curtis.

They play the part of two escape convicts who overcome all feelings of differences by staying together and having one common cause – to step to freedom. It has a message – that brotherhood and mutual respect of man for man is a desirable goal.

Hall packed for Swami farewell

The swamis were invited by Shri Kathianwad Hindu Samaj, Durban, and have been the guests of Gandhi-Desai Family of Tongaat and Durban. The Swami, who sang and played many musical instruments, captured the hearts of the Durban Indians.

Frozen Clairwood turn on the Heat

Addressing 500 ratepayers this week, the chairman of the Clairwood Ratepayers Association, Mr. S. Gopal, demanded a categorical statement from the City Council in regard to the future of the Clairwood area.

“We want to know whether we can stay here or whether you want it for industry. We have waited 20 years for a decision. We do not want procrastinations – this results in bushes, storm water build ups and rotten telephone poles” said Gopal.

“We have now thrown the dice and it is for the Council to call the number,” he added. Clairwood was declared a frozen area since 1956. It once had a population of 40 000 but this figure was halved by the Southern freeway.

Correspondence and memoranda sent to the City Council met with no response and there was no meaningful dialogue between the Ratepayers Association and the Council.

There were cries of ‘outrageous disgrace,’ ‘shame’ and ‘we want one law for all’, from the audience as Mr Gopal outlined the difficulties and problems of the residents.

Councillor C.R. Herron who attended the meeting, was warmly applauded by the audience. He said that he did not see people as Black or White or belonging to political parties, but he saw them for their problems. He would try to resolve this one within the powers granted to him.

He urged the ratepayers to arrive at a compromise with the Council if Clairwood was zoned for industrial purposes and said that certain conditions should be laid down :

- Receive a guarantee that every person affected would be suitably housed.
- Property owners forced to sell should be allowed to sell to the highest bid and not to the Ciy Council..
- The City Council should allow Indian industrialist to develop Clairwood.

Councillor Herron added that the future of Clairwood was left for the Minister of Planning, Mr J.J. Loots, to decide. The matter was referred to him in August 1972 but to date no decision has been made.

Green Peanut Chutney

Ingredients:

½ cup peanuts (dry roasted in a pan or oven)
1 bunch dhunia
1 bunch mint
5 – 8 green chillies (depending on how hot you want it)
Fine salt to taste
4 cloves garlic
½ a medium onion
½ cup tamarind juice
1 - 2 tablespoons vinegar (depending on how sour you want it)

Method:

Add all ingredients to a Blender or liquidiser and blend. You may need to add a little water (1 or 2 tablespoons) to the mixture to allow it to blend. It must be thick, creamy and smooth and not liquidy. Empty into a tupperware container and keep covered and refrigerated. Serve with any curry or grill or simply smear onto buttered bread for an awesome sandwich... Delicious!

Sheekh Kebaabs

Ingredients

1kg chicken or mutton mince
4 onions grated (all water removed)
3 eggs
4 slices brown bread (soaked in water)
2 green chillies crushed or chopped
2 cloves of garlic crushed
2 tablespoons dhania/jeera powder (I use course)
1cup green dhania
Salt to taste

Method:

Squeeze all water out of the onions and the bread, add this to the mince. Add the rest of the ingredients. Mix well till all ingredients are well blended. Shape as desired .These kebaabs can be put onto skewers & braaied,grilled or fried in a little oil or airfried.

Lemon butter sauce:

3 tablespoons butter
Juice of one lemon
Melt butter and add lemon juice, pour this sauce over the kebaabs before serving.

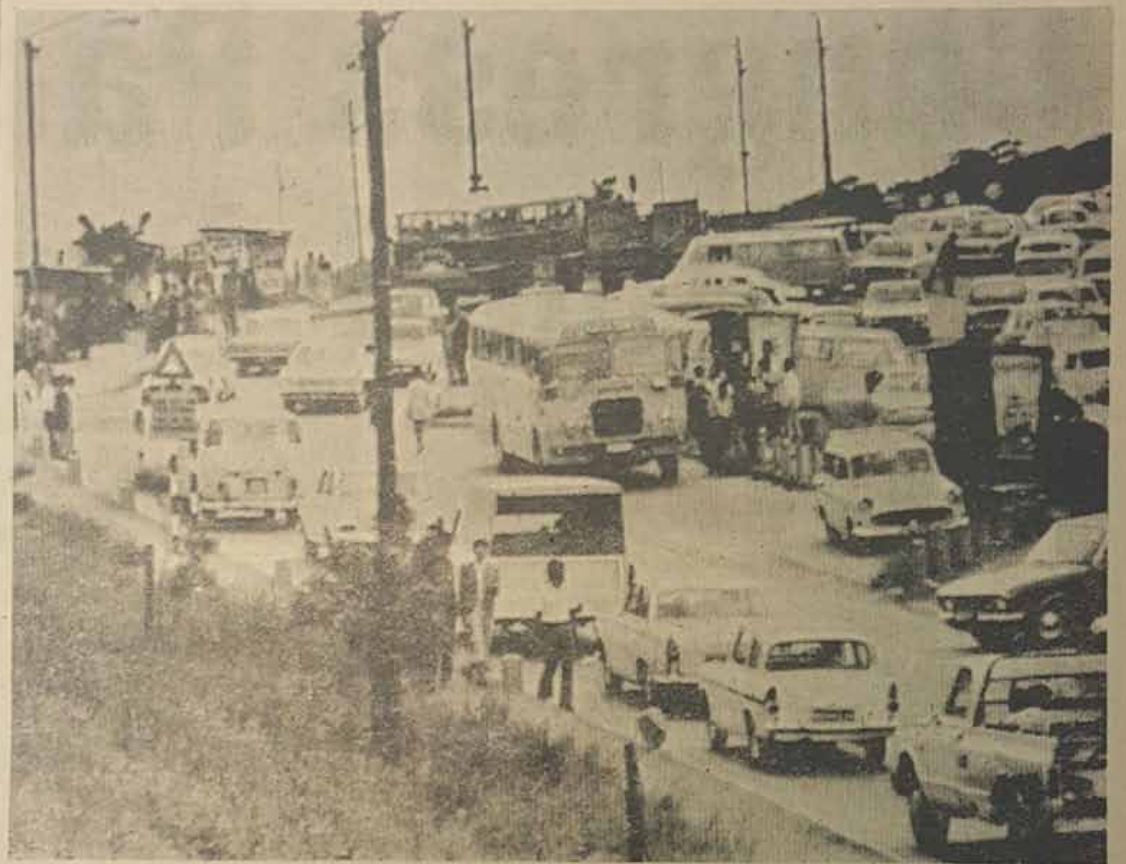

Note:

Soya mince can be used in this recipe.
Soak mince in a little water, and make sure all water has been squeezed out before adding the rest of the ingredients.

PARKING CHAOS AT R.K. KHAN

THE PARKING problem at Chatsworth's showpiece hospital, the R. K. Khan, is getting worse by the day. Visitors and emergency cases to the hospital are protesting at the lack of parking places.

The Local Affairs Committee, civic associations and various individuals have been waging a battle to get more parking space.

The Leader visited the hospital during the week and captured in picture how bad the chaos is.

When the LAC asked the local authority to provide parking accommodation they replied that it was the responsibility of the Provincial Administration. The Durban Corporation levelled part of the Township centre which is today used as a car park.

The entrance to the hospital becomes heavily congested during visiting hours. Dr Cawthorpe, the superintendent of the Hospital, refused to comment.

Casbah son addresses SA Embassy in Japan

Thumba (Thomas) Kantha gave a warm South African speech at the Freedom Day Reception held at the SA Ambassador's Residence in Tokyo, Japan on the 27th April 2016. Born and bred in Tongaat, Thomas now lives in Osaka, Japan with his family. He and his family are involved in many projects that assist the disabled, feeds the poor and provides aid in disaster-hit areas. He is a proud Durban boy and is loved and respected by many that interact with him in Japan.

Thomas also has strong roots in the Casbah having worked and played in it for many years during his youth.

We at the Casbah are proud of the contribution and acts of Ubuntu that Thomas displays in Japan.

Mangla is the Ski Race Winner

Mangla Moonsamy, of the Durban Indian Surf Life Saving Club, won the first surf paddle-ski race from Ballito Bay to Durban beach on Sunday. He covered the 17 miles in three and a half hours, including a compulsory stop of 10 minutes at the Umhlanga Rocks River. There were entries from DISLSC and Neptune's Surf Life Saving Club.

Lionel Augustine came in second. A launch of the Surf Life Saving Association of South Africa accompanied the participants.

Sparks United who will be among the teams competing in Callies soccer carnival during Easter. One of Durban's top teams, they won the Goldtop Callies plate last year and also DFA's 'Top Four' competition. They are holders of the Berea Cup and were declared 'Team of the Glenville Tournament' in which they were runners-up.

Preston's Life Ban Lifted

by Rabi Gobind

Preston Julius the former Verulam Suburbs skipper who was suspended for life by the South African Soccer Federation for having indulged in racial sports and also for having further assisted the formation of racial soccer teams, has rejected racialism and walked out of the forthcoming SA Games.

Julius the one time idol of Verulam Suburbs, was sent overseas by his club and was financially assisted by the Federation played for Charlton Athletic in England.

Back in South Africa and after a short stay with Verulam Suburbs, he joined and played for the South African Coloured Football Association. He has also assisted in the selection of the South African Coloured XI to play in the forthcoming South African Games to be held in Pretoria in March this year. He was to captain the South African Coloured XI.

But school teacher Julius in a letter to the Soccer Federation, has appealed for his suspension to be lifted. He states that he has realised that he made the wrong move at the timewhen he joined the racial Coloured association.

In his letter dated February 14, Julius says: "I wish to make an earnest appeal to the SASF to have my suspension lifted as I have no desire anymore of playing 'racial' football. I have made my mistakes and now regret the stand I had taken. I realise that the trend today throughout the world is for non-racial games and there is no place for any sportsman who thinks in terms of race or colour. My decision at that time to play racial soccer is deeply regretted and I wish to apologise to the South Africa Soccer Federation for having taken that decision."

At the executive meeting of the SASF in Durban on Tuesday night, the full executive lifted Julius' life suspension.

The Bells Toll for Suburbs

A new look Blue Bells XI from the Transvaal ran out worthy winners in their fixture against Verulam Suburbs in the first Mainstay League match played at Curries Fountain this year. The game had all the ingredients of a thriller and both sides played entertaining soccer, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd.

The only facet of the match that gave rise to complaint was the referring. Poor Mr Raymond Sheik found himself caught on the wrong foot many a time and if there was a slackening of pace then the blame must rest on him and not on the players.

Blue Bells, most ably led by dynamic Louis Jeevanathan at centre-half, had the greater share of the ball as poor Suburbs time and time again lost possession of the ball. The visitors were the complete masters of the mid-field.

Though they won by the odd goal in the seven, Bells could have got many more if only they had an effective striker. Many a goal scoring chances went astray because of poor shooting and little cohesion up front, especially in the first half.

The Transvaalers were awarded three penalties, and they only scored from one of them. Thought they also had some close range shots at goal, the Bells forwards found the agile Burrie Martin in the Verulam goal wide-awake.

It was only in the last 20 minutes of the game that the visitors found their shooting boots, because after trailing behind for most of the game, they grabbed the equaliser and then virtually swamped over the Verulam goal area in their bid for victory.

For Verulam, Charlie Davids made a dream entry into professional soccer. This bundle of energy from the Durban South Football Association began his professional career with a bang, as he shot home Verulam's first goal within 15 minutes of the start. He completely outshone the more mature Preston Julius and Henry Oliver in the forward line.

Many a Verulam fan wondered why the exciting Gerald Stevens was not included in the Verulam line-up, especially after his signing for the club was so widely announced.

For the record, Blue Bells kicked off into the Sastri end and held territorial advantage but it was Verulam that scored first.

A breakaway move by Henry Oliver saw the ball land at the feet of 'new' boy Charlie Davids, who shot into the far corner of the net. Bells were awarded a penalty for hands but skipper Gona Padayachee shot wide. At half-time Verulam led 1-0.

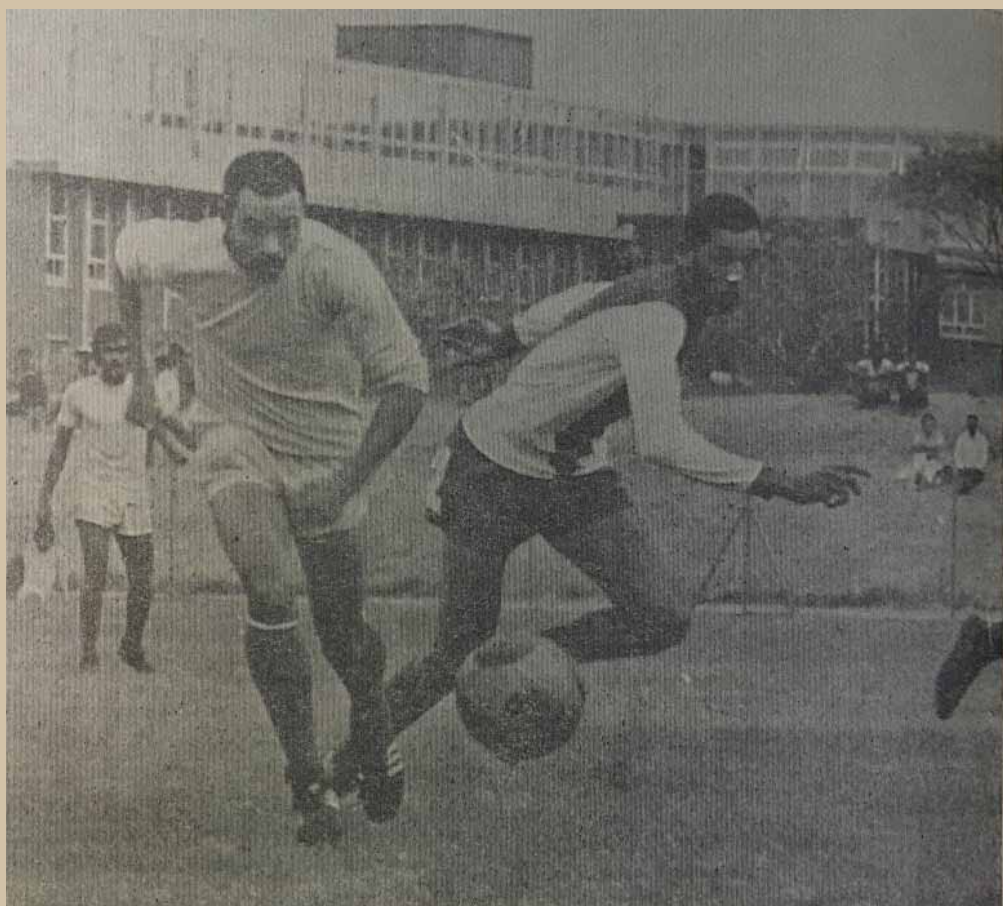

On resumption, the visitors went into the attack, but poor shooting at goal and safe handling by Burrie Martin kept them at bay. Bells were awarded their second penalty and again their centre forward failed to beat the agile Martin. In the twentieth minute Verulam increased their lead with a goal by Charlie Davids.

Moments later, the visitors were awarded their third penalty, and this time Gona Padayachee made no mistake. The game now swung from end to end and the crowd went wild as the visitors surged into the Verulam half. A freak goal by Clive de Waa; saw Verulam take a 3 – 1 lead and many felt that the Transvaalers were now beaten.

But this was not to be, for the visitors came fighting back, and urged on by a large part of the crowd, Prega Thandrin got Bells' second goal, which looked to have been scored from an off-side position. Minutes later the visitors were again on the warpath, as left-winger, George van Rooyen found the net from a goalmouth melee.

This was it, the crowd now really went wild as Blue Bells went into the Verulam half for that vital goal. It was justice that their star Louis Jeevanathan should engineer that goal.

Final Score: Verulam Suburbs (3) – Blue Bells (4)

Blue Bells' centre forward P. Stevens, and Suburbs' new signing Colin Abrahams in a race for the ball. In the background is Blue Bells' live wire Louis Jeevanathan.
