AMERICAN FREEDOM CHAMPION

From Our Correspondent

JOHANNESBURG: "The South African Government has forced me to leave this country which I had expected to make my home, but I want all South Africans to know through the medium of "The Leader" that no matter where I am I will continue to work for 'freedom in our lifetime' for all South Africans of all colours," declared Mrs. Mary Louise Hooper, the American millionairess, in an exclusive interview with "The Leader" prior to her secret departure from the Union.

Mr. Hooper is now in London after a brief visit to Ghana and will return to America soon where she will do all she can to raise money for the Treason Trial Defence Fund.

If Only West Indian Cricketers Could Play In S.A.

WRITING from London, the well-known South African sports writer, Louis Duffus, says that there is one South African in England who not only has a high opinion of the Caribbean team as cricketers but also as good losers. His greatest wish at the moment is to see South Africa play the West Indies. He is Denys Morkel, who played in 26 test matches — from 1927 to 1947 — and is now on the Nottinghamshire committee and in his second year as a county cricketer.

Pipe Dream Plans Roll Out Of City Hall

Commentary by "Politicus"

THE Durban City Council will go down in history as the Council of Planners. Plans roll out galore from the Council or its numerous Committees; plans for this, plans for that. It is plans, plans, plans. But most of these plans are just plans, which are filed in one of the many pigeon-holes to be forgotten and left to collect dust year after years.

Insolent Gatemen Marred Opening of New Bath

European's Aggression Curbed By Police

A most regrettable incident occurred when a "Leader" reporter attempted in vain to enter the main gates leading to the new £42,000 Balkumar Singh Swimming Bath at Springfield on Sunday. The Mayor of Durban, Mr. Percy Osborn, performed the official opening ceremony at which fifteen hundred Indians and Europeans, including many City Councillors and prominent business men, were present at the function. The trouble started when the "Leader" reporter found the heavily barred main entrance, where a mixed crowd of men, women and children were also struggling to gain entry to the bath.

Miss Shirley Moodley, secretary of the Durban Indian Surf Life Saving Club, pinning a rosette on the lapel of Durban's Mayor, Mr. Percy Osborn, who officially opened the Balkumar Singh Bath at Springfield last Sunday.

REACTION TO PLAN FOR "INDIAN CITY"

Multi-racialism Is the only Answer

DURBAN: What South Africa requires is not an 'Indian City' or a 'European City' or an 'African City' or a 'Coloured City' but multi-racial cities with equality of treatment for all sections of the country's population who go to make up the Union. This was the general viewpoint among Indian leaders in respect of the 'Indian City' Mr. A. Kinnear, Durban's City Engineer, has proposed be situated on about 7 000 acres of North Coast land between Verulam and Tongaat, some 22 miles away from Durban.

PIETERMARITZBURG, FRIDAY, JUNE 21, 1957

NINE YEARS OF HARSH COLOUR LEGISLATION

MOUNTING TEMPO OF TYRANNY

A MASS Conference in Defence of Civil Liberties held at the Ramin Social Centre, Durban, last Sunday, expressed an opinion by resolution that the past nine years of Nationalist Party rule in South Africa had seen steady and relentless inroads into rights of freedom of speech, assembly, association, education, collective bargaining, movement, occupation, and of the people to choose their own Government. Such measures as the Suppression of Communism Act, the Bantu Authorities Act, the Bantu Education Act, the Separate Representation of Voters Act, the Native Laws Amendment Act, the Industrial Conciliation Act and the Native Labour Settlement of Disputes Act, were all designed to ensure the maintenance of Nationalist supremacy in South Africa for all time.

ACCUSED CONGRATULATES ACCUSED: "Although I don't agree with this form of representation, as a fellow Natalian accused I wish you well," Mr. G. Durbach, co-accused of the South African Indian Congress, seems to be saying with a forced smile to Mr. Ben Turok, who has been elected to the Cape Provincial Council. Both Messrs. Durbach and Turok are accused at the Treason Inquiry. The smiles will of the Drill Hall makes an appropriate background to the picture.

HE STANDS FOR DIRECT REPRESENTATION

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT

JOHANNESBURG: "As a democrat I stand for direct representation for the non-European people in all legislative bodies in the country and I will, in and out of the Provincial Council, consistently advocate this viewpoint," Mr. Ben Turok, one of the accused in the Treason Inquiry, told "The Leader", commenting on his unopposed election by the Cape Provincial Council for the Western Electoral Division.

Asking for the Moon—or a Bad Week for Louw

It has been a bad week for Mr. Louw. His continued partial withdrawal from the United Nations has come in for widespread criticism. In effect he has said that the Union will only return to the U.N. if the U.N. accepts his views.

The Press — well, the English-speaking non-Government Press — has been unanimous in opposing Mr. Louw's stand. Even those papers who supported his partial withdrawal, or were inclined to condone it, now feel that they cannot support Mr. Louw any longer.

Buddha Jayanti Celebration This Sunday

DURBAN: The Natal Buddhist Society will celebrate Buddha Jayanti Year at the Bharat Hall, Durban, this Sunday at 2.30 p.m., at which Swami Nischalananda and Mr. S. R. Dayal will be the speakers. Mr. M. R. Pillay, vice-president of the society, told "The Leader" that Buddhists all over the world were celebrating the great event, which marks the 2,500th anniversary of the Enlightenment of Lord Buddha, which has served to carry his benign message and teachings throughout the civilized world, particularly in Buddhist countries and India.

Our photographer interviews Miss Doreen and Sheila Peters, of 154 Aliwal Building, Albert Street, Durban. She is interested in swimming, as you see. Ballroom dancing, acting and the theatre. She would like to correspond with pen pals from any part of the Union.

DEATH LURKS HERE

DEATH again stalked the already blood-stained lower end of Church Street, Maritzburg, last week and claimed a five year-old girl as victim. Earlier this month, an aged Indian also lost his life in a motor accident at almost the identical spot. Last week a motor car and a panel van were involved in a serious accident, but in this case, fortunately, no one was injured.

The "Death Trap" lies between Retief Street and the Willowbridge. It is one of the Natal capital city's main arteries, and leads through the Indian shopping centre, and is on the Raisec[illegible] bus route. With the diverting of the Sobantu Village bus service through Longmarket Street, the danger to traffic is immense.

BOLD NEW RACE POLICY THE ONLY HOPE

SIR DE VILLIERS GRAAFF, in his recent speech in the Assembly, indicated United Party line at the next general elections. This is what he called nation on racial grounds based on reasonableness".

He (Dr. Verwoerd) said, that practical discrimination between coloured and white people in South Africa, and not on paper, was the need to maintain Western civilisation in South Africa, and not on paper and a blind hope kap mentality. It would be reasonable support, and understanding and support of all sections of the country would be sought.

From Our Correspondent

LONDON: Wonders will never cease. Mr. Eric Louw, South African Minister of External Affairs and staunch advocate of "apartheid", actually deigned to lunch this week with Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, Prime Minister of Ghana. This momentous luncheon meeting at Marlborough House between representatives of the Government of South Africa and the new state of Ghana took place at the Bowhouse Hotel after the morning session of the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' Conference at No. 10 Downing Street. Needless to say, Dr. Nkrumah would be refused admission in any such establishment in South Africa. Mr. Louw was accompanied by Mr. G. P. Jooste, the Secretary for ... Affairs, and Dr. Nkrumah by Mr. Kojo Botsio, the Minister of Trade and Labour. Mr. Louw informed me afterwards that the discussion ... lead both Dr. Nkrumah had been very interesting and most constructive.
