Possible Retrogressive Move By Capetown University

MAY TRY TO CLOSE MEDICAL FACULTY TO NON-EUROPEANS

THERE is a possibility that the University of Capetown may try to close the doors of its faculty of medicine to non-Europeans, according to Dr. Ralph Lawrence, who has returned home after completing his studies there.

This, Dr. Lawrence said, was his personal observation and was based on many years of activity in University life. Probably the University would only allow non-Europeans to complete three years of their study there, and would then ask them to go elsewhere for the rest of their course. This had been the position which was in force until a few years ago.

Whatever action the University took, it would be strenuously opposed by the students, for there was still a strong nucleus of progressive student opinion at the Cape he said.

Referring to the incident, when some European students walked out of a dinner at which he was present, Dr. Lawrence said that it was a dinner given by the Non-European Battalion Council each year to mark people now in civvy, including themselves at the R.C.

The year before, even though he was a member of the N.H.C., he could not attend the N.H.C. dinner because the hotel at which it was given did not admit non-Europeans.

Last year the organiser, a N.H.C. member, changed the venue. Although he had been invited as an ex-member of the N.H.C., Dr. Lawrence said that the European attitude showed that he would not attend owing to pressure of studies at the end of the final year. He, however, decided to go.

The guests met in the hotel lounge. When dinner was announced Dr. Lawrence moved with the rest. It was then that a few students got together and sent a letter to the principal, who was present, and left the hotel. Nothing was mentioned about the incident at the dinner table, or subsequently.

Dr. Lawrence said that as far as he was concerned he ignored the whole thing. He never gave it a second thought.

Recalling the manner in which the non-European students had forced the University to allow them to complete their medical studies in this country, he said that a few years back a petition was presented to the University requesting that non-Europeans be allowed to stay for the full medical course. The students received no reply.

They then decided that they would return the next year and register for their fourth year and see what would happen. They returned and registered. Their registration was accepted, and they were allowed to attend the classes.

Dr. Lawrence has received an appointment at the Somerset Hospital, Cape, and will return next week to assume duties.

Now He Is 'Bombay Charlie'

RIDICULE, it has long been found, is one of the best political weapons there is. And now the top flight of Durban's social and moulded society is employing the technique of ridicule against none other than Senator Charles Frances Clarkson, Minister of the Interior.

He is being referred to as "Bombay Charlie" for his interest in the Indian people's demands.

Viewed from the Indian point of view, Senator Clarkson has been far from generous to the Indian people, but considered from the European point of view he is almost too radical.

While the average European is not prepared to concede the Indian people privileges at all, some Europeans are very long ago realised that the Indian people should be given some form of communal franchise. That was followed a very radical step by Mr. Clarkson, it will be recalled, was given the Interior portfolio because it was believed that a Natal man would know more about the Indian problem. He seems to did, and lived to make some concession to the Indians. He is now paying the penalty, for he is "Bombay Charlie" to the top flight of European society in Durban.

JINNAH'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATED

Durban Muslims Gather

"JINNAH DAY," the birthday of Mahomed Ali Jinnah, the president of the All-Indian Muslim League, was celebrated in Durban on Sunday by the Mahomed Ali Jinnah Birthday Celebration Committee at the Albert Cinema. A large gathering assembled to pay tribute to the leader of Muslim India on his 69th birthday.

Mr. A. A. Kajee, who presided, said that he was grateful to the Committee for asking him to preside at the function. The people, he said, had assembled to pay tribute to an inspiring leader—a leader not only of Muslim India but of the entire Muslim world.

"This great son of India has worked for the welfare of all Muslims, and we extend our greatest thanks to him for what he has done."

The Muslims, Mr. Kajee said, were at one time a scattered people with no cohesion at all, but Mr. Jinnah had been able to make them feel one people and bind them together. Today they were recognised as a nation. One of a loosely knit people he had created a nation.

Referring to Pakistan, Mr. Kajee said that there was a great deal of misunderstanding about it. Both deliberate and mistaken ideas, he said, were supposed to be. There never had been any difference between Hindus and Mussulmans and there never could be any. They had different cultural and social heritages and different religions, and had never mixed. The Hindu caste system, with its division of human beings of all sorts.

Awakened from Slumber

With the advance of education and the impact of outside forces, the Muslims had awakened from their slumber and had realised that the Government was more favourable to the Hindus because they worked hand in glove with the Government. They had been able to collar various Government posts while the Muslims slept or quarrelled among themselves.

Sir Sayed Ahmed was responsible for the awakening by telling the Muslims that Western education was not bad for them. With this awakening there was an association of Hindu-Muslim differences. The Muslims pressed for civil and political rights in India and demanded representation on a various bodies. They asked for a place under India's sun and it was then that the idea of Pakistan was born.

The move the Hindus advanced the more aggressive they became towards the Muslims. The Muslims realised that the majority rule would not work in India as there were two nations, as they are country. Even the late Mr. Gokhale had said that the Muslims were justified in forcing their release from the British rule might easily mean the up-rising of the Hindu rule.

Committed Position

If Pakistan was granted to the Muslims, then the Hindus would be to be sphere Hindustan, where they could carry out their principles and beliefs, and there would be no fight between Hindus and Muslims. Jinnah was now the captain of a big battleship and had consolidated his position during the recent elections. He appealed for "three cheers" and Jinnah Akbar, Muslims had recently. Pakistan however had not done it since. (Cheers and "Salaam.")

New Food Hardship

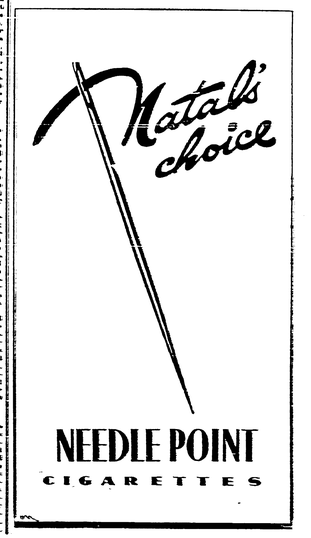

THE Government's decision to restrict the sale and use of flour will have widespread repercussions on the Indian community.

Owing to the shortage of rice most Indian homes had turned to the making of "roti"—or hand-made bread, as it is sometimes referred to. At one time it was primarily the Hindustani home that made "roti," while the majority of the Indian people preferred rice.

As there is still a shortage of rice, the restrictions on flour will make the position in the Indian home worse. The Indian housewife will have to turn to bread. Many homes these days have bread and "roti" alternated for meals, but with no flour available they will have to depend entirely on bread. This is a new problem which the Indian housewife will have to solve.

There is also a possibility that many Indians employed in the baking trade will have to be retrenched because the manufacture of biscuits and cakes will be cut down drastically.

Jinnah's Birthday

arrested by the British Government. Later he became the President of the Home Rule League and brought about Hindu-Muslim unity at Lucknow in 1916.

He had the courage to prevent the Bombay Corporation from giving a reception to Lord Willingdon when he was Viceroy of India.

Originally Jinnah believed that the salvation of India lay in Hindu-Muslim unity, and never he openly declared that he was an Indian first and a Muslim second.

When Mr. Gandhi launched his non-cooperation movement, Jinnah went into political exile in England rather than oppose Mr. Gandhi, with whom he disagreed.

Salvation—Pakistan

Later Mr. Jinnah decided that the Hindus and Muslims could not work together and that the salvation of the Muslims lay in Pakistan. The League was no doubt helped in this decision as it was not as much opposed to the British rule as the other Indian organisations.

Before he left South Africa was concerned Mr. Jinnah had told the speaker that it was an all-Indian problem and that he would help the Indians here as Indians and not as a minority of Muslims.

The New Year

THE New Year does not open with any cheer for the Indian people as they are faced with trouble at all the borders and the future is not very bright. The position in this country is not very happy. With the end of the war Indians hoped and hoped that their position in this country would improve but they are disappointed. On the contrary, the Asiatic Bill has been passed which has put Indians in Natal in the position of pariahs. Their rights, liberties and welfare are gravely threatened. The Congress in Natal at the moment is absolutely helpless. It has been declared illegal and its leaders have been interned. Another very important issue that is facing us now is the Pegging Act. Under the Pegging Act Indians in Natal are prevented from buying property except in certain areas. Recently the Government has appointed a Commission to go into the question of the Pegging Act. The Commission is now touring the country and is hearing evidence. Indians have been asked to give evidence before the Commission. Will they tell the Commission of full ownership in South Africa or are they to be content with mere shanties for the Indians to live in? Will they tell the Commission that they want land ownership and nothing less? Will they tell the Commission that they want to be treated on the Municipal map?

Indians have been fighting for their rights against the onslaughts of the Europeans in Natal. At the moment he is absolutely helpless. He has lost his leaders and his defence has eighty leaders have been interned.

Another very important issue that is facing us now is the Trusteeship question in Natal in the Legislative Assembly. Under the Trusteeship clause the Europeans have been given the right to look after the interests of the Indian people. Do not Indians know what is in store for them? Do not Indians know that they have been treated as hewers of wood and drawers of water? Do not Indians know that they have been treated as serfs? Do not Indians know that they have been treated as helots? Do not Indians know that they have been treated as pariahs? Do not Indians know that they have been treated as untouchables? Rules for 1946 Tests Against England

The Test matches against India next year will be played at Lord's on June 27, 29 and 29, at the Oval on July 29, 22 and 23, and at the Oval on August 17, 19 and 20. If neither side has an advantage in the first test, there will be an extra day in the third.

The bowling side will have the option of a new ball after 55 overs instead of 200 runs. An over will be six, not eight balls. A side can declare on the first day of a three day match after 200. These rules will apply to all matches of the tour, says Reuter.

Visiting Teams Play In Durban

O. S. AYOB, who scored 101 not out against Inner for Sastri College.

OTTOMANS, at Chesterton, played the first game of their tour against Zulikar, a local team, on Boxing Day.

Ottomans, batting first, did well to compile 260 runs. The star performance for the visitors was S. Ballo, who was not out with 99 to his credit. Ottomans declared for four losses. O. Ayob, with 77, and K. Gallie, with 44 not out, were the next best scores.

Of the Zulikar bowlers, A. Anthony took four wickets for 41 runs and K. Reddy four for 67 runs.

Zulikar started their innings shortly after tea and the visitors' bats were soon in action. The opening off attack that was put up by Zulikar's Ted soared 96 for two wickets at one o'clock, at the close of play, mainly due to a fine forceful innings of 49 by C. H. M. Davis. K. Gallie with three for 25, and C. Gainer, with two for five, were instrumental and successful bowlers. The match was drawn, time being up.

Late Start

There was a late start on the match between the Johannesburg Hindu XI and the Inner Sastri College team, played at Curtis's Paradise, Durban.

Starting then after 4.0 p.m., I. A. Ismail's team batted for 2 hours 20 minutes and compiled a total of 74 for 7 wickets, when A. Khan declared, leaving Sastri College 2 hours 40 minutes to get the runs. Sastri College replied to this challenge and were all out for 58 runs in 1½ overs.

Good Batting

Ottomans, at Chesterton, in their second game, met a selected Durban Indians XI last weekend at Curtis's Paradise.

The first day saw maybe a more creditable performance as a fast run-getter was witnessed, scoring a fast and valuable 100 runs within 2 hours. Ottomans were very much in good style, as all their batsmen down to the last made a showing talent and the

Rail Benefits Wanted

THE NATIONAL Railway Passengers' Welfare Association has asked for representation to be given to passengers on the Railways Administration.

Mr. Justice Beaumont, the president of the Association, in a letter to the General Manager of the railways and harbours, said that the Association had been formed to look after the interests of passengers in the Union and South West Africa.

It was an organisation for non-European passengers as the general public had their own organisation and the European Railway staff had their own. The Association was not concerned with the grievances of non-European railway employees, except in so far as they affected passengers.

The objects of the Association were to obtain improvements in the following matters:

1. Protest against the discontinuance of the non-European coaches on the Natal Road Services.
2. Protest against the African passengers who are allowed to occupy portions of seats in the European compartments.
3. Protest regarding the poor conditions which are allowed to exist in the non-European waiting rooms.

A. Kajee in Court Again—Durban "Non-European" Bus-Seat Case

EVIDENCE BY OFFICIAL

AHMED SADEK KAJEE appeared again on Tuesday before Mr. A. le Grange in the Durban Magistrate's Court. He is charged with sitting on a seat which was not specially set aside for Non-Europeans in a Durban trolley bus. The case has been adjourned to January 25.

The first witness called by Mr. Kisten for the defence was Frederick Walter Malley, who appeared as the nominee of the Durban Municipal Transport Manager. He was the Traffic Superintendent, and told the Court that he was in a position to produce records regarding Durban Municipal transport.

There were, he said, 207 pass senger vehicles operated by the Durban Municipality.

These came under four different headings. In the first group there were 28 trammers, none of which were especially set aside for the use of non-Europeans. In a tramcar 28 seats were available to non-Europeans on the upper deck. The average accommodation on a tramcar was about 70 passengers. The whole of the upper deck of passenger vehicles became available to non-Europeans when there was an equal number of Europeans and non-European passengers offering on any route.

"I instruct the driver when he shall put down the rod dividing the two sections," Malley continued, said Malley. He made that decision from information obtained after investigation, he said.

EUROPEAN RIGHT

It was a fact that a non-European might occupy any seat on a tramcar if the seats were vacant, with the permission of the conductor, but he had the right to exclude a European passenger from a seat at the rear and request him to occupy a seat in the front. This would happen when the back seats were fully occupied, and the fore seats were vacant.

Malley contended that there were seats especially set aside for non-Europeans on a trolley bus. He did not agree with Mr. Kisten's suggestion that the notice in the bus reserving seats for the use of non-Europeans did not, in any way, make them especially available to non-Europeans. They were there for both Europeans and non-Europeans to occupy, but a non-European had no special right to any seat.

QUALIFY ANSWER

"I see desire to qualify my former answer stating that there is no seat especially set aside for non-Europeans on the buses. The four rear seats on the left and the two rear seats on the right are especially set aside for non-Europeans in terms of the notice displayed on the trolley buses," he said.

Mr. Kisten: Can you point out what in the notice especially sets aside the four seats on the left and the two on the right? Malley: There is no proof that is my interpretation of the notice.

A letter with its hopeful fulfilment by Europeans, would not be...

...ed for any passengers at all. Malley: Yes. On the Cadillac route the ratio of Europeans to non-European boarding buses was six to 1.

In view of an announcement by the inspector an duty was supposed to inform him (Malley) when there was an unusual number of non-European passengers, and then issue instructions to the inspectors to keep the rod down, which indicated that the accommodation on the vehicle was unreserved.

Of the 207 passenger vehicles owned by the Durban Corporation, eight trolley buses and 31 single-deck bay motor buses were set aside for the exclusive use of non-Europeans. On the whole service there was a total seating accommodation of 9,900 for Europeans, and 3,257 for non-Europeans. In addition to this, witness pointed out, that there were 100 non-European buses operating only for non-Europeans, with a total seating capacity of 6,527. This made 7,757 seats for non-Europeans, and 9,900 seats for Europeans in Durban.

The case has been adjourned to January 25.

India's armed forces will be completely officered by Indians in the near future, under proposals which the Chiefs of Staff have decided to recommend. The Royal Indian Air Force is completely officered by Indians.

ISIPINGO'S DECISION

Mr. M. H. Cassoojee, a member of the Executive of the Natal Indian Congress (Isipingo Branch), told The Leader that the decision of Isipingo Beach residents to boycott Indian traders was taken only at a Committee meeting. It was not a public meeting of the Indian people.

Mr. Cassoojee feels that the deputation was motivated by a desire to create the present officials of the N.I.C. The Isipingo Branch of the N.I.C. has never been politically active, he said.

Congress Campaign Opens—Meeting at Verulam

THE first shot in the extensive but surely planned Natal-wide campaign was fired at Verulam, when the Congress held the first of a series of mass meetings—the first ever to be held in Verulam by Congress since Mahatma Gandhi left the shores of South African on Sunday, January 6. Similar meetings are to be held throughout Natal in the course of the next couple of months.

The purpose of the mass campaign by the new officials of the Natal Indian Congress is:—

(i) To rouse the political consciousness of the mass of the Indian people of Natal to their political and economic disabilities.

(ii) To obtain confirmation of the community for the very legitimate demands of Congress as submitted to the Prime Minister on November 9, 1945.

(iii) To make the people and the Government of India, as well as progressive forces throughout the world, aware of the disabilities of Indians in this so-called democratic land of South Africa.

Officials from headquarters, Dr. G. M. Naicker and Mr. A. I. Kajee, addressed the meeting, and dealt exhaustively with the struggle of the Indians in South Africa against the various discriminatory laws from the days of Mahatma Gandhi to the present time, and asked them present to prepare for the struggle ahead.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the meeting:

"That mass meeting of Indian residents of Verulam and district wholeheartedly supports the views on Natal's Indian question as expressed by Field Marshal Smuts in parliament by a deputation of the Natal Indian Congress on November 9, and emphatically demands that the time is now long overdue for the Union Government to consider the following, among other demands, as contained in the memorandum presented to the Prime Minister: (1) Adult franchise on common roll. (2) Farm-allotment repeal of Pegging Act. (3) (a) Abrogation of Housing and Expropriation Ordinance; (b) no segregation in housing schemes; (c) abolishment of Government policy. (4) Free and compulsory education up to J.C. (5) Removal of provincial barriers. (6) Immediate representation between the Government of India, the Union Government and representatives of the Natal, Transvaal and Cape Indian Congresses.

"That meeting authorises the executive of the Natal Indian Congress to adopt every possible measure in order to obtain the fulfilment of the above demands."

Law Barrier Created in Transvaal

TWO Durban young men have been notified that they have completed the requirements of the E.L.C. at the Witwatersrand University. They are Mr. J. N. Singh and Mr. A. I. Bhoola, who completed their B.A. at the N.U.C. and then proceeded to Wits to take their law examinations.

Mr. Singh, who is articled in Johannesburg, in visiting Durban at present, Mr. Bhoola is awaiting articles.

Mr. Singh told a "Leader" reporter that the Transvaal Law Society, working, apparently, hand in hand with the Immigration Bureau, was making it difficult for Indian students to register their articles. He himself had been told by the Immigration Department that he should serve his articles in Natal.

Indian students seeking registration and articles were regarded as prohibited immigrants and could not, therefore, have their articles registered.

Yugo-Slav Envoy a Muslim

(From Our Own Correspondent)

CAIRO (by Mail)

The new Yugo-Slav Minister to Cairo is a Muslim. He is Mr. Ahmed Hadzievic, who has just arrived here from Belgrade. He will be the first European Muslim envoy to come to Egypt. He is a native of Bosnia-Herzegovina.

INDIAN BROADCAST

On Sunday next at 9.15 a.m. Prof. W. S. Ally, the well-known Durban violinist, assisted by Mr. Hazel and Party, assisted by the Durban Orchestra, will broadcast a programme of Indian music from the Durban Station.

Africa Sits Between Russia and Syria

THE plan for the seating of the delegates at the opening meeting of the General Assembly of the United Nations means that South Africa occupied a position alongside Soviet Russia and Syria (as at San Francisco, the seating is in alphabetical order). Mr. Heaton Nicholls and his fellow South African delegates will thus have to overlook colour bars and European-Asiatic restrictions while the session lasts.

REMOVAL OF COLOUR BAR WANTED

A MOTION passed unanimously at a meeting of the Africans People's Organisation in Cape Town asked the conference to petition Parliament for the removal of the colour bar in the South Africa Act.

The resignations of African trade unions was also asked for. The conference adopted a motion pressing for the abolition of the Pass Act (1920), which legalises the hut system, reports Sapa.

Dr. T. E. Dietrich was re-elected president of the A.P.O.; Mr. S. M. Rahim, senior vice-president; and Mr. A. K. Abdurahman, general secretary.

The conference adopted an unopposed motion expressing admiration for the struggle of the peoples of Java for independence and urging the Indonesians to continue their fight "against Dutch tyranny."

The motion condemned the interference of Dr. Soetsenbeer Bajpai in the domestic affairs of a peace-loving people. It deplored "the shooting of innocent people by British and Dutch Imperialist forces, and demanded the withdrawal of all foreign troops from Indonesian soil.

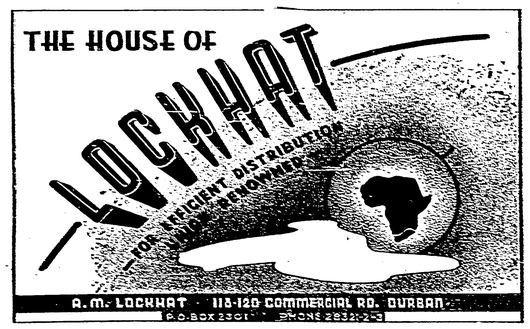

The Coloured Advisory Council was strongly attacked, and an unopposed motion was passed demanding its abolition.

Dr. Dadoo—"I Did Not Praise Mr. Desmukh"

DR. Y. M. DADOO, President of the Transvaal Indian Congress, informs "The Leader" that it is not correct to state that he was among those who praised the High Commissioner for India, Mr. R. M. Deshmukh, at the recent Rand farewell function.

"During my speech I stressed the need for a vigorous struggle against the proposed Bill which will replace the Pegging Act, and I advised Mr. Deshmukh to call upon India to break all diplomatic relations with South Africa and impose economic sanctions if the Union Government was adamant," says Dr. Dadoo. "This is no time for even pressure. My attitude to Mr. Deshmukh has been highly critical since his deplorable Barberton speech, which we denounced to Indian interests."

"You can imagine how pleased I am," writes a lady from Pioneer Mine (Case 7/45), "my hands were as hard as stone from constant contact by poisons. One tin of Felaform Ointment and one sample of Felaform Soap caused the stones to soften and fall off."

Mr. R. L. van Niekerk of Walkerstroom, dictates: "Send me another tube of Felaform Soap and another bottle of Felaform Blood Tonic. It is the best I have ever used. My face was full of pimples, blackheads and blotches, but is now beautifully clear and smooth."

Hundreds of sufferers from eczema and other skin troubles have obtained complete relief from pain, itching and disfigurement, by using the Felaform remedies. All obtainable at all Felaform Outposts. Felaform Soap, Felaform Skin Powder, Felaform Blood Tonic and Felaform Shaving Sticks.

A Challenge to The Government

THE case of the Indian waiters in the Cape, as reported in a recent issue, is a challenge to the honesty of the Government of South Africa in its dealings with the Indian people. Admittedly many of the waiters have broken the law but what kind of law is this which they have broken? It is an arbitrary law which makes the Indian a prohibited immigrant in the Cape Province on search of a livelihood. He can only move about within the confines of Natal.

Yet, on the other hand, the Government is very anxious that the Indian should not have to live in Natal and should need no help. The Indian people are attached to the Cape country. Their parents or beyond our modern standing; they have been born in greater by answer to make the Indian a home in Natal there is most remember, in the light of changed circumstances, the Prime Minister's statement that there is room before 1943 may enter the Cape from Natal provided he passes an educational test. Indeed, the Indian is encouraged to enter the Cape except on visiting permits.

This state of affairs is in direct conflict with the traditional liberalism of the Cape. The Province can now be made a testing ground for the solution of the Indian problem in that part of the country though as a last step in the solution of the Indian problem at the country though the Indian people. This would help in the co-operation of Natal and would automatically remove much unnecessary friction between Europeans and Indians in Natal by reducing the density of the population of that Province to equal the European density. Obviously nothing is so effective as to afford that by allowing, at least the Cape, might be encouraged. It throws on no unfair the Indian.

The Indian population of South Africa is rapidly approaching a point where it can no longer increase naturally in the Union. Immigration barriers are already insurmountable. The European, however, is still free to enter the country and the natural increase of the European population is about 220,000 while the European death rate is only one-half that of the Indian people. Hence the Indian people should be encouraged to move gradually to the Cape Province.

The next question is what should be the attitude of the Transvaal where there is already a very large Indian population. Transvaal Indians have a similar background to Natal Indians and have a similar outlook. It is therefore wise to remove the Indian from the Transvaal. The Indians there are now removed and they are now in the Cape Province. They are not in the Cape Province. By the time the Indian population of the Transvaal has been reduced to a reasonable level, the Europeans will be ready to move to the Cape. It is plain that the Indian population of the Transvaal should be reduced to a reasonable level. A start could be made by the Government of the Transvaal encouraging Indians to move to the Cape. The Indians would be encouraged to move from the Transvaal to the Cape. The Government of the Transvaal could encourage the Indians to move to the Cape. The Government of the Transvaal could encourage the Indians to move to the Cape. The Government of the Transvaal could encourage the Indians to move

PURIFYING PILLS

Fine Batting Brings Durban Big Victory

BRILLIANT batting at Curry's Fountain last weekend by one of Durban's stalwarts, Jack Challen and N. I. Yusuf, the Durbans captain, brought an outright victory for Durban over Inter-Districts in the eliminating round for the Inverness competition.

Batting first, Durban N.T. batting first, established a formidable score of 165. The Inter-Districts scored 58 in their first innings and managed to compile the reasonable total of 199 in their following innings. A feature of the game was that the Inter-Districts' first innings lasted only 77 minutes, while the second took two hours.

Durban had a good start to their innings, and Yusuf, Challen, however, soon settled the game proper and carried the score from 36 to 88 before Challen was sent to the pavilion. N. I. Yusuf, the next man in, further stimulated Durban's scoring rate with Challen he made the game safe.

D. J. Challen, who retired after securing a century for Durban against Inter-Districts at Durban, last week-end.

With a contribution of 48 runs, Yusuf did not bat flawlessly, but he looked for much time and got down to 48 in 58 minutes, with the help of time runs and some very fine drives. Challen, with a total of 88 runs, was unbeaten and undefeated with a stylish 100 collected in 2hr 40 minutes. His score included four fours.

J. Chetram, with three for 47, and R. Naicker, with three for 44, were the Inter-Districts' most successful bowlers.

Inter-Districts, after losing their earlier batsmen cheaply, never recovered from their poor start. The best they could do was a total of 199. This was largely due to an otherwise dull innings were those by R. Naicker with 71 and an undefeated 16 by K. C. Naidoo.

A. L. Yusuf, bowling with the help of a strong wind, was largely responsible for Inter-Districts' utter collapse. He claimed five wickets for 74 runs in 16 overs four of which were maidens. M. R. Reddy was the next best bowler for Durban. He dispersed the ball well into a strong cross wind, and maintained an unplayable length which ensured for him four wickets at the cost of 57 runs.

Inter-Districts' second innings opened at 100 after two hours of play.

Durban, 1st innings, 165 (D. J. Challen 100 retired, N. I. Yusuf 48, A. H. C. Cassalis 7, C. H. Hankey 2, J. Chetram 1, R. C. P. Naicker 16, not out; Inter-Districts, 1st innings, 58 (R. Naicker 16, S. C. Naidoo 12 not out; I. A. Yusuf 3 for 15, M. R. Reddy 4 for 16, A. L. Yusuf 3 for 16, M. C. Chetram, 100 (R. Naicker 71, S. C. Naidoo 16 not out; A. L. Yusuf 3 for 74, M. R. Reddy 4 for 57, C. H. Hankey 1 for 27).

THIS IS A STORY WHICH COULD BE TOLD—

Mr. Heaton Nicholls.

And Here Is the Story—

For Mr. Nicholls would surely never have told his audience—

THE Union's High Commissioner, Mr. H. G. Heaton Nicolls, was to have spoken on "South Africa" at the Royal Society of Arts in London this week. The address, which was to have been delivered on Tuesday, was cancelled. No reasons were given by the leader of the South African delegation at the United Nations Assembly, but it is clear that the address on the same subject, Mr. Fleury, an interesting feature of the gathering was the presence of Pandit Bawanidutt Maharaj, of Mauritius, who officiated at the wedding according to Vedic rites, and those present followed the proceedings keenly.

After the end of the marriage ceremony a reception was held at the Palace Theatre.

Mr. Kathoo Y. Motan, C.C., of Durban, Natal, acted as M.C. He spoke highly of the presence of all sections of the Indian community and was pleased to see such unity in Bloemhof. He hoped that such unity would be a forerunner of many more to come. He also thanked the Indians for their hospitality.

Peter, the Registrar, who followed Mr. Motan, congratulated the newly married couple.

Among those who spoke on the occasion were Messrs. Vellachee Naidu (Indunduma), Pandit Bawanidutt Maharaj, Jan Paul (Bloemhof), Bhagwandas Vithal Haricharan Amadeo (Lydenburg), Ishwar Motan, Gulab Hoss, G. The function terminated with prayers, after which all present partook of a meal provided by Mr. and Mrs. Ebrahim Ramjee and family at their residence, while Europeans were entertained to a cocktail party at the theatre.

But Alas! It Is Doubtful

"BUT alas! it is very doubtful By the South African Government will accept even 30 per cent. of what you in South Africa and we as Indian want for you. Personally, I feel that until and unless we have full enlightenment in India, little progress will be made in the South African Indian cause."

This passage is contained in a letter written by Kunwar Sir Maharaj Singh, a former Agent-General, to the Natal Indian Congress. It is in reply to a copy of the resolution which the Congress sent to Sir Maharaj Singh.

Sir Maharaj Singh.

Colour Bar Banned

THE colour bar will be played off-side when the South African Athletic Union's fresh arrangements are about to co-ordinate non-European athletics and provide for a non-European meeting.

In doing so the sponsors have taken into consideration the fact that European athletic bodies prohibit non-European players participating in their meetings.

They will, therefore, not restrict their organization to non-Europeans only but will have it open to all South Africans. Europeans will be free to compete in their meetings.

In this way it is hoped that European and non-European athletes will be able to meet, and the head of the respective communities will compete against each other. The decision is now up to the Europeans.

Art Treasures Return

From Our Own Correspondent.

BARIAV (by wire).

With the end of the war, a large collection of rare specimens of art, architecture and paintings have been brought back to the Taj Mahal, at Agra, and other buildings in Rajputana, which were removed very early in 1939 when the Japanese began to make threatening gestures in South Africa in a drastic manner. Many of the art treasures of the past of Mr. Nicholls could have hidden in India, and would have been safe for the country which he represented.

Withdrawal with discretion can be a virtue more valuable than losing valuables.

N.I.C. Puntan's Hill Officials

The following were elected officials of the Natal Indian Congress, Puntan's Hill branch, at the annual meeting on December 30, under the presidentship of Mr. P. Ramsamy: E. E. Reddy, vice-president; A. E. Cassim, C. A. Reddy, and Ewan Cassim, committee; Mr. Ramsamy, re-elected secretary; Mr. Cassim, re-elected treasurer; Messrs. K. Reddy, L. Reddy, K. Reddy, K. Cassim, C. K. Reddy, and Mr. Ramsamy, committee; Mr. Cassim, re-elected auditor.

CONTROL BOARDS NEXT S.A. SCHEME TO SMOTHER INDIANS

Communal Franchise As a Sop?

CONTROL Boards, as envisaged in the Pretoria Agreement and composed of Europeans and Indians, will displace the Pegging Act, which expires this year. The provision of control, which under the Pegging Act was confined to Durban, will be extended to the whole of Natal. The Transvaal, too, will come under some form of control.

This, it is believed, according to "The Leader's" political correspondent, will be the important features of the Bill, which will be promulgated shortly to replace the lapsing Pegging Act.

Associated with this further restriction of Indian rights will be an offer of communal franchise; a quid pro quo for the Indian loss. This will be the Government's token of "sincerity" towards the Indian community. In effect, it will be the means of justifying the action of the Union Government in the eyes of the world.

Another subtle move on the part of the authors of the plan is to draw in the name of the Aga Khan, whose long term record visit to the Union has appealed to his countrymen to "go slow" in making political rights. Even when the question of the international legal status of the Indians will serve the Union Government to look its own salvation by keeping to another the Indian community of South Africa.

The Government's scheme-bind offer to bestow on the communal system, Indians, like Natives, will have no direct say in the political affairs of the Union. They need have white spokesmen. The colour bar is to uphold the white hegemony, which must be maintained at all costs in Parliament.

The Prime Minister had an unofficial meeting at Capetown on Monday. Those who took part in it included the Minister of the Interior, Senator Clarkson, the Administrator of Natal, Mr. P. K. Mitchell, Senator D. G. Stoptoe, Colonel Walter F. Short, deputy chairman of the Natal Housing Board, Dr. L. S. Meyer, Government legal adviser, and Mr. J. H. Bavoon, Union Commissioner of Immigrants, and Assistant Affairs.

All those who took part in the meeting at Capetown on Monday knew very well that Indians, to a man, are opposed to accepting the communal form of franchise. The Broome Commission had also told them that, but Government insistence is purely to underline Indian "precalcitrance and obstinacy." They think that they will succeed because of the declared uncompromising attitude of the present Congress leadership.

Merchant Ships Lose War Paint

From Our Own Correspondent.

BARIAV (by wire).

Africa. I have noted this more than once in the newspapers in India. If there is such a reader here I am ready to go to court with him to prove it, at my own expense.

With best wishes for you all and the Indian cause for the New Year and for all poverty and honest Congress workers. Mahatma

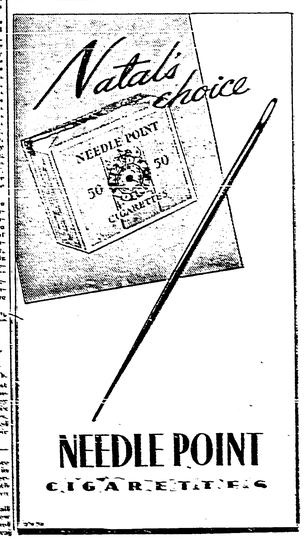

Cutting The Life Cords

Mr. J. W. Godfrey, speaking at a farewell gathering before he left Durban for India: The position today was much worse than it had been ever before. Legislation was pending; nobody knew the exact nature of the legislation, but it was not very difficult to read between the lines and discover its effects. It would be disastrous to the Indian people. The life cords of the Indian community would be cut, and it would die a slow death. (See page Five.)

An Historic Step

WHAT may be regarded as an historic step in the national consciousness of the Indians and those kinship with the people of India is the decision of the Transvaal Indian Congress to celebrate, officially, under its banner the India Independence Day on January 26.

Hitherto the celebrations of this day and the reaffirmation of the Independence Pledge was done by the India League and other bodies interested on the status of their Motherland.

HAYWARDS: In loving and cherished memory of our beloved son and dear brother, Harrygopaul, who was accidentally drowned in the Mandeni River on January 4, 1945.

SINGH: In loving memory of my dear cousin, Ram Singh, who passed away on January 19, 1945.

Although many days have passed away
And years have gone by,
With tears we turn your memory,
And watched your pain away.
We thanked you with loving care,
But could not make you stay,
We watched beside your bedside
As the lonely hours moved,
And now we miss you more than ever
When we watched you breathe your last.

Sadly remembered by Prem, Suraj Bhan, Chetan Singh, Durban.

SOOBREN: In loving memory of my dear wife and our darling mother,

Born September, who passed away on January 7, 1944.

Time has changed, but our thoughts never.
The memories of those happy days
Whose memory is dear to us.
Always remembered by her three children, Sookdeo, Chotay and Sookdeo, Rose Cottage, Durban.

Miss Kuppusamy: C. Cohen, who passed away on December 26, 1945.

Your smiling face and loving ways
Are memories to recall,
Your kindly heart and gentle hands
Did comfort to us all.
Though you have gone from mortal sight
We shall never lose remembrance of the one we loved so much.

We often sit and think of you
And those happy days we spent with you.
Without a chance to say goodbye
God took you home beside Him to rest.
Sadly missed,
Mother, brothers, sisters and relatives.

SINGH: In loving memory of our dear husband, Sadhu Singh, Bale, who left us on 26th January, 1945.

Years have passed and you are gone
Left us sorrow and pain to mourn
Memories we have of you
Are sweet words and the happy days we knew.
And we hope to fill more vacant hours
Sadly missed by his wife and children.

Years may pass, and loved ones may grow older,
Blows may fall and fortune frown,
But our hearts shall ever remember
Those days when you were around.
Sleep in peace
Always remembered by the wife's brothers, Sheela and Bali.

...ing and practical experience, and a tribunal to judge the case at the end of the course. Indians in general have been in the past, and are still, in the unfortunate position of having to rely on the goodwill of the European employer for the opportunity to learn a trade, and this is one of the reasons why Indians have been debarred from many trades. Now that the Government has undertaken to provide facilities for training Indians, it is to be hoped that employers will not be unduly influenced by the colour of the skin, but will give the Indian a fair chance to learn a trade. Indians must also realise that they must be prepared to work hard and long hours, and to be content with small wages during the period of training. Many Indians have failed in the past because they have not been prepared to work hard and long hours, and have been unwilling to be instructed, and to accept criticism. Employers have come to the conclusion that Indians are unwilling to work hard, and are unwilling to be instructed, and to accept criticism. Employers have come to the conclusion that Indians are unwilling to work hard, and are unwilling to be instructed, and to accept criticism. If Indians want to prove that they are willing to work hard, and are willing to be instructed, and to accept criticism, they must do so by their actions. Employers will not be influenced by what Indians say, but by what they do. Indians must realise that they must be prepared to work hard and long hours, and to be content with small wages during the period of training. Slaughter And Storage of Meat For Indians

THE statements made by Mr. A. S. Patel in support of the contamination of meat at the Durban Abattoir are not altogether correct, according to Mr. H. C. Patel, treasurer of the Durban and District Indian Master Butchers' Association.

Mr. Patel tells "The Leader" that there was already a separate cold storage for mutton and beef, but there was no separate entrance. Both beef and mutton had to enter through the same door. What the Indians required was separate entrances for mutton and beef.

As far as the mixing of Australian mutton and locally-killed mutton was concerned, this had happened on one occasion when there was an increase in the supplies and the butcher authorities had put away the surplus in cold storage. Both meats had been stored together.

Durban Indian butchers had refused to accept this meat when it was offered because it was against their religious principles to handle this meat, Others, however, took the meat for distribution. It was possible that the Indians might have passed on the meat purchased to an unsuspecting public.

Mr. Patel also points out that the butchers receive their meat before Indian butchers. This is not the position. Indian butchers who have cold storage facilities have also received meat ahead of the Indians had received their supplies.

With regard to slaughtering arrangements, the reference should be only to beef and not meat generally.
