AFRICAN MARCH ... THOUSAND Part of the million thousand ... gathered in Durban on June 26 to protest against apartheid. They carried hides ... and placards and later there was a mass meeting at the Bharat Hall.

WELL! WELL! WELL!

From Our Correspondent

LONDON: Wonders will never cease. Mr. Eric Louw, South African Minister of External Affairs and staunch advocate of "apartheid", actually deigned to lunch this week with Dr. Kwame Nkrumah, Prime Minister of Ghana. This momentous luncheon meeting at Marlborough House between representatives of the Government of South Africa and the new state of Ghana took place at the Bowhouse Hotel after the morning session of the Commonwealth Prime Ministers' Conference at No. 10 Downing Street. Needless to say, Dr. Nkrumah would be refused admission in any such establishment in South Africa. Mr. Louw was accompanied by Mr. G. P. Jooste, the Secretary for ... Affairs, and Dr. Nkrumah by Mr. Kojo Botsio, the Minister of Trade and Labour. Mr. Louw informed me afterwards that the discussion ... lead both Dr. Nkrumah had been very interesting and most constructive. When Mr. Louw ... of London he said he would arrange to have a private meeting with Dr. Nkrumah. The luncheon was at Mr. Louw's invitation, and was arranged ... Dr. Nkrumah. Mr. Louw ... South Africa's policy towards the ... Africa ... Union ... Government was based on the ... friendship ... Mr. Louw recalled that the Prime Ministers ... and in a public statement extended the hand of ... to ... states in Africa, and stressed the desirability ... co-operation in matters of mutual concern.

DEFENDING THE INDEFENSIBLE

MR. ERIC LOUW's speech in the South [illegible] to his country, and [illegible] Africa Group in London is remarkable [illegible] which are utterly untenable [illegible] in that, in an attempt to defend the South [illegible] principle of apartheid, Mr. Louw has [illegible] African Government's policy with [illegible] Mr. Louw has not attempted to justify [illegible] for South African public to make [illegible] Party. FOREIGN MINISTER EXTRAORDINARY

Louw-Down on Television "Shocks"

Commentary by "Politicus"

MR. ERIC LOUW is a Foreign Minister Most Extraordinary. He is seldom [illegible] trouble. Not so long ago he was involved with Mr. Arthur Barlow [illegible] the subject of apartheid. Now it is the agency Brett's Broadcasting [illegible] — the subject, once again, of apartheid. Mr. Louw, apparently [illegible] himself at seeing the B.B.C.'s version programme on the Union [illegible] recently was put out by the B.B.C. in the name of Mr. Louw and [illegible] for the Overseas [illegible]

IT BOILS DOWN TO THIS: THAT HE COULD NOT STOMACH NON-WHITE SPOKESMEN BEING FEATURED IN THE B.B.C. PROGRAMME . . . THAT IS NON-WHITE SPOKESMEN WHO ARE OPPOSED TO THE APARTHEID POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Then, Mr. Louw says that [illegible] South Africans, at both [illegible] the European case, would have been equally shocked." Mr. Louw here presumes that most White South Africans are natural [illegible] the policy of apartheid as expounded by Mr. Strijdom. That is, indeed, a big presumption.

OPEN "JULY" IS PROBLEM RACE FOR PUNTERS

SELDOM, if ever, has a feature race such as tomorrow, Durban's July Handicap, to the run at Greyville over one mile two and a half furlongs, been so difficult to select. Even the experts are sorely tempted to give up in despair. Even the Handicapper admits that form does not always work out in the July Handicap. Many a horse, which has been "off the boil" for months, has suddenly struck form on the day of the race.

NATIONAL ATHLETICS URGED

BY C. G. MOODLEY

THE introduction of Indian schools athletics on a national basis was urged by Mr. C. R. Naidoo, president of the Midlands Regional Indian Schools Sports Association, last week. He was speaking at the annual inter-schools athletic meeting held at the Pietermaritzburg Road sports ground, Maritzburg.

EMINENT D. R. C. THEOLOGIAN CONDEMNS NAT. POLICY

Apartheid Branded "Immoral" and "Impractical"

APARTHEID was subjected to one of the sharpest attacks yet levelled at it when, in Johannesburg last week, it was described by a leading authority of the Dutch Reformed Church as "impracticable", "immoral" and "a threat to white South Africa". He said it represented the attitude of the guilty conscience which does not seek the cause of its guilt in itself but in the proximity of those who arouse the feeling of guilt. The speaker was Prof. B. B. Keet, Professor of Theology at the Dutch Reformed Church Seminary, Stellenbosch, and author of "Suid-Afrika — Waarheen?" — the English version of which, "Whither South Africa?", has had a wide circulation overseas because of the international eminence of the reputation of its author in the Christian world.

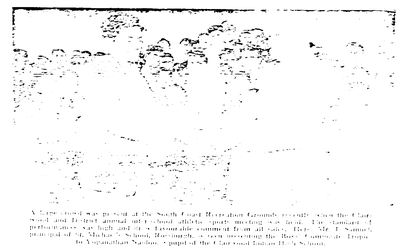
MARITZBURG FIVE A SIDE SOCCER

By C. G. MOODLEY

[illegible] SHIRE LIONS won the G. R. Maharaj Cup with a 3-1 victory over Camperdown A in the final, and Orient, runner-up four times running, succeeded in beating Stella to win the Harrison Cup at the Maritzburg County Inter-side tournament at Pentrich last Sunday. Mr. R. Dookran, life vice-president of the Association, presented the trophies.



MIDLANDS SOCCER TEAM

MARITZBURG soccer selectors departed from policy in naming the Midlands team three weeks ahead of the All-India Cup Tournament, which will be held in the Natal capital on 1, 2 and 3 August. For the first time in the history of the tournament, the Midlands will be seen in action on Thursday, Wednesday and Thursday next. The team is: S. Medhurst (c), Pentam, Both Gaiter, S. M. Bhabi, Reddy, N.G. Govender, Gopaul Pillay, B. Sooth, Billy Sukhai, Chris Rompath (reserve), Prem (reserve) Singh, Bal Satgoor, Bob Pillay, Mervin Pillay, Varon Daniel, Leslie Daniel and S. China Cup Tourney Endangered By Senseless SOCCER UPSET

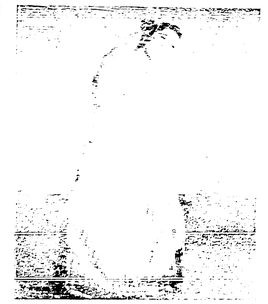
BY THE SPORTS EDITOR

WHEL Transvaal stick to its guns and keep out of the "cup" national soccer tourney to be held in Cape Town in August? This 64,000 Dollar Question—which can only be answered by Transvaal-FA Council remaining adamant—is the talk of soccer in the country. Transvaal has been asked by the South African Indian Football Association to reconsider its "flatly and misguided decision." In view of the chaotic state of affairs, fixtures have not been drawn yet, and tentative arrangements have been held up. It is now only a matter of a few weeks between now and "Cup August" when it was intended to hold the tourney.



DENIKA RANE, a new "find" who will appear in the Brighton Orchestra show, "The Mayor," at the Bharat Hall this Saturday, July 20, at 7.30 p.m. "The Mayor" unfolds the story of a partially blind beggar who falls prey to a conniving brother and the plight of his young daughter who had tried vainly to cure with the aid of a mirror.

Pakistan Ready to Bury the Hatchet

JOHANNESBURG. Mr. Azad Ahmed Azad, the Pakistan High Commissioner in Australia, said on Johannesburg Radio that he understood a move was under way for direct Pakistan and South Africa for the resumption of diplomatic relations.

Mr. Azad was speaking at Jan Smuts Airport before leaving for Mauritius.

He said: "Our quarrel with South Africa is not as bitter as India's. After all, we are a complete different people to the Indians."

Mr. Azad said he did not know when the two countries would again exchange missions and he was sure that the Minister of External Affairs, Mr. Eric Louw, was not averse to it, should they decide to resume the matter with him.

He was not aware if the move, if any, was initiated by Pakistan or South Africa, but he was sure that South Africa would welcome it.

India Also Suffering From Accent on Glamour

INDIA is facing the same problem as South Africa — the corruption of indigenous cultures by manifestations of Western "civilisation" such as beauty contests, commercial exploitation of the female sex on magazine covers and film posters, according to Dr. Thelma Gutsche, president of the National Council of Women of South Africa. Dr. Gutsche has just returned from the triennial conference of the International Council of Women in Montreal, Canada, where India seconded South Africa's views on this matter.

... Commissioner for Pakistan in South East Africa, Mr. S. A. Afzal, has been spending about four days in Durban on a private visit with a view to renewing friendships in the Union. During this stay, Mr. Afzal gave a short statement. He said he hoped for a much closer relationship between the Union and Pakistan in the very near future. "This has already existed," said Mr. Afzal. One must agree that there should be closer ties between two member nations of the Commonwealth. And we're glad to hear that Pakistan's relationship with the Union is "good".

CHEAP GIBES CANNOT TOUCH INDIA'S GREAT SON OF HUMANITY

INDIA, and particularly Mr. Nehru, have been the target of cheap gibes and belittlement by a section of the Western press, the British press included.

This business of running down Mr. Nehru takes many forms. Sometimes it is subtle, attributing all kinds of base motives to Nehru, the man. At other times Nehru himself is the subject of downright filthy cartoons in magazines.

THE large distance from a fire hydrant and the nearest telephone were largely responsible for rendering two families on visiting people homeless and destitute when Mr. Veerasamy Naidoo's wood and iron house at Gatewood Sonia, near the Main South Coast Road, was gutted by fire last week. There were no casualties but the damage is estimated to be about £700, which includes about £50 worth of jewellery, most of which was family heirlooms. The disaster occurred late on Monday.

AGA KHAN LED COLOURFUL AND GOOD LIFE

THE Aga Khan was revered in the East as head of an influential Islamic sect and famous in the West as multi-millionaire head of the Turf. To the average man he may have seemed a romantic cosmopolitan figure bathed in an aura of Oriental splendour, but in fact he was far more than that. During his colourful life he made for himself a solid reputation as thinker, philosopher and statesman. Eastern culture and Western civilisation were combined in him to a degree perhaps never known before. Lord Templewood, the British statesman, once aptly described the Aga Khan as "a citizen of the world par excellence".

SANDRI KHAN (brother to Aly Khan) and Nina Dyer, who was the wife of the wealthy industrialist Baron Thyssen, were pictured by photographers recently at the Longchamps racecourse in Paris. Their wedding, a planned for next September, but whether the arrangement will be altered owing to the death of Sandra's father, the Aga Khan, had not been announced at the time of going to press.

South Africa's Blackest Hour

GET OUT OF YOUR HOMES!

BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

TODAY, August 2, 1957, Day of Doom for 25,000 people in the western areas of Johannesburg, must be the blackest hour in South Africa's history. This is the evil day on which these people should, by law, leave their homes for ghettoes in the veld. This ruthless inhumanity is but the forerunner of more savage treatment to be meted out to Indians and other non Europeans in other cities and towns throughout the country.
