MOTHERS MUST WORK: CHILDREN SUFFER

THE absence from home of mothers who are forced to take up some form of employment results in serious disorders on the proper care and treatment of their children in their tender years, says the 39th annual report of the Durban Indian Child Welfare Society, which was submitted to the society's annual general meeting last Saturday.

IN Mayor Percy Osborn, Durban has one of its most outspoken City Councillors. Councillor Percy Osborn has had a long innings both as City Councillor and as Mayor of this "Garden City". It is felt in municipal circles that he may be re-elected as Mayor in October, thus equalling the record term of ex-Mayor Ellis Brown.

RATEPAYERS WILL DEFY ZONE PLAN

INDIAN residents of Greenwood Park, Durban, have decided to "stay put" and not to move from their homes in the Group Council scheme drawn up for it under the Group Areas Act. This was decided at a meeting of residents of the area on Sunday. Over a thousand people attended the meeting, and about half the number were women.

Behind the Sam China Tourney scenes

BY "FINESSIAN"

WHEN the Northern and Southern Natal teams returned from Cape Town last Thursday after competing in the Sam China Cup tournament, each player as well as the managers had his own tale to tell. One player told me: "Cape Town is a real paradise. I hope I shall have another opportunity of going there. I will make the best of it." Another raved: "I am so much in love with a girl, and I only hope that my parents will allow me to marry her."

ALL-WOMEN PLAY MAKES MUSLIM HISTORY IN UNION

A UNIQUE and unheard-of thing, so far as Muslims in most of South Africa are concerned, was the staging of the play "El-Ghani Moo" at the Bolton Hall, Durban, by the Women's Cultural Group. This "all-women and not-for-women" affair of the Group was a brave effort to defy purdah and to enable Muslim women to act on the stage.

INDIAN BEACH IN DANGER

Mixed reception of Durban Mayor's hint that Whites want it

By a "Leader" Reporter

THE Indian community has accorded a mixed reception to a statement by Durban's Mayor, Councillor Percy Osborn, that hundreds of thousands of pounds were waiting to be invested in a "large scale" development of hotels and flats along Durban's Snell Parade, but that this development was being held up by the delay of the Government in racially zoning the Durban beach under the Group Areas Act. "We are at the moment pressing the Government to let us know their attitude towards the non-European beaches," he said, and added: "That really is the key to the major problem of our beach front."

"A serious threat"

[illegible] proposals by the Durban City Council to uproot and replace thousands of residents in Mayville and jobbed areas such as Cato Manor, Cinderella and Manor Gardens will be strenuously opposed by the Mayville Indian Ratepayers' Association. This decision was taken at a special general meeting of the Association last week at the Arya Samaj Hall, Durban.

Candid Commentary . . . . by Politicus

WHAT CAN BABEL OF VOICES ACHIEVE AT RACE TALKS?

CAN political questions be solved non politically? It is an oft repeated statement among some politicians that the so called Native question could be taken out of the sphere of party politics. The solution so the argument goes, will then become easier.

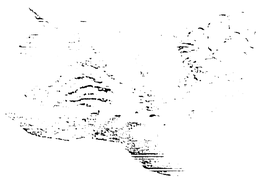
Fur and feathers —and they're friends!



WHO said cats and dogs can't be friends?

Mr. John Desmond, of Durban, has proved that Indian ringneck parrakeet Bubbles has developed a strong friendship with Philip, his pet tame pigeon. They have been close friends since Bubbles was a baby and until disaster struck recently — when Bubbles — can be seen from these extraordinary photos.

Mr. Desmond says that Philip, his pet pigeon, and Captain Rogers, his cat, have shared a ring in Durban for an hour. Philip, then three months old, was found on a bank, and Captain Rogers, "Who's out an office cat not on pedigree stock", Captain Rogers, but course he could see that and played with the taken a liking to him made the rest.

When he met Philip Mr. Desmond started train him. "He was intelligent and everything I admirable," he says. "He was an among his dumb Three or some habits he had after only four stay with me.

"He would no thing thrown at meal was not a plate he threw it to

"I started to with him, mere ball. He pursued Scream Hook, grapple or turn Cat's paw and I admire the and they became published in the and a European paper."

Then Mr. Desmond adopted Bubbles, a pigeon, and as time on, bird and animal inseparable. They slept and played together. Bubbles seemed to have a living instinct to stick around with Philip and sometimes took a ride on his back. Philip made his pal room during would not allow an sider to harm him. So when Mr. Desmond home from work, one of them used to greet enthusiastically.

Then one day Little Bubbles' owner found that he missing and, to his and grief, found there in a tree, a victim of bird. An enemy, some heartless person, a meal.

Philip was there. Little Bubbles' days were ended and he a sorry be pressed to tell owner he was the of grief in the few events.

BARKING WOLVES THAT DO NOT BITE

THE death last week of the veteran South Indian film comedian S. V. Sanjivan has come as a shock to the three-odd of his fans in South Africa. For over two decades Sanjivan dominated the South Indian screen, and during that time he achieved a fame that few of his modern contemporaries could equal. He was not the cheap Western-inspired trash that Indian cinema-goers often have to swallow, but a refined blend of satirical humour and his own philosophy of life.

CRICKET RUMPUS AT MAYVILLE

Violent scenes sparked by chairman's suspension

NEVER in my experience have I seen anything to rival the rowdyism, bordering on hooliganism, displayed at the 21st annual general meeting of the Mayville District Indian Cricket Union held last week. It was reminiscent of the hectic political meetings of the anti-segregation era. There were violent clashes between the chairman, Mr. Joe Francis, and other officials over the matter of his suspension by the Mayville District Indian Sports Grounds Association, whom his right to preside was challenged. The meeting at times was a verbal roughhouse brawl.

by RANJI

Young delegates who had come to a meeting of such import-ance for the first time shook their heads in dismay and expressed their indignation by voting solidly for Mr. Francis's ouster as result, in view of the Union having resolved by an overwhelming majority not to recognise the decision of the Sports Grounds Association to suspend him.

WHY HAVE INDIANS LOST THEIR SOCCER SKILL?

MORE SPORT ON PAGE 14

Football Fixtures

ONLY five years ago, Indians were the kingpins of non-European soccer. Today they are well and truly beaten by the Africans and the Coloureds. Indian prestige has catapulted to such an extent that even the supporters view the future with misgiving.

Soccer officials sat back complacently and neglected the code to an alarming extent. The players of today fail to draw the thousands that used to throng to Curries Fountain five years ago. This of course is attributable to the fact that the soccer standard of today is at its lowest ebb.
