Ronnie Govender Says

A SALUTE TO MR. NXUMALO

CHRISTOPHER WALTER NXUMALO

ON the 15th of this month Christopher Walter Nxumalo passed away quietly at the McCord Hospital at the age of 62. Although 3,000 people of all races turned up at the graveside, the event never assumed a more than commonplace significance.

Perhaps it was because the lot of the common man has become so burdensome in this country of many frustrations. If it were so, then I am sure Christopher Walter Nxumalo would have understood—for it was towards the common man that the life of this great philanthropist, this great sportsman, this great South African, was dedicated.

I raise my hand in salute to him and I do so in the sorry knowledge that his death has rent an immeasurable void in the solid front of those crusaders for integration in sport and the attainment of international recognition of non-White sportsmen.

As President of the African Football Association for a number of years, he never tired in his efforts to raise the standard of African football to its present high standard. But his greatest achievement was when together with such people as Messrs. George Singh, Abrahams, E. G. Reeves and R. Lutchman he formed the Natal Inter-Race Board. But Nxumalo never looked at this Board as an end—he was always striving for the complete abolition of racialism in soccer.

Mr. R. Lutchman, Secretary of the Natal Inter-Race Soccer Board, said: "If he had lived a few years more, I am confident that under his strong united leadership we would have achieved complete integration in soccer."

KEENEST SUPPORTER

He was a member of the Action Committee of the South African Sports Association when it was awarded its maiden cheque for £10 from the Harold Wilson Fund (S.A.S.A. Ed. said) "What a shock it was for people like me to learn of his sudden death! I had only finished telling my colleagues how much he used to give us his support.

"Mr. Nxumalo has gone before but of course we have time and the most inspiring thing was we could make of his experiences a sportsman to be proud of—a slum in sport.

Professional Soccer is to Get Green Light

By a "Leader" Reporter

THE Southern Natal Indian Football Association has agreed at its council meeting in Durban last Sunday to implement the recommendations submitted by a specific commission which was set up to examine the advisability of introducing professional soccer among the non-Whites.

This move is considered to be a practical approach to the question which has kept the soccer administrators, players as well as the soccer public on the string for the last few weeks.

The Commission reported that it is fully convinced that there is a big scope and prospect for professional soccer among the non Whites.

The Commission recommends that it act as sponsor and convenes an urgent conference of all soccer controlling bodies irrespective of race for the purpose of inaugurating an independent body—to be called the "Natal Football League".

The Commission feels that professional soccer could be only successful if it is conducted on a non-racial basis.

The Commission felt that for the time being two soccer be instituted in Natal and it becomes desirable at a later stage that it be organised on a national basis.

It was also recommended that the proposed league should limit its affiliations to a number of six clubs ... preferably two from Northern Natal and four from Southern Natal. The Commission stated that pro. soccer must be maintained on a very high standard in order to attract the desirable crowds, and that can only be achieved by limiting the teams to a minimum.

The Commission further suggested that the amateur soccer associations continue to control their soccer while this new body conducts the professional soccer independently. The Commission is also of the view that the amateur bodies which will serve as nursery to provide players for the professional league, when there is a need the pro. league should assist financially or otherwise in providing coaches etc.

It suggested that the professional soccer be put into operation from the start of the next season.

The Natal Inter-Race Soccer Board which embraces the Africans, Indians and coloureds will hold a special meeting sometime next week to discuss the question of professional soccer. In the meantime, the Commission was given the "okay" to implement its recommendations.

MAORI RUGBY WRANGLE

The following letter was received by the South African Indian Youth Congress from the National Council of Churches in New Zealand:

The Secretary General, South African Indian Youth Congress, P.O. Box 2548, Johannesburg, South Africa.

Dear Sir Mesilla—I have received your letter of July 30th regarding the present discussion in New Zealand on the question of the exclusion of Maoris from selection for the rugby team to tour South Africa in 1960. I very much appreciate your sentiments, as we are encouraged by the receipt of your letter. This has already appeared in the Press in this country, and we have sent a copy of it to the Prime Minister as well as to the committee considering this particular issue.

The situation in New Zealand is that there is a strong side of public opinion demanding that Maoris be included, or the tour be abandoned. It is impossible to estimate how many people are of that opinion, but a newspaper editor recently estimated it as 70 per cent of the nation. Certainly the Churches in this Country do. Together with the Roman Catholic Church, are unanimous in their findings, and many Trades Unions, University and Maori groups have expressed strong support. A recent public protest meeting in Wellington was attended by over 2,000 people, and among the prominent guests were a number of former All Black football players.

The Rugby Union to date has given no indication of its intention to change its policy, and in fact recently announced the proposed itineraries for the 1960 tour. The Government has been loath to interfere, and in fact neither of our political parties has said anything about the matter. As you will understand, in our kind of community the Government does not usually interfere with sport matters, and we have not for quite some time heard them this as a matter of racial relationships and national policy, and not merely the internal concern of some sporting body.

I will not dare prophesy the result of our struggle, but it will certainly continue, and many of us are hopeful that in fact we will achieve the objective of racial justice for which New Zealand does, in fact, stand. We do appreciate what you have done in writing to express your support.

I remain, yours sincerely,
Rev. ALAN A. BRASH,
General Secretary.

DIRTY PLAY, SO GAME ABANDONED

By a "Leader" Reporter

ALL three Springbok teams—senior, junior and juvenile—of the Asherville Indian Football Association featured in the knock-out cup finals played at the Asherville grounds last Sunday and except for the seniors, the other teams came out with flying colours.

The juveniles, who fared badly in the league, beat Young Centurions 3—1 and the juniors thrashed Overport Wanderers 12—1.

The senior match was abandoned after some dirty play had begun between Springboks and the Vinca Dynamos.

The main match started at a fast pace and was a ding-dong affair almost throughout the duration of the game. S. John of Vinca Dynamos opened the scoring with a scorching drive from a distance of about 25 yards.

Dynamos did not retain the lead for long when Springboks' outstanding winger, B. J. Singh, equalised. Thirty-seven minutes later, B. J. Singh scored again but three minutes after this goal S. John gave Dynamos their second goal (2—2).

The second half began with keen and hard play by both teams. The League Cup Springbok and Vinca Dynamos 4—1. Dynamos were now making a strong bid to regain the lost cup.

But the Springboks were at an advantage and were playing with the slight wind. B. J. Singh scored again for Springboks but Vinca Dynamos were awarded a penalty and that made the score even (3—3).

Minutes later the game was stopped for alleged dirty play, and after some discussion the match was abandoned.

OTHER RESULTS

Senior Div. Inter-Asher. Cup: Semi-finals: Springboks 4 (Overport Wanderers 1 (Overport Wanderers Inr.) Centre 2, Natal B 3, Durr 0—2; Asherville 1 (G. B. Chetty 1) v. Asherville 1 (G. B. Chetty 1) after extra time.

Union Wants Racialism Abolished

WHEN the Southern Natal Indian Cricket Union sits for its annual general meeting this week-end, one of the most important items it will discuss is a resolution submitted by Messrs. Louis Nelson and E. I. Moolla.

The resolution calls for the complete abolition of racialism in cricket and the formation of one body to control cricket for all races.

If this resolution is adopted then Natal will be the first province to take such a revolutionary step. Previously, however, there was one body controlling cricket amongst all the races but recently racial units came into being.

Warwickshire Stella Replay

By "The Leader" Reporter

THE return soccer match between Stella and Warwickshire, which ended in a 3-3 draw after playing two periods of extra time last Sunday, is set down for play at Curry's Fountain this Sunday at 2.30 p.m. This is a Natal Cup Challenge Final competition.

It is probable that the gate takings from this match will also be donated to Mr. M. G. Toomey, the groundsman, because of the fact that a substantial amount was not raised last Sunday. It is hoped that the public will support this match, and at the same time the return encounter promises a thrilling soccer exhibition.

ZENITH BEAT DURITY 4-0

Zenith beat Durity 4-0 in the semi-final for the Charity Cup. The match was played at a very fast pace and Durity lost mainly because of the fact that some of the players did not turn up. Goal scorers for Zenith were Natoo 1, Yacoob 1, Dan Padayachee 1.

In another match, Grafters beat Golden Ace 3-0. In the first half of the game, Grafters gave all they could and the Golden Ace were held back. The goals came in the first half before Golden Ace could find their feet.

In the second half, Golden Ace were more at ease. They fought hard but were not able to stay despite being given a penalty. Goal scorers for Grafters were Johnny Natcher 2, G. Morgan 1.

Fixtures this Saturday for Durie Cup semi-final: Zenith v Durity at 11.30 a.m.; Golden Ace v. Grafters at 12.45 p.m.

BITTER CRITICISM OF INDIAN HOUSING

But Some are Happy in New Merebank Homes

Mrs. H. Holman, who produced "The Tempest," happily posey with some of the members of the cast, pupils of the Durban Indian Girls' High School, before the curtain rises. "Holy" Snakes Fight Shy of Interview

THREE ordinary grass snakes are having the time of their lives and have become the envy of their species, after they had been regarded as being holy by some people, and are now being fed with milk, fruit and rice in a small clump of aloe near the Cato Manor Indian Housing Scheme, Durban.

More than a thousand people from all parts of Durban have made pilgrimages to the spot where the snakes dwell, and have placed offerings of food and flowers there.

While many claimed that the snakes changed into different hues at different times of the day, and had always made an appearance several times a year, after closely watching them, there were some who viewed the whole matter sceptically, stating that there was nothing holy about the reptiles at all.

BLACK MAGIC INSTIGATOR WAS AMATEUR

WHOEVER was responsible for the tying of a pig's head to the horns of Mr. A. K. Maharaj in Antelope Place, Overport, one night last week, was apparently not at the game and never witnessed in the art of black magic, an investigation by "The Leader" has revealed.

Durban man, who regarded himself as an expert in these explosions, said that the elaborate ceremony that seemed to have been performed by Mr. Maharaj's adversary, was not in keeping with the usual code. For instance, the pig's head is supposed to be buried and not hung up a pole. "By burying the head," the expert went on, "it begins to rot and, as does the person against whom it is meant, gradually sinks until finally he dies in some excruciatingly realistic. Secondly, the pig's head absolutely must be uncircumcised and referred as a 'sow' like to the evil spirits for them to carry out their work. To use it seems that someone was trying to frighten the Maharaj family and was inexperienced in his art," he added.

Meanwhile, the Maharaj family are keeping fine health and spirits.

Mr. Maharaj said: "The Leader" that a certain person was already under suspicion.

"The present houses at Merebank

SHACK

Mrs. Nundamah Pillay, whose husband is employed as a clerk at a big Durban concern, said that before she moved into her present house, her husband paid £8 10s. for a two-roomed shack in the same area. "We had no electricity, proper sanitation or decent, large airy rooms that we have here. On rainy days, we had to keep buckets and dishes to collect water that came into the house from the leaky roof of the rooms. Coming here is indeed a relief and the environment is suitable for us to bring up my children in a healthy, hygienic atmosphere," she said.

Her views, however, are not shared by others living in the area. L. Raisunder, Secretary of the Co-ordinating Committee of Residents in the Merebank and Wentworth areas, who interviewed by "The Leader" accused the City Council of carrying on with the building of houses at Merebank on a "Concentration system".

"Living quarters on some sugar estates," Mr. Raisunder said, "are better in appearance and design than the ones at Merebank. And yet these are supposed to be free-hold properties, which means that the owners are expected to live here life long. The Indian people have no choice, but are compelled to move into these houses.

"All this scramble no doubt arises from the effect and ramifications of the Group Areas Act. The Indian community is pushed around at the expense of political expediency, etc."

Mr. Raisunder appealed to the City Council that if housing was to be provided for the Indian, there should be plans for the erection of decent ones and not "these pondokkies, as these will, in the not too distant future, lead to concrete slums."

ROMANTIC MALES WERE EUROPEAN POLICEMEN

AN Indian man and two Coloured girls had the shock of their lives when they were handcuffed and arrested by two plain-clothes European policemen, whom they mistook for romantic visitors from the Transvaal one night last week for allegedly contravening the Immorality Act.

An Indian taxi driver was released after he explained to the police that he did not know the assistant wanted to use his car to contravene the Act. They paid him for taking them to a certain destination and that was all he knew of the affair.

The Indian passenger is alleged to have been approached by two Europeans dressing about in a sleek limousine bearing a Transvaal registration number and offered to introduce them to girls who were willing to give them a good time for the night, and for which they promised to pay him handsomely. He promised that he would consult with the girls and stipulated a certain sum the Europeans had to pay him before they took the girls out, apart from the amount they

Mr. Lazarus Praises Papwa's Employers

FOR the second time within the last four months, Mr. A. D. Lazarus, President of the 2,000-strong Natal Indian Teachers' Society, and Principal of Sastri College, had occasion to publicly pay a tribute to the European community, when a world-wide industrial concern honoured him as an award of merit, last week.

COLOUREDS MISS DURBAN

The Coloured community's "Miss Durban" will be chosen at a dance in the Community Centre Hall, Sparks Estates, arranged by the Ward 10 Coloured Ratepayers Association on October 10.

The contest will be open to all single girls of 16 or over.

Postcard size photographs of entrants plus 2s. entrance fee must reach the Competition Organiser, 13 Saunders Road, Durban, by October 6.

There will be prizes of 10 guineas, five guineas and three guineas—plus trophies—for the first three in the contest.

A prominent Indian businessman, who applied for accommodation at a big hotel last week, was turned away. This has happened on numerous other occasions.

One hotel did consider applying for a multi-racial licence, but when it was announced, European business fled away as rapidly that they hastily cancelled the suggestion.

One luxury hotel in Salisbury does accommodate multi-racial visitors but it does so by applying for Government permission for individual guests.

But many prominent visitors from overseas visit the Rhodesias and it is felt strongly in Government circles that hotels should be made to take out multi-racial licences.

One suggestion is — if they will not allow non-Europeans in, then cancel the hotel's drink licences.

Mr. Lazarus was one of the two Indians chosen by Messrs. Nicholas Products (Pty.) Ltd., to receive their "Aspro" Award of Merit, made periodically to men and women of outstanding service to their community. The other was Miss S. M. Lawrence, Principal of the newly named St. Mary Basi Indian Girls' School (formerly Temple Girls' School).

The first time that Mr. Lazarus had occasion to praise the European means was during the Teachers' Society's conference in July, when he paid an eloquent tribute to the European employers of the present Dutch Union golf champion, Selvankar "Papwa" Sewgolum, for making it possible for an Indian to participate in the several national and interna- tional golf events overseas.

"Gestures like these," Mr. Lazarus told the nearly 1,000 men, women and children present at the Vedic Hall, Durban, where the awards were made by Mr. E. L. Toye, Managing Director of Messrs. Nicholas Products (Pty.), Ltd., last Wednesday, "help towards better race relations and is a humbler worker in that field, I am sure that there is much that the Indian community can be grateful to the European."

THANKED SPONSORS

Miss Lawrence thanked the sponsors of the awards and said that these were an incentive to the younger generation to prove their worth in any field they may be interested in. She appealed to the boys and girls to put their shoulders to the wheel as there was so much to be done.

In a well merited tribute to her parents Mr. and Mrs. V. Lawrence, Miss Lawrence said: "If I have done anything at all for the benefit of the community, it is because of the spirit and example set by my parents who have given their lifetime in serving the community."

A feature of the presentation ceremony was the delightful performance on the violin by Mr. Ronald Woodcock, the well-known Australian violinist. He held his audience, which comprised schoolteachers, high school students and primary school pupils, and received rounds and rounds of thunderous applause as he played numbers depicting the tunes of each country he had visited—from Brazil and West Indies to India and other Oriental countries. He was accompanied on the piano by Mr. P. J. Britton, Organiser of Music of the Education Department.

Tamil Languages Classes Opened at Rossburgh

The revival of the Tamil language in this country was given a further impetus when the new Vedic Secondary Pudasalay of Litten Road, Rossburgh, and the Thamizh Munnetra Kazhagam of Cato Manor, jointly opened classes in Tamil at the residence of Mr. T. R. Cheity, of 26 Litten Road.

The official opening was performed by Mr Ramalingam, President of the Thamizh Munetra Kazhagam, and Mr. A. D. Poonsamy, who presided, dealt at length with the Tamil language, its culture, religion and philosophy, and exhorted those present to be proud of their heritage and not to be ignorant of the great part the Tamilians had played in the shaping up of modern India.

"The Tamilians," Mr. Poonsamy added, "are a great community possessing a great cultural heritage. When that heritage was being exchanged for the materialistic Western way of life, then they are not only committing suicide but are guilty of murdering their mother tongue and all that it stood for."

Thanking an old and valuable friend, Mr. Poonsamy said: "People think of God only when they were in difficulties. Why don't they train their love towards Him at all times?" he asked.

Mr. T. R. Cheity thanked the sponsors of the Tamil classes and said that this would not be a bad walk against the decadence of the Tamilian in the country.

He appealed to the parents in the area to send their children to these classes, and asked them also to take a personal interest in the home language.

Mr. Pather's article — a reply

Sir,—Mr. P. R. Pather has come again rushed in where angels dare not tread. But let me at the outset correct you and point out that during Mr. Pather's trip to India Mr. Nehru did not have the privilege of being advised by this committee for the simple reason that this committee was not even in existence—not perhaps Mr. Nehru would not meet him.

The gratuitous advice that Indians should abandon her role as a neutral and side with the West is only to come from one who is so blind as to invite Mr. Radhakrishnan to come to South Africa, and ignore the fact that he has done so in the past and repudiate it in the present.

Come, come Mr. Pather, even this late stage there is enough time to talk a little more sense and China will not worry you. Let us for the common good of all, even if P.R. loves his role, refrain again rushes to catch the were required to pay to the girls. They agreed.

About 20 minutes later the Indian arrived in a late carrying two coloured girls. The European said the Indian man and the Coloured girls to get into their car, as they wanted to have a drink first. They then drove off towards Maxville.

When they reached Maxville, the Europeans asked the Indian to buy them some liquor and gave him a pound note. He went across the road to a house and within a few minutes came with a bottle of cane spirit. When he opened the door of the car to give the liquor to the Europeans, he was confronted by the muzzle of a revolver pointed at him by one of them.

It was then that the Europeans revealed their true identity and arrested him and the two girls.

Talk of the Bazaar

By the FAKIR

ANY experienced newspaperman will tell you that the most important part of a newspaper is its correspondence column. And not out of sheer modesty either, for he studies considerable significance to things and views that readers write in about.

After all, the reader represents substantial segments of society, and very often it is the reader who, in diverse capacities, makes the world tick.

So you can understand why I was surprised that a young woman signing herself as "Modern Miss" should have been allowed to go virtually unchallenged on the views she expressed on pre-marital sex relations among our young people.

Pontificating in the recent correspondence continued by contained in "The Leader" on the question of unmarried girls becoming pregnant, "Modern Miss" suggested that a young boy and girl out together "find the inevitable happens." They should not be blamed. She added, however, that there was a duty upon the young man to make an honest woman out of the girl.

WHY INEVITABLE?

BUT why and the question was innocent should pre-marital sexual exploration be taken for granted as being "inevitable"? Is that perhaps not the result of bad upbringing or a lack of a sense of responsibility?

Time was when an Indian village society, any girl falling pregnant before marriage was stoned in and sealed into a cubicle and there left to starve; and in company with thoughts of approaching death spent her error. Not that sort of parental reaction has long since been out of date. These days newspapers publicise and even romanticise to some extent the escapades of film stars who disavowed Eve Bartok-and-child as unnamed father — and then signed Bergman who was pregnant by Rossellini even before her divorce from Lindstrom went through.

Is the bland acceptance of "Modern Miss" of the inevitability of unfavorable consequences of courtship a sign of the times? Perhaps an indication of a break-down of modes and of societal control? It that is so, is that a permanent result of East-West acculturation among our people, or is it just the passing pains of Westernisation; a phenomenon of transition? These are questions that need answering, for make no mistake about it, the Indian illegitimacy rates show an alarming increase, and no longer can the Indian woman genuinely boast of reflecting the ideal of womanhood. Or am I sticking my neck out in saying this?

LYCHE-TALK

PERHAPS I should look after my neck, for I was threatened with lynching last week. Some Indian women teachers took the headline, "Women Teachers Waste Big Three Time"; didn't stop to read what followed and howled for the blood of your poor, poor Fakir. Which just goes to show that a woman, who should be demure and alluring and charming always, should never jump, not even to conclusions.

I was also pulled up by a DIGHA, old girl—not a teacher of hers—while agreeing that colour bar at the Indian Girls' High must be scrapped, took me to task for an omission. "You have mentioned some of the European teachers," she writes, "but why did you omit the name of Miss Perrins, the vice-principal, who is just loved by the girls."

So sorry.

A NEW SHYLOCK

FOR the first time in Durban, Coloured players portrayed Shakespeare on the stage last week. All but one of them were students of Bechet High School in Sydenham, the odd man being neither a scholar nor Coloured. Jonathan Paton played Shylock—and what a superb rendering he gave. I was particularly interested in the new interpretation he gave to Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice."

Many critics say that in this play and in the manner in which he presents Shylock, Shakespeare was reflecting the anti-Semitism of his days. Others contend that while the Bard never had anti-Semitic feelings, he was pandering to the galleries. And yet others contend fiercely that Shakespeare intended Shylock to be not a contemptible, hateful blood-sucker, but a pitiable old man rendered vengeful and unbalanced by the indignities and suffering heaped upon him and his race by the dominant Christians. I, in the manner in which he put Shylock across, Jonathan Paton put on a performance for the third school of critics.

The last mentioned school of "The Merchant" was every bit as good as "Romeo and Juliet" put on a couple of years ago by the Springfield Indian Training College, except that Springfield's Juliet possessed histrionic abilities lacking in Bechet's Portia.

DR DHAMA

THE progress of the world has not descended on dreamers and their dreams, nor dreams of exploitation and aggrandisement and perpetuating injustice, but dreams of progress, happiness for the individual, liberty and independence for all nations.

THE REVOLUTIONARIES

THAT was the opening sentence of the paragraph quoted above was, of course, that firebrand of India's politics who, impatient with Gandhi's non-violence, joined forces with the Japanese in a violent fight with Britain. He became "Netaji Subhas Bose," leader of the Indian National Army which often fought alongside the Japanese.

Bose was a Bengali, and Bengalis are notoriously volatile folk. Another Bose I met recently was a doctor from India. "He is such a pity," said this Dr Bose, "that when a country indentured immigrants, the Government of India let only Madrasees and Bihatis come."

And it was in Calcutta, the capital of Bengal, please note, where Indian police had to fire on rioters out to damage property and kill people.

S. INDIAN SAINT REMEMBERED

THE thirty-fourth anniversary of the Sri Veera Brata Vasanthar, a Swamy, will be celebrated at 87 Hudson Road, Mayville, Durban, on Sunday, October 4, commencing at 10 a.m. Mr P. C. Pillay will officiate.

This annual event commemorating the memory of the great South Indian saint, whose book of predictions written several hundred years ago is proving true today, evokes a great interest among the South Indians here, and last year's celebrations alone saw over a thousand devotees attending it.

Mr Jason Poomanna is the man among a small number of Vasanthavasan's disciples in this country, who is helping to keep alive this annual remembrance of the great saint.

Shocking conditions for non-European seamen in Durban

THE need for the establishment of an institute and rest to visiting non-European seamen on the same lines as those available for the Whites was stressed by Mr. R. Ranganathan, a member of the crew of a City liner that passed Durban last week on its way to Australia.

Mr. Ranganathan, who is one of the first batch of trainees under a Government of India scheme to qualify, told "The Leader" that the conditions existing at the moment as far as black seamen were concerned was disgraceful and no credit to a beautiful city like Durban. "The authorities concerned seem to show a scant regard for the welfare of non-European seamen," he said.

"Many are the pathetic stories of these men that are told from time to time. When they get off a ship they do not know where to go. There is no guarantee for the safety of their lives when they are on the streets. They are either waylaid and assaulted and then robbed by criminals and rogues who prowl the docks, or are cheated and robbed then pitched by seemingly friendly drivers.

"As many of these seamen are not fully conversant with the colour policies of the country, they usually get into trouble with the police and sometimes get locked up. There is no place where they can entertain themselves, and if they look for places of entertainment, they are accosted by "good-time" girls who easily recognise a seamen from a civilian, and then strip them off their belongings."

Mr Ranganathan said that at other ports, the crew of any ship be they Black or White, enjoy the same privileges, without any discrimination whatever. "There we are all equals, and not recognised by the pigmentation of our skins. In Durban, not only is there a marked discrimination based on colour, but on place where we could rest and enjoy the same facilities provided for the Whites, even on a separate basis," he added.

Mr Ranganathan suggested that public minded persons of Durban should agitate for the creation of such a centre for non-European seamen "As a preliminary, I would like to see an Indian personnel interviewed with several Indian languages try to get to know the seamen and their needs and thus become a liaison officer. Once that is done we can provide him with names to carry on with the work."

Mr Ranganathan is an organiser of the 60,000 strong National Union of Indian Seamen, which is affiliated to the International Transport Federation.

RUGGED WESTERN FARE

The bygone Texas that was in the dramatic sweep of land following the Civil War, provides the epic background for Warner Bros. Technicolor drama "Dallas", starring Gary Cooper, Ruth Roman and Steve Cochran which is to be screened at the Rai Cinema from October 1 to 3.

This is the story of the men and women who fought for the benefits that were there in a rugged open land where only the strongest survive, and in strongest rather than the just, more often took the latter's reins.

Ben Kling on his gun-belt, Gary Cooper makes a colourful return to the adventuresome West as the rebel of a gunship that he came out of the Civil War with, killing revenge on those cattle brothers who plundered his land during the conflict.

Cooper's leading lady is lovely Ruth Roman, whose performance as the exuberant "Three Secrets" is one of the many reasons why this petite, young woman has risen to fame as one of Hollywood's most important newcomers.

The rolling hills and valleys near Calabasas, California which form part of the Nated Ross, ranch, serve to create faithfully the lavish and majestic of the Lone Star State lending realism to the scene of the action.

Shell Safe Driving Quiz No. 5

Can you pass this safe driving Test?

How good is your side vision?

INSTRUCTIONS: Hold your fist with the thumb up almost a foot to the side, well behind your ear. How far must you move it forward in order to see it—while staring straight ahead?

WHAT IT MEANS: This is a test of your peripheral or side vision. If your field of vision is normal, you should be able to see your thumb when it is approximately at your ear. If your field of vision is much narrower than this, check with your eye specialist. And most important, when you are driving, be sure you know what's going on around you at all times. Remember, what you can't see can hurt you!

Can your car pass Shell's Safety Test?

A car that was safe six months ago can develop mechanical defects which may seriously impair your driving in an emergency. Take advantage of Shell's special offer.

Special Offer

Look for this new sign on the driveway of Shell Service Stations. All Shell dealers who display it offer you a special Shell 23 Point Safety Test for your car. For a nominal charge of 5/- these Shell dealers will check every one of the points indicated on the diagram and give you a report on how safe your car really is. For safety's sake call in where you see this sign and have your car tested without delay.

Poltergeist Blamed for Stone Throwing

IS it a poltergeist or some human beings who are throwing stones on the roof of Mr. Khan's house in Kenville for the past few months? This is the perplexing question the residents of Kenville as well as the Khan family are trying to answer in an effort to find out the culprits responsible for making life intolerable for Mr. Khan, his wife, and nine children, the youngest being only two-years-old.

This is the second time in two years that the mysterious has been going on, and according to Mr. Khan, all-second furniture dealer, who lived in the house for nearly 20 years, the stonethrowing always started during the month of Ramadan, a holy period in the Muslim calendar.

The spate of stone throwings has sometimes taken a serious turn, with a ball of them trying to find as their targets any member of the family that ventured to go to the latrine on some errand. They simply could not come out of the house for a breath of fresh air on warm, stuffy nights. Even when they were subjected to the most terrifying din as targets were found their mark on the tin roof.

Mr. Khan has not been able to find out who is responsible for this outrage, but he does not suspect anyone in the vicinity as he is a friend of all in the area.

LAWYER JOKE

Could it be the work of a jealous lawyer? he told our reporter, who went out to investigate one night last week, after reports that some mysterious person was making life hell for the Khan family.

Mr. Khan said that when the stones began to fall on his roof last year he thought at first that some one was playing a joke on the family, but as days went on the missiles were found to come from different directions. "It human beings were misbehaving in such an intolerable manner, surely we could have caught the culprit red-handed," he added.

When the stones started to rain regularly on his roof, Mr. Khan reported the matter to the police at Red Hill. Instead of coming into the matter, they merely chuckled and told him to catch the person responsible for the incidents and bring him to the station.

During last year's spate, his nine year-old daughter received an injury to her wrist. Each night when the stones began to fall on the roof, the children get up from their beds and cling frightened to their parents. Sleep is frightening no matter how many times it is screamed by. You simply can't get used to it," he said.

REPORTER'S VISIT

When our reporter visited Mr. Khan's house he found the neighbourhood very sympathetic towards the Khan family. After an interview with Mr. Khan, the reporter took shelter in a neighbouring house as it was obvious to understand that the stone-throwing started usually after 7.30 in the evenings, and when the hands of his watch registered the half hour after seven, he waited expectantly for the occurrence. The minutes ticked away and in eternity, he was rewarded with a heavy, ear-splitting thud on Mr. Khan's roof, as a large stone crashed against the iron roof and rolled down. The time was 20 minutes to eight o'clock.

After an interval of two minutes another big stone found as much on the roof and created a louder din that the first one. That seemed to be the last for that night.

Maritzburg lose

Pietermaritzburg sharks teams crashed badly in their home fixtures against South Coast played at the Windsor Hotel last Sunday after noon.

They lost their inter-town game (their third successive defeat this season) against South Coast, while Camden lost their Natal League game against Pietermaritzburg Hotel "B" and their Natal Challenge Cup match against Ixopo Utd.

This was Camden's first defeat for the season after 10 successive victories.

PRETORIA IMAM ON WORLD'S ILLS

A CONTENTION that the Quoran was the "only panacea for all the ills of the modern world and the only source for a lasting peace" was made by Moulvi Sayyad Abdur Razzaq, Imam of the Pretoria Mosque, in a 60-minute address to more than 2,000 men and women who assembled in the Durban City Hall last week when the Quoderi Islamic Society held a celebration to mark the birthday of the Holy Prophet, Muhammed.

Every available seat in the hall was occupied and a unique feature of the occasion was that there were more women than were seen at previous Muslim functions, and the organisers had made special seating arrangements for them. Lending colour to the event was the parade by the Cheerpoint Muslim Brigade.

Moulvi Razzaq who was the guest speaker for the evening received thunderous applause when he told his listeners that the translation of the Holy Quoran into the Zulu language has been completed.

"The year 1960 will be an epoch-making one for us because it will be the first time in the history of our country that the African and the Afrikaner people will be able to study first hand, the religion of Islam and the character of the Holy Prophet, Muhammed, directly from the translation of the Quoran in their own tongues," he said.

ARDENT APPEAL

Making an ardent appeal to Muslims to understand the Muslim observed: "In understanding of the there can be no Islam that most of the present isms were "bowed in isolation like the Jews of

He urged the Muslims the spirit of the Quoran the letter "Islam and its the distinguished speaker "is the only solution to problem in South A the subsime ideology of based on the sound the worth and dignity of person and not on his or class.

"The growing interest men in the study and of Islam is a good sign serves the full support added.

Moulvi Razzaq concluded by Muslims of South Africa charge their sacred every of spreading a Quoran in South African languages.

30 Great Years of Educational Work

THIRTY years of service to the education of Indian girls of Natal, is the proud record of Mrs. E. Thomas, Principal of Clairwood Senior Girls' Government Indian School.

In an interview with The Leader on the eve of the day when there were only a few girls in a classroom when the school after moving to Stanford Hill in Durban.

Every week she trudged miles on end to visit Indian homes to persuade other orthodox views and parents to allow their daughters to attend school.

It was not uncommon in those days for the elder girls to attend classes in saris. It was indeed a struggle to see the advancement made over the years. Every year more and more girls graduated as observers, teachers, nurses and now others had even turned to law.

It was in 1928 that the girls' school was established in Clairwood and Mrs. Thomas was chosen to assume responsibility. Today it was [illegible] with a total [illegible] Colonial High School.

Around the Capital

WITH C. G. MOODLEY

AN educational institution was compelled to suspend its activities after a decade of service. Was that due to community apathy or to the magnitude of the Society itself? That question was answered at the Banjoo and Maharaj school hall last Sunday when the Rosethorpe Tamil Educational Society held a public meeting.

The contents of a hundred-paged [illegible] the Society [illegible] Tamil Educational [illegible] was established in 1948 for the purpose of propagating the [illegible] amongst Tamil [illegible] children. Since then, the [illegible] the Society had been [illegible] endeavouring to carry out its objectives. It soon became apparent, however, that the Tamil community of Rosethorpe were simply not interested in the welfare of the Society. But, in spite of this, the [illegible] persisted in their [illegible] and great personal cost to themselves.

"Last year, the position became so desperate that it was decided to suspend the activities of the Society. The extension of the Tamil school was a plea on the name of the community.

"Are you not proud of your Culture?" Heckled a member.

"It is not a shameful fact that it was due to your lack of interest that the Society had to suspend its activities?"

"Again an attempt is being made to resuscitate the Society. Can it depend on your support? NOW."

The future of the Society is engrossed in [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

An African woman is 'shocked and ashamed' at Mr. Ngubane

By FLORENCE MKIZE

I AM an African woman and I am shocked and ashamed of the anti-Indian statements made by Mr. Jordan Ngubane in the "Leader." We work for them. We know their problems. They know ours. It is because of this that on June 27 they rubbed shoulders with us. At an Indian sports ground 59,000 Indians and Africans spoke together and shared together their aspirations for a democratic South Africa.

It is difficult to know what is in the heart of your neighbour. If you see your neighbour often enough, however, his actions towards you can tell you about some of the things which lie in his heart. We live among Indians and we work among them. We see them as we are and speak to them as such. We see them as professionals as nurses and housewives and office clerks. With some we go to bowling greens. With others we just talk.

Of course, when there are so many Indians, the numbers we know make only a handful, but we are sure that the number Mr. Ngubane knows must be only a very tiny portion of our handful. We know our neighbours better, and cause we see them more often and we see more of them that often we feel therefore that we are in a better position to speak that set of people are not the same all over. There are bad people and good people. Mr. Ngubane knows that there are good Africans and bad Africans in the same way, there are good Indians and bad Indians. If we were to make our statement about Indians from the Indians we know then we would say that as a whole, Indians are wonderful towards Africans and their cause inspires belief in

INDIAN WOMEN

We think of the Indian women who in 1949, went to Pietermaritzburg in the Natal African women and marched the streets singing our songs on the way to the Native Commissioner's Office. They went with us to protest against the passes which were being imposed on African women. They were arrested like we were. Most of them were like most of our women illiterate, very simple. Some of them were elderly women, some young girls.

Would Mr. Ngubane say that these women were with us because like "most Indians" they wanted to see lightened shackles around our ankles? Mr. Ngubane talks of "most" Indians waiting to side with Europeans and uniting to oppress Indians. How does he back his charges? He talks of two occasions when two Indian restaurants refused to serve him. There are some Indian restaurant who behave badly, but there are others who behave well and welcome Africans. There are Indian cafes which refuse admission to Africans. We should like to tell Mr. Ngubane that we know of some of them only because our Indian friends have told us about it and have protested against such practices on our behalf. Sometimes they have had success. Sometimes they have not had success. Recently we had to speak to an owner of a cafe for his rudeness to Africans. He has stopped being rude. We also spoke to Indian owners of cinemas. They do not discrimination at Indian cinemas. They are non-European cinemas.

But even when there is discrimination against Africans in such places, these owners constitute a number of Indians you can count on the fingers of one hand. It is fair and just for Mr. Ngubane to make the horrible sweeping statements he makes against Indians on these incidents? Mr. Ngubane must think rather of the how Indians who met at Clairwood and with one accord resolved that they would take action to stop all types of apartheid discriminations which were being by one non-European group against another.

He must get to know that there are hundreds of Indians personally known to us who are prepared to boycott Indian places which segregate against Africans. We are sure there are more Indians, far more, than Mr. Ngubane will have, who are prepared to fight against their own people rather than see Africans humiliated.

Mr. Ngubane talks of Indians exploiting Africans by charging them high prices. We are surprised that Mr. Ngubane with his experience and education, should carelessly make the fact that bad landlords are bad, no matter what their race

NO LAND

Africans to buy cannot have land in Durban. Indians have been allowed some land-rights. Indians and people suffer from these restrictions as we know suffer to a much worse extent from these backlogs than Africans. Landlords and high rents have lead to the closing down of Indian businesses. If Mr. Ngubane knew the Indian people, he would know this.

It is a fact that while Africans on average pay 12½ per cent. of their income in rents, Indians have to pay 25 per cent in rent, and it is a fact that 70 per cent of the Indians in Durban starve under the breadline, that 30 per cent of them live in over-crowded slums, that the per capita income of Indians in Durban is less than that of any race, Africans included.

How then can "most Indians" show their antagonism for Africans by the type of discrimination Mr. Ngubane talks of. How many Indians of the type getting prosecuted gandadic that means when Africans then looking them out can actually be proved by Mr. Ngubane. And if such type incidents did occur, is it in those cases that Africans must see in them the attitudes of Indians towards Africans?

MR. LEADER

Mr. Ngubane is an African leader. He talks of non-racial democracy. He says that Indians "racially" if Mandela was elected to the Senate was not due to his racial background statement. Mr. Ngubane must not mislead people. We have our differences with Indians, but our differences with racialism, with fundamental racialism are far greater and completely antithetical.

There are bad people and there are bad Indians. But, however, good an'ion to describe those? Indians are bad because of the way of a few. Power also reform. Mr. Ngubane would try agree some of the Indian officials be rules of and we of they have themselves not charged.

"The Leader" Editorial

STILL AN "ACT OF PIRACY"

A QUICK look at a sketch map published in the "Natal Mercury," in connection with a new plan mooted by the Durban City Council's Planning and Development Control Committee, shows that roughly a half of the present predominantly, if not wholly, Indian-owned and occupied portion of what is called, on survey maps, "the Farm Cato Manor" will be taken away from Indians.

The "Farm Cato Manor," which includes Manor Gardens and the Howard College area, and the Durban Corporation's so-called Emergency Camp and Chesterville Location, is not to be confused, as Archbishop Hurley pointed out at the mass protest meeting organised by the Citizens' Committee, with Cato Manor proper as popularly known. Cato Manor proper is, except for the Corporation's Indian Housing Scheme area, exclusively Indian-owned and occupied.

The Control Committee has the temerity to call at latest proposal a "compromise plan!"

Under this so-called compromise plan, the community stands to lose about 1,700 acres of land and property, including six mosques, temples or churches, seven schools, one sports ground and one cemetery or crematorium.

This is an exaggerated picture. It appears from the sketch map. Besides, a good deal of the land presently owned by the Durban Corporation and on which is situated its Emergency Camp, and from which Africans will be moved in the drive to "clear the slums," will not be ultimately driven out altogether, was Indian land which the Corporation expropriated.

Under the new plan, the Indian Housing Scheme will also fall in a White area.

THIS IS NO COMPROMISE PLAN, AND SO AMOUNT OF CAMOUFLAGE BY THE CITY PLANNERS WILL ALTER THIS FACT.

The new plan is still an "act of piracy," because under it Indians still stand to lose half of Cato Manor. The new plan only minimises the extent of the "act of piracy," but an "act of piracy" it remains.

The only just proposal is not to uproot the people of Cato Manor.

THE CITY COUNCIL IS IN DUTY BOUND TO CALL UPON THE GOVERNMENT TO DE-PROCLAIM CATO MANOR. WE SAY, THEREFORE, THAT IT MUST REJECT THE NEW PLAN.

We make this appeal, in the name of fair play, order and decency, and we say that the City Council is morally, and in every sense, obliged to leave the Indians of Cato Manor alone.

We earnestly pray that this appeal will not fall on deaf ears, and that the much-publicised British sense of fair play and impartiality at last be brought to bear upon an issue which vitally affects the Indian community.

DR. NAICKER AND MR. N. T. NAICKER AT CONFERENCE

For the first time two of the leading Congress officials, Dr. G. M. Naicker, President of the Natal Indian Congress and Mr. N. T. Naicker, General Secretary of the Natal Indian Congress will be jointly present at the Congress Conference to deliver their addresses.

Since Mr. Naicker's election to office as General Secretary in 1954, Dr. Naicker the President and Mr. Naicker have never been jointly present at a S.A.C. Conference as officials.

In 1954, Mr. Naicker assumed the position of General Secretary following the ban imposed on Mr. Debi Singh who was then Secretary of the S.A.I.C. During the same year Dr. Naicker was banned.

In 1955, Dr. Naicker delivered his presidential address in absentia and in 1956 he was still under Ministerial ban.

In 1957 both Dr. Naicker and Mr. N. T. Naicker were on charges of High Treason and owing to the bail conditions imposed on them they were prevented from presenting their addresses in person. The position remained the same last year. Early this year the Treason charges against them were quashed and they have been attending meetings of the Congress in official capacities.

Deafness and deaf child

An address will be given by Dr. H. Vaughan, Special Education, Arts and Science, the School of Arts and Sciences, Durban Technical College, Sydenham Road, Durban, on Thursday, October 8, at 2.30 p.m. in the Lecture Theatre of the Natal Technical College. The address is under the auspices of the National Council for Deaf Children.

Last year at the annual general meeting of the Natal Branch of the South African National Council for the Blind, Dr. Vaughan addressed the Natal Branch on the subject of the progress of the education of deaf children. The address was especially appropriate in view of the general public interest in deaf and interest in the work among the deaf. Dr. Vaughan's address was given at the opening of the new school for the deaf.

Coloureds Have Made Big Progress

THE percentage of literacy among Cape Town's Coloured community at the moment is just over 80 per cent — a remarkable progress made during the last quarter of a century.

This can be gauged by the fact that whereas 70 years ago there were only four high schools for the Coloureds, there are now over 13 such colleges in the Peninsula alone.

This information was given to "The Leader" by Mr. E. Hoge, Principal of the Hewat Training College, where there are now 240 students studying to become teachers.

A phenomenal factor, Mr. Hogwood observed, was the interest shown by women in the sphere of education. "In the past, females showed a scant regard to taking up teaching as a profession. Hewat now boasts of 50 per cent of its students being women. This augurs well for the future of education among the community and also an indication of the awakening that speaks well for its education.

INCREASING DEMAND

Mr. Hogwood said that the growth of the number of high schools in the Peninsula in a quarter of a century showed that the average Coloured has an urge for secondary education. As a result, there was an increasing demand for qualified Coloured teachers.

Hewat Training College, which began 18 years ago, is housed in temporary premises. Mr. Hogwood said that within a year or two the College would be shifted to a building of its own in Athlone at the cost of £250,000 which already drawn up plans for this building.

There is one other institution for training Coloured teachers at Oudtshoorn.

MR. BUNTING INVITED TO CONGRESS

Mr. Brian Bunting, former member of the Union Parliament, has been invited by the Executive of the Natal Indian Congress to open the Congress's Twelfth Annual Provincial Conference at Gandhi Hall, Lorne Street, Durban, on October 11.

This is the first time that the Natal Indian Congress will have a former M.P. to open its Annual Conference.

Mr. B. Bunting, who was elected to Parliament as a representative of the African people of Western Cape was banned from participating in the debates in Parliament by Minister of Justice, Mr. Swart.

Mr. Brian Bunting will have before it the question of non-White franchise on all levels of government as one of the matters for discussion. The municipal franchise and the congress viewpoint on it will be thoroughly discussed by the delegates.

MR. NGUBANE IS TAKEN TO TASK

IT is in their attitude to Indians that the Africanists are racialists.

"Mr. Sobukwe calls the Indians a "foreign minority group."

"There are some members of this group," says he, "the merchant class in particular, who have become tainted with the virus of cultural supremacy and national arrogance.

"This class identifies itself by and large with the oppressors, but significantly, this is the group which provides the political leaders also of the Indian people of South Africa. And all that the politics of this class have meant up to now is preservation and defence of the sectional interests of the Indian merchants above the downtrodden, poor-stinking masses of Natal who alone can identify themselves as a result of material conditions with the indigenous African masses in the struggle against White supremacy, have not yet produced their leadership. We have still to see."

This is the speech at the inaugural conference in case it may be argued that he was only stepping up the factitial at their party conference, and therefore not much importance should be placed on this statement, one need only turn to a passage from an article written by him in the "Africa South" in which he says:

"The only Indians who can, because of their material position, be interested in the complete overthrow of White domination are a thousand odd that afford a genuine African bourgeoisie, the great majority of the sugar plantations of Natal, but they have not yet given the leadership of their own. While we should regret this opportunist leadership, we should not be unduly perturbed by it."

Mr. Sobukwe tends to brush up his "non-racialism." There are few "non-racialists" in South Africa who would not be prepared to see the Indian community driven into the sea. Mr. Sobukwe is no exception. He makes the White man's burden more favourably disposed towards them.

Since he cannot support this charge by solid facts, Mr. Ngubane connects some facts of his own. And what are they?

1. Most Indian leaders thought it in their people's interests to side with the White supremacists against the Africanists.

Mr. Ngubane must produce hard facts to show where and when and which Indian leaders have sided with the White supremacists against the Africanists. Let him give us a few pertinent examples, not make wild and baseless allegations.

There is no need for all those "ifs" and "buts" and probablys." Mr. Sobukwe is so sure of his facts. Mr. Moosa Indian leader, he contents as "Kaptic." This, again, is not true. In fact, many Africanists still refer to Indians as "Amasiatic." But one would hesitate to condemn

Scala Will Have Everything

SOON to make its bow to Durban's cinema fans will be the ultra-modern and luxurious Scala Cinema, fast nearing completion at the corner of Warwick Avenue and Mansfield, opposite the Winterton Walk bus rank.

And its opening will be a boon to the cinema-goer belonging to the low income group, for it will not only make it possible for him to see the latest films in an atmosphere of cool comfort and be served free of charge either with a cup of tea or cold drink, but he will also be able to take his wife and children for the amazingly low fee of about six shillings.

With a seating capacity of over 500, the Scala will be run as a cinema-tearoom with continuous performances, believed to be the first such venture among non-European cinemas in the Union.

By special design and decor the architects are giving the Scala a Continental look, with emphasis on gay colours and touches of mosaic and crazy marble floors to bring about the desired atmosphere. The cinema and restaurant are being fully air-conditioned and the projection room is to be installed with the latest equipment from overseas. There will be a Cinemascope for panoramic features.

BEST FILMS

Mr. H. H. Dhupelia, one of the directors of this ambitious project told "The Leader" that the Cinema has secured franchise rights from leading film distributors in the Union to screen a selection of the best English films.

UNIQUE FEATURES

Mr. Dhupelia said that apart from the salient features all seats will be priced at 1s. 6d. for adults and 1s. 2d. for children including tax. This admission fee includes a free service of refreshments, either a cup of tea or cold drink, throughout the performances there will be waiters in attendance to supply any extra requirements, each seat is fitted with a special mahogany service tray; there will be continuous performances from 9 a.m. to 10.30 p.m. with short intervals between each show; there will be an all-day restaurant and continental milk bar, a separate soft ice-cream section for which equipment, machinery and plant have been specially imported from the Continent to supply the famous Dairi-Delight Soft Serve Cream.

"All of which," Mr. Dhupelia said, "adds up to one thing. For the first time a non-European cinema in Durban will place itself within the reach of the average income group and a man with a large family.

"For only 5s. 4d a man, his wife and two children can have an outing and see the best in screen entertainment, and refresh themselves with tea or mineralo.

"It will give help to the professional and the businessman to drop in during the day and cool himself at the Scala and at the same time see an interesting film."

'A Private's Affair' is a Family Affair too!

"A PRIVATE'S AFFAIR," Twentieth-Century-Fox's hilarious Cinemascope de luxe colour production, which stars the most exciting of today's youthful stars, is scheduled to be screened at the Avalon Theatre soon.

The mixed-up antics of three young draftees and their chaotic effects upon the whole U.S. Army command, right up to and including the Secretary of the Army, who turns out to be an attractive woman, stars Sal Mineo, Christine Carere, Barry Coe, Gary Crosby and Terry Moore.

In addition, the popular comedian Jim Backus is starred as a Steve Allen-Ed Sullivan type of TV master of ceremonies, with Jesse Royce Landis starred in the role of the woman Secretary of the Army, who is accidentally mairne to Private Poe.

A picture for the entire family, and especially for those in the teen age bracket, the story of "A Private's Affair" opens in an Eastern training camp where Mineo (a live-sailing musician) Coe (a college man) and Crosby (heir to a Texas fortune) meet.

IN TROUBLE

Soon all three are buddies and in trouble with their sergeant. At a dance, they meet and pair off with Carere, Christine (Carere, a bosom pal friend of Mineo's, who takes up with Coe, Barbara Eden (a WAC who takes up with Crosby) and Terry Moore, as the girl friend of Coe's, who goes for Mineo.

All the same time, Backus hears a tape recording of a song the three of them sang during their stayed to perform on a special TV show he is going to do.

The Army agrees but Coe comes down with laryngitis and while he is confined to the infirmary, is accidentally married to the visiting Secretary of the Army, Jessie Royce Landis, who has actually agreed to marry a dying Dutchman so that his child may be allowed to remain in America and not sent back to Holland as an orphan (her mother killed and her father having been in an accident near the camp).

Pyaasa—a tale of life and love

POETS, like their artist, musical and writer cousins, often suffer a great deal spiritually or mentally or physically or mentally—or all three, the torment of their creative efforts. Their efforts mean nothing to others in their lifetime and they live in obscurity and poverty in dingy little garrets, but after their works assume tremendous proportions and earn for them large fortunes.

Such a story is portrayed in Guru Dutt's "Pyaasa" to be released shortly on the circuit of the Avalon-Albert cinemas.

The tale hinges around the joys and loves of a poet, Vijay, whose works none of the publishers would accept, they preferring lewd to hunger as the subject of poems.

After leaving college Vijay finds it difficult to settle down to any job. He earns the taunts and insults of his brothers, whom only his manuscripts as waste paper to a grocer for a few annas.

His search for the manuscripts creates an intense interest in a photoplay which is full of action as it is of romance.

Starring Guru Dutt, who also directs, Mala Sinha, Waheeda Rehman, Johnny Walker and Kumkum—a pick of five stars to appear in one film, "Pyaasa" promises entertainment of a high standard.

The music is by S D Burman with lyrics by Sahir Ludhianvi.

Adhikar is Social Drama

RUPKAMAL CHITRAN social drama "Adhikar" starring Usha Kiron and Kishore Kumar in the stellar roles, and which is to be screened at the Albert from September 28 to October 3, is a film that deviates from the hackneyed themes so often portrayed in the Indian cinema.

Instead, it touches upon a controversial subject, that of a widower re-marrying without letting the prospective bride know of this, and also the fact that he is the father of a child.

Would this constitute a breach of love, and warrant the spurned wife, upon learning of the circumstances, to leave her "widower" husband? The film attempts to answer this delicate question on the screen, and in doing so provides its audiences first class entertainment embellished dances, songs and many romantic interludes.

Another Avenue of Learning

Yet another avenue of learning will open its doors at the M. L. Sultan Technical College, when classes in Indian Classical music commence there soon.

The initiative for this new venture in the South Indian Musical Association, and with this latest advance aspiring musicians will be able to learn singing, the playing of some of the more intricate and complex instruments such as the Harmonium, Violin, Thabla and the Mridangam.

Enrolment is open to students, miners and adults, and the fee is 17/6 per quarter. If enough applications are received classes will be held Saturdays and in the evening on week days.

Pick-a-box show in Maritzburg

Pietermaritzburg's theatregoers have an unusual treat in store for them on Kingsley's Day (October 10) when the musical "Pick-a-Box" will be staged in the Marian Hall.

Pair after pair, Mike Henry will be there with his Hammond Organ. The other is that "Pick-a-Box" is actually a quiz contest in which every member of the audience will be entitled to participate. Prizes in this contest range from a lounge suite to a dinner set. There will also be valuable prizes like the purchases of the lucky programme numbers.

Quiz master is Mr. Raymond Nolan, vice-principal of Woodlands Indian High School, while Mr. G. A. Kasher will be compere. Graham Rich, son of Ray Rich, of Natdev and Applecamy fame, is featured on the programme.

'THE DIARY' IS ONE OF HOLLYWOOD'S FINEST

AVALON will soon be all honouring with the release of a film which has been rated as one of the finest motion pictures ever to come out of a Hollywood set when 20th Century-Fox's "The Diary of Anne Frank" is screened there shortly.

As a book, stage play and now a motion picture, "The Diary of Anne Frank" has made a record for itself nearly equalled by any piece of writing. And it is written with no idea that it would ever be published.

Anne Frank, aged 13, started keeping a diary, a short time before she, her parents and sister and four others went into hiding in Amsterdam following the German invasion of the Netherlands. She continued her diary until shortly before the Nazi police found their hiding place two years later.

The diary was found after the war in the litter and rubble of the old house.

Written in Dutch, the diary was first published in 1947. In 1955, it came out in the U.S., where it sold over 1,000,000 copies.

Translated into 21 languages, the most recent figure on sales outside the United States is approximately 1,960,000.

The stage play, based on Anne Frank's diary by Frances Goodrich and Albert Hackett, was produced on Broadway in 1955 and ran nearly two years.

As a film, "The Diary of Anne Frank" has been in the making for a world-wide search for the part of Anne Frank, directed by George Stevens, in Cinemascope and colour, was handled by Millie Perkins, in the role of Anne Frank, Joseph Schildkraut, Shelley Winters, and others.

"The Diary of Anne Frank" comes to the Avalon screens with an exceptionally fine cast, a magnificent production, a great deal in the way of awards.

Film helps social club

The South India film, "Payal," will be screened at the Roxy Cinema, Rasethorne, at two performances this Sunday at 1.30 p.m. and 7.30 p.m. Profits from this show will be shared between the New Age Social Club of Pentrich, and the Indian Boy Scouts Association.

Tickets are obtainable from members of the New Age Social Club.

Bette Davis, queen of the screen, is still great charmer

BETTE DAVIS, at 50 can still charm rings around most of the young Hollywood glamour girls. For Bette is what the Europeans call "an artiste," an actress who has earned the right to be so called by proved ability — not by their anatomical shapes and dimensions.

Today, Bette is as much the cinema queen as when she won two Academy Awards. Few actresses have brought more conviction to roles of royalty than Bette with her portrayals of Queen Elizabeth in "Elizabeth and Essex" and of the Empress Carlotta in "Juarez."

Currently she is making a guest star appearance as Empress Catherine the Great of Russia in "John Paul Jones." Samuel Bronston's Technicolor picture soon to be seen in this country. While Bette is on the screen only six minutes, director John Farrow said there was not another actress in Hollywood who could have contributed so much in a guest star appearance.

Now Another Movie

In releasing "John Paul Jones," in which Robert Stack plays the title role, this assignment united Bette and Warners for the first time in 10 years.

"I made something like 60 pictures for this studio," said the bonny-haired actress. "Now I'm seeing them on television. My children, however, are viewing most of my pictures for the first time and it was rather a startling experience for them, I'm afraid, to see me as a very young girl. But watching my former portrayal on TV didn't make me feel for the past.

"Instead, I was reminded of how fortunate I was in having the services of those Long-term contracts and plum roles. That's something few actresses today have for. It's really tougher for women in the motion now. Movies and TV are so preoccupied with Westerns and world affairs and masculine action that women tend to be relegated to the background.

The Golden Age of Comedy

SOON to be released in this country is a collection of the funniest episodes ever created by some of Hollywood's all-time comedy performers, including Will Rogers, Laurel and Hardy, Carole Lombard, Ben Turpin, Jean Harlow Harry Langdon and Buster Keaton (Keaton is entitled "The Golden Age of Comedy").

The production is the result of a seven-year-long journey of exploration through miles of film made by producer Robert Youngson, winner of two Academy awards. This research search turned up over three thousands reels of film. Youngson could not afford to purchase so many reels of film, so he rented so that the finished picture would be a 90 minute affair — the latest Hollywood product.

Over a period of many years Youngson ran and re-ran these two thousand reels of film, testing them on preview audiences to gauge the laugh reactions were the funniest and had the widest appeal. Gradually the two thousand reels were pruned to a mere total of only 300 before they were reduced to the eight reels running approximately eighty minutes, that comprise the finished product.

ACTOR GIVEN ROUGH TIME

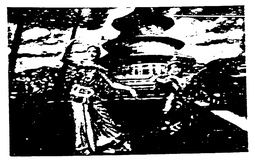
Actor Gustavo Carpentier took steps to insure that from black and blue marks received in the course of his work in the film "Spartacus" he would not be subjected to any rough treatment from the police.

Carpentier, who is playing the role of a Roman centurion in the film, was arrested by police on a charge of being drunk and disorderly in Rome.

He was released on bail of 50,000 lire (£28) and appeared in court with his face bandaged and his body covered with bruises.

Carpentier told the court that he had been arrested while walking home from a party. He was knocked down and kicked by police, he said.

The court ordered that the police who had arrested him should appear in court to give evidence.



This still shows a dance sequence from the film "Nagin" which will soon be seen at Avalon-Albert circuit cinemas. Sandip Kumar and Vyjantimala take the leading role.

GLADIATOR FILM COST 9,000,000 DOLLARS

AN unprecedented four-day test of a battle scene was completed at Universal-International Studios for Bryna Productions' "Spartacus," colossal production saga. "Spartacus," costarring Kirk Douglas, Laurence Olivier, Jean Simmons, Tony Curtis, Charles Laughton, Peter Ustinov, Jean Peters and John Ireland.

A special sequence of the combat area, where Spartacus is finally defeated by four Roman armies was filmed by Director Stanley Kubrick on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Kubrick personally controlled four cameras, each of which was manned by a crew more than twice the normal size. Four Panavision cameras were used to film the battle scenes, which were mixed from 65 mm. to 35 mm. for the finished product.

By using all four cameras on the same scene, Kubrick was able to get the action from the "Camera Eye" of the spectator, the "Camera Eye" of the participant, and a master shot with his two principals. Romanoff and Douglas, in addition to covering the action from all angles. Kubrick was able to preview the footage in advance. It took two days to complete the scene with the combination on this feature production for Universal-International. Studios involved 1,000 men and horses.

One hundred extras, plus stand-ins for all principals, every one of them in campaign uniform, were used for the lengthy motion picture and still photograph tests.

SPARKLING COMEDY

A sparkling comedy with one of the year's most dazzling casts is presented on the screen in "The Reluctant Debutante," starring Rex Harrison and the late Kay Kendall, and teenage favourites John Saxon and Sandra Dee.

A romantic story highlighted by witty and laugh situations, "The Reluctant Debutante" revolves about a young American girl who makes her debut in London society and who thwarts her parents' plans to have her marry an English aristocrat when she falls in love with an American Drummer boy.

Harrison and Miss Kendall portray the annoyingly frustrated parents, with Saxon and Miss Dee as the youthful youngsters.

The picture was filmed in Paris in CinemaScope and colour.

Meena Loves Urdu Poetry

Meena Kumari, the pretty and lovable actress of the Indian screen, has a passion for Urdu poetry. Whenever she gets a day off from films, she spends hours reading poetry and when inspiration compels her, writes exquisite poems in Hindi verse.

Then, when there is leisure again, she reverts her work until it gets the polish and fineness that satisfies her.

Her compositions, which she publishes under the pen-name Nazz, are eagerly awaited by lovers of Urdu poetry.

Poetry thus swappes pride of place when Meena has a holiday. Writing poems is strenuous mental work, but says Meena, it is a change from the routine of the studio although acting is also exacting.

Meena does not excell in those subjects, laughs all the time, for she also has Somersault in her horoscope. A connoisseur of food, she is also a good cook.

Some day, I must prepare a feast to surprise a couple of Mughal dynasty kings, in my mind after the origin of acting and writing poetry."

U. S. Cattle Barons in Action

"CATTLE EMPIRE," 20th Century-Fox's Cinemascope Western drama starring Joel McCrea in the role of a Texas cowboy trail boss, is to be screened at the Avalon shortly.

It is an exciting and realistic portrayal of the action days of the cattle barons of the great south-west and the men who controlled the armies of cowpokers needed to handle the wild herds on the trail drives.

Joel McCrea, an active horseman and excellent horseback rider in the role of John Cord, whom he portrays in the film who allowed his men to mistreat the weak women and defenceless.

Gradually, the trail herder's life is examined on the action drama whose cast tells the fascinating story of a range war in which Cord, who is almost crushed by his own unscrupulous, must fight to retain the ranch he has carved for all the social ills — even a woman with fashionable short hair.

AUDREY HAS HER HAIR SHORN

IF she had been 10 years younger, the world have cried. But Audrey Hepburn, being a mature and modern young woman, didn't mind when her hair was shorn for the final scenes in the highly acclaimed drama "The Nun's Story," which will be seen in this country soon.

In her role of a Belgian girl who becomes a nursing nun, her hair-cutting is part of the ritual as the girl prepares to don her habit as a novice. Director Fred Zinneman scheduled the Warner Bros. picture so that the very last scene was with the shears.

And in order to make sure that the job was done properly and authentically, the director put Audrey's personal hairdresser in the habit of a nun to do the cutting on the scene. After the scene, the hairdresser made a few additional trimmings and considered changements, and Audrey emerged looking for all the world like a young woman with fashionable short hair.

Armed Robbers Terrorizing Stella Hill

A GANG of African robbers armed with cane knives are terrorising the people of Stella Hill by waylaying and robbing them late in the afternoons and evenings while on their way to their homes alone.

Both Africans and Indians are not spared by these robbers, and despite complaints made to the police there have as yet been no arrests.

Last week alone saw four mishaps within three days. The first victim was Mr. Vadival Menon, a 27-year-old food factory worker and a father of two children.

He told "The Leader" that after having finished work at 4.30 p.m. last Friday, he walked to his house in Merrilees Road, in Stella Hill. On his way he had to walk down a small path flanked on either side by thick bushes. He was just passing them when four Africans came out of them and followed him.

After he had walked a few yards there was a rustling of leaves and four more appeared brandishing cane knives. Two of them caught hold of his arms while one of them demanded money from him.

Mr Menon told his captors that he had no money, whereupon one of the robbers placed a knife on his neck and said: "If you don't hand us the money we will kill you."

He explained to them that as he received his pay on Wednesdays he had no money on him.

Not content with this, one of the Africans searched him and, after having found no money in Mr. Vadival's pockets, kicked him and told him to run.

A few minutes later an old Indian man came the same way and he, too, was accosted by the Africans. He, too, had no money and, incensed at their disappointment for the second time, they hit him several times and told him to run.

About 30 minutes later an old African man is coming to the homes of some of the Indians in the area complaining that several Africans had robbed him of his wages just at the same spot where the Indians were held-up.

On the following Sunday an African woman was also held up and robbed.

Annual Prayer Meeting

The Ramakalpa Sri Java Bharathi the Padavalaya of Mount Edgecombe will hold its annual general annual Navaraththa prayer service at the Temple Hall, Mount Edgecombe on Sunday, October 11, at 1 p.m.

The Bharathee Padavalaya, it will be recalled, was given an official status when its principal, M. K. V. Sarma, came to reside in the Settlement on the invitation of the Sabha, the Maharishi Institute of Vedic Culture, Holland, of which he is the representative of that Institute in South Africa, and a prominent member of its Branch here.

ANNIVERSARY MARCH PAST

The Durban Muslim Scouts will hold a grand third anniversary march past on Sunday, October 11, commencing at 1 p.m. after which they will hold an anniversary celebration at the Bolton Hall at 2 p.m.

Beginning at the Market Square the route of the march past will take in Wills Road, Old Dutch Road, Alice Street, Grey Street, Queen Street, Albert Street and then on to the Bolton Hall.

Items from fat and wafe had come to grace the function. Among them were a number of prominent Europeans and Indians.

Those who joined in congratulating the newly-wedded couple were Messrs Nana Sita (President, Transvaal Indian Congress), Rev. B. L. P. Sekonyane, R. Moodley, Dubassi Mistry, G. M. Singh and M. B. Maharaj.

Double wedding

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Monsoo, of Pretoria, was a scene of a pretty wedding when their daughters Sheila and Sarah were recently married to K. Hardew Singh of Plessislaer, Pietermaritzburg, and Mohan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsingh, of Thornville Junction.

Guests from far and wide had come to grace the function. Among them were a number of prominent Europeans and Indians.

Those who joined in congratulating the newly-wedded couple were Messrs Nana Sita (President, Transvaal Indian Congress), Rev. B. L. P. Sekonyane, R. Moodley, Dubassi Mistry, G. M. Singh and M. B. Maharaj.

Now in Britain studying the latest treatment and research into children's diseases is Dr. (Dato) Khin Khin Sein, from Burma. She is seen attending a child patient at the West Middlesex Hospital in London where she is at present studying the Department of Paediatrics. Dr. Khin Khin Sein is studying in Britain under the Colombo Plan Technical Co-operation Scheme. She hopes to take her diploma in children's diseases and then continue her studies for a further year, devoting her time to maternal health.

Seven scholarships for S.A. students

The Government of India has offered seven scholarships this year to students in the Union of South Africa.

The selected Indians will be paid a stipend of Shs 300/- (£15) per month, in addition to other concessions like free tuition and exemption from payment of examination fees. Applicants will be considered adequate for normal admission to a student while in India. Expenses of the journey to and from India will, however, have to be borne by the selected candidates who will be required to join the various Universities in India in June-July, 1960.

Each of these scholarships is tenable for a full course of study in Arts and Humanities, Science, Medicine, Law, Engineering, Technology, Journalism, etc.

Candidates who have passed at least the Senior Cambridge Certificate Examination (Matriculation Exemption), or possess an equivalent qualification, are eligible.

Applications on prescribed forms, which can be obtained from the Second Secretary (Education), Government for India, P.O. Box 8074, Natal, should be sent so as to reach him not later than October 15, 1959, with complete documents.

Applications received later than that date will not be entertained.

ROUNDWORMS

GONE in ONE DOSE!

GONE in ONE DAY!

'ANTEPAR'

expels roundworms in one day!

3/- PER FULL-DOSE BOTTLE

The Human Roundworm begins as a microscopic egg, passed out with the human waste. People eating uncooked vegables or with unwashed hands become infected. Sometimes the eggs, blown like dust, are swallowed.

The Roundworms hatches in the intestine and passes through the stomach wall into the bloodstream. It goes through the heart and lungs, and men with no bathroom to the mouth, swallowed again, the Roundworm becomes fully grown in the stomach and starts. The female lays enormous eggs a day. The eggs pass out, and the cycle starts again.

The most serious effect of Roundworms is malnutrition. The worms take most of what is read and good from the food that you eat. Vomiting, morning sickness, bad temper and disappointment are common symptoms.

Antepar is worm's enemy, most pleasant and effective cure. Only one dose of this sweet syrup children actually seem taking it) ends the parasite complaints of Roundworms within 24 hours.

There are no rules to the Antepar cure, no diets, no diets at all one need do is take it—and there is no "medicine" taste, no unpleasant or harmful aftereffect. Anyone avoids ourselves the worms, and they pass out helpless with the bowels' natural movements.

And the true measure of success—Antepar worms with nine cures in every ten!

Mr. Moolla is Badly Beaten: 21—9 Votes

By a Leader Reporter

MR. E. I. MOOLA, who contested the presidency of the Southern Natal Indian Cricket Union at its annual meeting in Durban last Sunday, received a severe trouncing when he was defeated by an overwhelming 21-9 votes against Mr. Kitty Samuels. Mr. Kitty Samuels, with the same cabinet, was returned to office for the third successive year.

Mr. Moolla's cabinet included Mr. A. G. Mayet as secretary and Mr. F. A. Seedat as treasurer. Mr. V. Bhana as record clerk.

Messrs. Louis Nelson (mover) and I. I. Moolla (seconder) were severely censured at the meeting for submitting a notice of motion to the Natal Cricket Union without the prior consultation of Southern Natal. Their motion asked for reversion of the old system of one Natal body controlling cricket in the province. It will be recalled that prior to 1957/58 season, the Natal Indian Cricket Union controlled cricket throughout the province.

After the Re-Orientation Commission's recommendations were accepted, Natal was divided into two autonomous zonal unions, which system has been in operation for the last two seasons.

The mover and seconder felt that the new system was rather unwieldy. Numerous legislations were being passed thus causing much confusion in administration. They maintained that the confusion could be eliminated by a single body controlling cricket in the province.

The mover and the seconder were requested to stay the motion until such time that the affiliated district unions fully considered the matter.

CRICKET IN SCHOOLS

The strong recommendation submitted in the annual report submitted by its indefatigable secretary, Mr. S. K. Chetty in regard to encouraging cricket among school children was received with favourable consideration, and the matter was referred to a special council meeting to discuss and implement same.

Mr. Chetty stated that the reasons attributed to the deterioration of the standard of play was due to lack of adequate match practice and physical fitness. It must be emphasised that the new grass and development of the game primarily depends on coaching, not for the present day cricketers but should concentrate largely on school cricket stated Mr. Chetty.

Mr. Chetty also stated that for the second successive year the V. V. Naidoo's cup league Cup competition was abandoned owing to lack of time. His recommendation to allocate this trophy to the runners-up for the Dr. Rock forte Wade Shield was accepted.

The office-bearers elected for the ensuing year were: Patron, Mr. S. Singh, President, Mr. K. Samuels, Hon. Secretary Mr. K. Chetty, Hon. Treasurer Mr. V. Hamaraj, Hon. Record Clerk Mr. B. S. Chetty, Hon. Auditor Mr. P. R. Pather.

Selectors: Messrs M. I. Moolla (Convener), S. P. Bains, S. and A. Howard.

Delegates to Natal Indian Cricket Union: Messrs. E. I. Moolla, K. H. Seedat, S. P. Bains, Louis Nelson, D. E. Moolla and Ismail G. H. S. Srada.

DURBAN TOO GOOD FOR ASHERVILLE

Sunday was a big day for the Asherville Football Association. They had their impressive new change rooms officially opened by Durban's Director of Parks and Gardens, Mr. Thorns, and later in the day they saw the cream of their players do battle against Durban's junior and senior teams. The seniors went down 4-0 after a hard fight whilst their juniors did well to hold Durban to a 2-all draw.

Durban's senior team was literally a third grade team with only two big names, Rooster Green and Swingdas. Although Durban set the pace and dominated play, Asherville were not utterly outplayed. They tried as hard as they could. Their young goalkeeper, Eric Seadon, and their smade-left, Roya Naidoo, made a good impression. Young Eric, in particular, in this performance, seems to have a bright future.

Undoubtedly, Ronnie Green, Durban's unpredictable left winger, was the player of the day. He led the attack for most part and made some excellent moves.

Playing with the wind in their favour in the first half, Asherville were all over Durban but their shots lacked zest.

It didn't take Durban's forward line long to settle down. Flayed Jack lobbed the ball over the half line and George, playing his first senior game, shot it over to Cheese who pelted it home.

After interval the game was completely Durban's. Once more David Jack passed to George, who bluffed his way past two defenders and within easy sight of goal passed to "G1" who scored.

Within minutes, G1" got Durban's third goal. Soon after tricky interplay and neat combination between George and Cheese brought Durban's fourth goal.

SPORTING GALA FOR BARWON

Last year, the Barwon Sporting Club held an adult's five-a-side tournaments. This year, it held a sports gala and five-a-side tournament for the four schools and clubs in the Upper Tongaat area.

Athletic items were provided for boys and girls in three division. Sons of the outstanding athlete were R. Sookalingum "A" Division. Thotsammah, Govendammah and Gyanwathie were really outstanding in the Girls "B" Division, while Muthoo was the Boys "C" Division Champion. Little Meenadoo was the best athlete in the Girls "C" Division.

In the one mile race, R. Sookalingum was first in the boys section and S. Mahabeer in the Men's Division.

The five-a-side tournament results were as follows:

Schools Section: Juvenile "A" winners, runners-up Juvenile "C". Men's Section: Central "A" side captured Mr. D. Bodhoo A Cup Trophy for the second year in succession, Temples runners up.

UNHAPPY START TO INDIAN TRIP

DESPITE a fractured arm sustained while he was attending a funeral, Mr. A. G. Narayudu, leader of the contingent of Indian teachers, is leaving for a six-month tour of India, Pakistan and Ceylon next week.

Mr. Narayudu was one of the mourners last week at the funeral of Miss Patsy Jaukeen, a friend of the Narayudu family and at whose home she died. He had just placed the coffin containing her body on the wooden boards at the side of the grave at the Nicklaswood Cemetery when he stepped back on the grass mat and fell headlong into a grave below, about four feet away from the grave. This fall caused the fracture.

He was taken to hospital where his arm was cast in plaster.

With his arm in plaster, Mr. Narayudu the non-influential for the teachers' Indian tour, faces the gloomy prospect of nursing the fractured arm during the sea trip after which he has to report for a Hospital hospital.

If the doctor is not satisfied with the results, it means that Mr. Narayudu will have his arm re-set. Should this work prove in vain it will probably spend a short part of the tour visiting specialists and doctors in addition to doing the usual and duties of the contingent.

World champion weightlifter, Tommy Kono, of the United States, competes in the weightlifting event at the third Pan-American Games in Chicago. The Honolulu athlete set a new games record in the middleweight class with a lift of 898½ lbs. He holds the world record of 948 lbs. set in Stockholm in September, 1958.

Stella Will Feature in Replay

By R. S. GOVENDER

THIS Sunday provides perhaps the last opportunity for the soccer enthusiasts to enjoy a great football finale. While the postponed inter-provincial inter-city games between the Johannesburg Africans and the Southern Natal Indians meet on challenge basis, the much-discussed Natal Cup District final between the perennial Stella and the greatly improved Warwickshires completes the interesting programme.

The first match is scheduled for 12 noon between the Rand and Southern Natal "B" teams, followed by the Stella-Warwick clash at 2 p.m., and the main game between Rand and Southern Natal "A" teams at 4.15 p.m.

The Stella-Warwickshires encounter which will decide the team to represent Durban in the Natal Cup competition promises an exciting and thrilling" soccer spectacle. These two teams had occasion to meet recently and after playing two periods of gruelling extra time, drew (3-3) with each other and came off without a decision.

The match kept the town talking, and this return contest will certainly produce soccer craft at its best. Since the last match both teams have been building up tremendous prospects, and you can be assured of 90 minutes of gruelling battle for supremacy. I dare not predict the winner, but an interesting soccer exhibition can be expected.

KALIDEEN CUP FOR STAMFORD HILL TEAM

by a "Leader" Reporter

Stamford Hill Lads showed brilliant form this season and they are expected to wipe the board in the South Coast juvenile soccer. On Sunday, they scored a thrilling 3-2 win over Young Pirates to annex the Kalideen Cup.

In the other matches both senior and junior Coronation teams beat Mt. Edgecombe Pirates and Avoca United respectively by the same margin of 1 goal to nil.

Appeal for Blood Donors

THE central panel of the Durban Blood Transfusion service will be holding a blood-giving session this Saturday, October 3, at the Natal Indian Youth Society Hall, Carlisle Street, Durban, from 12.30 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The Central Panel appeals to all old and new donors to come forward and give blood for this most humane service, which means the saving of countless lives, who may otherwise perish for the want of blood.

GLAND DISCOVERY RESTORES YOUTHFUL VIGOUR

Sufferers from loss of vigour, nervousness, weak body, impure blood, failing memory and premature old age, are told that there is now a discovery by an American Doctor which is said to restore youthful vigour in six weeks and works entirely through the pituitary gland and brain, to build new body tissues, to give you more energy, to make you look younger and feel younger. In fact, this discovery is said to be so amazing in its effect, even in cases of long standing, that it is guaranteed to restore youthful vigour in six weeks or money back. Doctor in now telling this secret to all Australia and New Zealand and is offering a full six weeks' supply to readers of this paper. Write to Dr. Ralph Richards, Suite 1000, 1 Rockefeller Plaza, New York 20, N.Y., U.S.A. for full information. Don't delay this offer may be withdrawn.

Seaman Chetty drops a bombshell

"I'M STEPPING OUT OF PROFESSIONAL SOCCER FOR GOOD"

SEAMAN CHETTY

SEAMAN CHETTY, "The Man With the Midas Touch," who overnight became the most controversial figure in soccer by announcing his intention to start professional football, this week dropped another bombshell when he told "Leader's" Ronnie Govender, in an exclusive interview, "I am stepping out. I am giving up the idea of professional soccer for good!"

Seaman's announcement comes at a time when the blustering bravado of official soccer authorities against interference by "outside interests" was thawing out into a more accommodating attitude.

People were looking forward to Seaman's next move, and it was felt in many quarters that he would be treated a little more sympathetically by the high-ups in soccer.

"I started this thing for the sake of the man who makes the turnstiles click: the footballer. When I announced by plans nobody was doing anything about professionalism. Now, however, soccer authorities have woken up to the idea and I hear that a Natal Pro. League is being formed.

"That's good enough. And I think it's a wonderful thing for soccer that at last our boys will receive compensation for the effort they put in to please the big crowds we are now getting. I don't want to be in the way of this Pro. League, which is going to do the things I intended to do. I want to give them a free hand and I hope they succeed for the sake of our people, to whom this will be of tremendous advantage."

... and Ronnie Govender Says

"NOW ITS UP TO THE BIG BOYS"

SEAMAN CHETTY, by stepping out of the pro. soccer race voluntarily, in favour of the Natal Football League, has proved that he really has the interests of the game at heart. He took this decision despite Saxons already obtained a ground and the promised services of some of the leading clubs in Natal. And that is saying a lot.

Now it's up to the big boys who control Natal soccer. Seaman's given us the kick-off and we want that goal badly, and like any other goal it can only be achieved by a sensible approach.

At the moment, however, we appear to be dribbling about in willy-nilly fashion, and a goal was never scored like that, barring flukes.

I said in a previous article that pro. soccer should only be introduced through the proper authorities, the South African Soccer Federation, the highest soccer body for all soccer units of all races in South Africa.

The suggestion was later backed by Messrs. R. Lutchman, secretary of the Natal Inter-Race Soccer Board, and R. S. Govender at a D.I.F.A.C. meeting. But one of the staunchest opponents of this suggestion was none other than Air...pskuy

SAXON'S secretary, George Singh, who said it would be like putting the cart before the horse.

But the horse hasn't yet been hitched on to the front or the cart, and it never will be if we take heed of George Singh's recent statement that we are not yet ready for professional soccer.

Look at the material we have. Take the African teams Bush Bucks and Wanderers, the top Coloured teams from Durban, Aces and New Orleans, and the Indian teams, Aces, Stella and Warwickshires of Durban, Bridgetown and Pirates of Clairwood, Manning Rangers and Parades of Mayville, Daffodils of Maritzburg, and Stella of Newcastle, to mention only a few, and we will have as attractive a pro. league as any.

The Natal Football League is the latest manoeuvre, and the good thing about this body is the fact that all races will have a hand in its formation. It's a good thing that in Natal at least the control of pro. soccer is being centralised, instead of the former intention to vest full control in divisional units, which would have resulted in naught but disaster.

I wonder what the relationship of this body will be to S.A.S.F. and whether, among other things, they will be free to "poach" on players from other provinces.

THREE VITAL OLYMPIC TRIALS

"I PROMISE that my association and I will obtain a place for non-White athletes in the South African Olympic team if they prove their worth in our forthcoming trials," Mr. N. Kitson, secretary of the Natal Amateur Athletic and Cycling Union, told a "Leader" reporter this week.

"My association regrets that we did not hold any meetings since the South African Championships but we had many difficulties to contend with, the foremost among they being the lack of a suitable track.

"However we will be staging three meets in November, January and February and with promises of participation in the Olympic Games in 1960 we anticipate athletes to take to the game more seriously.

"Among other things we will be inviting European officials to witness the meetings so that if athletic returns a top performance he will straight away be rewarded with an allocation of repeat performance to satisfy the White."

MAYVILLE BEAT CATO STARS

The main attraction at Mayville last Sunday was the match between Mayville and Cato Stars (seniors) for the P. S. Reddy's Cup.

Mayville, with V. C. Moodley in goal, seemed to have regained their old form but they had to tussle hard against the formidable Cato Stars.

The match was very interesting and full of exuberance as both teams were playing. It was only until extra time had been taken that a decision could be reached.

In the second half of extra time, Mayville netted three goals in quick succession to win. It was the stamina and fitness of Mayville which helped them triumph over the tiring Cato Stars.

The matches promise a scrumptious soccer-feast for the thousands of fans that are expected to witness them.

In recent weeks the Mayville club has beaten such strong teams as Clare Estate and Sutherlands. They have struck good form and it will be interesting to see how they fare against the N. S. League Champions, Manning Rangers on Sunday, in the final for the R. S. K. Singh's Cup.

The match between the two strong teams, Young Collegians and Parades for the P. S. Reddy's Cup will be another interesting affair on the same programme.

SOCCER FEAST AT CURRIE'S FOUNTAIN

by R. S. Govender

THE two matches between Rand Africans and Southern Natal Indians, which were scheduled for September 13 and postponed because of water-logged grounds, will be held at Currie's Fountain on Sunday.

Inspite of the £250 expenses incurred by the visitors the last time, they are determined to come back again at considerable expenses, in order to prove their prowess against the Southern Natal Indians.

Fellow scribe Ronnie Govender disagreed with my view the last time because of a misjudgment, and after reading through my comments again he realised that I did not intend to say that the Johannesburg Africans will out-play the Southern Natal Indians. Even if I did, I do not feel that again. So powerful is the Southern Natal combination, that it has a pretty good chance to retain their prestige.

STRONG SIDE

That does not mean that I am under-estimating the strength of the Rand Africans. They are also coming with a formidable contingent. There are many soccer players who represented Transvaal in the Moroka-Jabavu games. Seven of the players hail from the famous Moroka Swallows F.C., the crack team that has beaten the redoubtable Bucksnorts of Durban in their best days and also the Wanderers F.C., and have captured all the champion trophies of the T.A.F.A.

These teams have been through strenuous training schedules under Jimmy Clark, ex-professional from Glasgow Rangers.

These matches promise a scrumptious soccer-feast for the thousands of fans that are expected to witness them.

Photographed above is Mr. Charles M. Pillay, the president of the Natal Indian Football Association, who is shown presenting the Emanuals Brothers trophy to Ronnie Singh, captain of Southern Natal who caused a soccer sensation by scoring a hollow 6-2 victory against Northern Natal at Pietermaritzburg last Sunday.

Sam China Cup champions get a hiding

Northern Natal, the 1959 Sam China soccer champions, were given a 6-2 beating by Southern Natal in the final of the Emmally Bros' Cup, played before a poor crowd at Fitzsimmons Road, Pietermaritzburg, last Sunday afternoon.

Southern led 2-1 at half-time. Their scorers were S. Lall (2), Nims Moodley (2), Thirpath Naidoo (1) and a penalty by Ronnie Green. Bath Pillay scored both the goals for the home side.

In the junior inter-zonal final, Northern Natal beat Southern 2-0 after extra time in won the Reddiar Cup. The Ramchurran Cup also went to Northern Natal after Maritzburg had beaten Durban 3-0.

Major Triumph for Valjee

Although beaten in the finals of the Natal Table Tennis Championships by Cassim Peer, who in turn was beaten by M. G. H. Moosa, Natal's outstanding young Ashen Valjee went on to score a major triumph for his province by annexing the coveted South African "Champion of Champions" at the national championships at Port Elizabeth last week. Valjee won every one of his matches.

Bus Fare Increase Planned Last June

A SPOKESMAN for the Durban Bus Owners' Association said that the penny increase in fares were made on the north-bound buses in terms of a concession granted by the Transport Management Board in June this year.

He said that fares on nearly every route in Durban were increased by a penny on June 15 but were withdrawn temporarily after the riots. "We decided to call it off then as we feared that this might lead to trouble. But now we are being pressed by the Transport Board to put into effect the increase which we had asked for, so under the law our plea for the penny increase has to be carried out."

The spokesman said that the National Transport Commission which was in Durban recently, investigated the matter and has asked the bus owners to put into effect the increases or they will be liable for prosecution for contravention in terms of the Motor Carrier Certificate Ordinance.

Asked why fares were increased only on the northern routes, the spokesman said that on the other routes the bus owners faced competition from Municipal buses which in some cases carried passengers at fares below theirs.

"For instance, Municipal buses charge Cato Manor passengers only fourpence each way to and from town. If we were to increase our present 4d. fare to 5d., you could easily imagine what the position would be.

"We are awaiting Counsel's opinion in this regard and there is the possibility that there may be increases on the Municipal buses, too," the spokesman added.

Protest to Kabul

The Pakistani Government has sent two protests to Afghanistan on what was described as Afghanistan's "radio propaganda against Pakistan aimed at disaffection among people of this country."

Mr. G. D. Padmasher, the assistant District Commissioner for Natal for the Ambulance Division of the South African Red Cross Society, was awarded the Volunteer Medical Service Medal (The Queen's Medal) for fifteen years of service, at the annual inspection at Durban last Saturday. Mr. Padmasher, the only senior officer among Indians in the Corps, and also a popular medallist in first aid, served with the S.A. Army for more than three years in the Second World War.

"Gate-crashed" a dance

OH, what an unhappy night it was for some residents of the adjoining villages of Ramthorpe and Northdale!

While dozens of non-European couples were dancing in the hall room of a hotel on Saturday night last, "gate-crashers" started a brawl which ended on the street.

The sequel to the affair was the appearance on the Pietermaritzburg Magistrate's Court last Friday of 34 Indians and Coloureds, including one woman. They were charged with public violence and were remanded on £10 bail each until November 3. No evidence was led.

They call her the "Durban Canary," and very well they might, for, last week, she outtwittered nine other finalists in the Himalaya Hotel's talent contest and won the first prize of £40. This is the third time she has won such a contest. The first was in a contest in 1956 and the second was at the Himalaya Hotel last year, when she won a bottle of champagne. An ardent Frank Sinatra and Doris Day fan, Mrs. M. Lazarus had this to say to the other finalists: "Better luck next time."

VITAL QUESTIONS AT CONGRESS THIS WEEK

Naicker "Bombshell" is possible

THE question of Indian housing, Municipal and other franchise to the non-Whites, the Group Areas Act and beach apartheid, University apartheid and the burning problem of mass unemployment among the Indians, wage increases for un-skilled workers and the strengthening of non-White trade unions, are some of the issues that are to be dealt with at length at the 12th Provincial conference of the Natal Indian Congress, to be held in Durban this weekend.

The conference, which opens at 21 Gamble Hall, Long Street, on Friday, October 9 with an address by Mr. Brian Bunting, a former South African Member of Parliament, is also expected to have a lively and serious debate on the Congress organisation itself.

Observers feel that there may be a bombshell dropped at the conference when a handful of individuals clamour for the removal of Dr. G. M. Naicker, the President of the Natal Indian Congress, over since the leadership changed hands with the "old guard" after Kadar Asvat Pather fought their argument being that they should be "more facist" in the field of Congress affairs.

The "Leader" investigation has disproved any theory that there was a need for a change in the N.I.C. leadership. Almost everyone interviewed categorically rejected any suggestion that Dr. Naicker should be ousted, making way for new faces. Dr. Naicker, they contended, had exhibited his sincerity by the many terms of imprisonment he underwent in his fight on the people's behalf.

NO TIME

"This is not long for the question of a new President. If Dr. Naicker is removed, there is always the possibility of things becoming distorted, not that he is indispensable, but that division and chaos among the people themselves may accrue from this which is not healthy for us, especially under the present political context in which we are living," they said.

Many messages of support have come from individuals and organisations from all parts of the world.

A message from Father Trevor Huddleston, who opened an absentee Congress Conference in 1955 and who is now in England, says: "There is no doubt that increasingly world opinion is being made aware of the immense struggle of the non-European peoples of South Africa against the evils of racialism."

Willowfontein cafe-owner killed

THE brutal assault on one of the best-known Indian businessmen in the Willowfontein district of Pietermaritzburg which resulted in his death a few days later at the Edendale Hospital has triggered off one of the biggest man-hunts in the history of the district.

Mr. Sumpath Poonsun (50) was attacked by an African armed with a blunt instrument in his cafe at about 7.30 p.m. last Friday, and he died of his injuries on Monday.

Describing the attack, Mr. R. Dookran, a neighbour of Mr. Poonsun, told the Leader that, at about 7.30 p.m. last Friday, Mr. Poonsun was busy attending to his customers in his cafe when three Africans entered and asked for some sweets. Several other Africans were standing outside on the verandah.

After Mr. Poonsun had turned to get the sweets from a shelf behind the counter, he was struck on the back of his head by a blunt instrument. Bleeding profusely, the wounded man screamed for help as he fell to the ground. Hearing the screams, his wife ran out of the cafe kitchen where she was cooking, into the shop.

Several Indian lads who were being examined in first aid in the nearby Arya Samaj School Hall, Mr Poonsun died from his injuries on Monday at the Edendale Hospital.

He is survived by his wife, three married daughters, six minor children, a brother and a married sister.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon at the Georgetown cemetery, Edendale.

1959 HAS BEEN YEAR OF GREAT SIGNIFICANCE

THE year 1959, according to the Secretarial report submitted at the annual general meeting of the Central Branch of the Natal Indian Congress, held last Sunday, was one of great significance "not only to the people of South Africa but for the whole world."

Teachers' addresses

PROWLERS MOLEST SCHOOL CHILDREN

INDIAN school children in Natal's sugar belt, north of Durban, have to play truant because they run the risk of being molested by prowlers on the cane fields. A number of pupils have been perturbed by the increase in the number of children who have been victims of these prowlers.

At the Kaisersthan Gandhi School on Phoenix, not a week passes without some child being robbed of its money and other personal effects. Most of the children live more than seven miles away from the school and they dread the experience of walking home through the cane fields when school is over.

The Leader understands that a number of parents have withdrawn their children from the school because of the prowlers menace.

Mr. R. Perumal, who is the secretary of the school committee, informed the Leader that he was approached by parents asking that something be done to stop the prowlers menace. The Principal of the school, Mr. P. Pillay, informed the Leader that he was powerless to do anything. Some children have been molested, he said, while on their way to and from school.

SPRINGTIME IN THE UPLANDS

SPRINGTIME in the Uplands has always fascinated me, and you may well remember the excited dispatches of my favourite season in this column some six years ago when I was resident in the Uplands. When I dropped in on the old place last week, it seemed as if it were just as I had left it. My wonderful friends were still very much alive and hospitable.

It was restful and the little green blades of grass and brightly fresh blossoms drenched by the recent rains and the brief downfall gave the rolling countryside from the foothills of the Drakensberg a wonderful splash of colour.

I still enjoyed the morris mornings, and I still found it an exhilarating experience smelling along with the walking task over the misty countryside. It was wonderful to be alive in the Uplands in springtime.

Now you know why I had the option to write a book about it.

No segregation at Anna Russell show

DURBAN, but just White Durban, will have the wonderful and rare opportunity of witnessing one of the world's greatest entertainers when that eccentric songstress, Anna Russell, appears at the City Hall next Tuesday night.

Durban has nearly African Institute of Race Relations, who are sponsoring her Natal tour, Miss Russell's unique brand of entertainment is being made available to all races without any colour restriction whatsoever.

"I have not seen Miss Russell performing, but what I have heard, her records convince me of her greatness. Her versatile handle of electrified energy, like cats' tears collapse to pairs, will set she is advised by the staff enclosed set. Her parodies on opera, popular music and various music have real listeners and audiences throughout the world since her first London

Typical of the digs she gets from herself in this recent role she has recorded "I have been treated by some of the world's greatest musicians and some experts this evening, who are none, today is so terrible."

And yet Anna Russell, critics agree is an artiste unique. Leonard Bernstein, world famous composer, says: "Miss Russell . . . will furnish even the deepest depressed spirit a real fun race relationships."

Prices of tickets are 30s., 25s., 15s. and 10s., reserved, and 7s. 6d. unreserved. Advance bookings can be obtained at the City Hall Booking Office.

Curtis to star as 'Imposter'

[illegible] announced in Hollywood that Tony Curtis will star in "The Imposter," based on the life of Ferdinand Waldo Demara, Jr., who posed as a doctor, a lawyer, a Trappist monk, a prison warden, a Canadian naval officer and a teacher.

The Book Society Coalition will shortly be published in many languages throughout the world. United Artists acquired the motion picture rights to "The Great Imposter" from galley proofs in March of this year, prior to its publication in the United States by Random House.

TWO PAGES OF...

£21,500,000 WORTH OF NEW FILMS FOR NEW YEAR

A PRODUCTION programme for new films for 1960 has been announced by Mr. Spyros P. Skouras, president of Twentieth Century-Fox, and Arthur Israel, head of the Studio, at a cost of £21,500,000. In making this announcement in New York, Mr. Skouras reaffirmed his faith and optimism in the motion picture industry. This is the biggest and costliest schedule ever undertaken by any of the company.

CUTCRY AT INCREASE IN BUS FARES

THERE is a general outcry against the recent increase in fares on municipal buses. As the majority of passengers travelling along these routes are poor factory workers, a united effort is being made by them to fight the increase. The "Leader" reliably understands that the bus passengers' welfare association, which was formed some time ago, is being granted interviews, and is expected to send representatives to the bus owners on this matter.

Several passengers interviewed expressed their indignation over the increase and said that the workers were not justified in this. One worker employed at Mobeni factory said: "Many have to catch the buses to go to work. Instead of increasing the fares, they should reduce it in favour of the owners." They have to spend far too much, and now that they are having to pay a bit more fare, they are losing a great deal of their hard earned money."

SINCE the article "Seaman Chetty Drops a Bombshell" appeared in the "Leader" last week, the boxing promoter has been besieged with personal and phone calls.

Most of these were from people urging him to carry on with his intention of starting new soccer, but a few callers seemed to have gained the wrong impression that Seaman has quit because he (coach) manager going no further.

This is not the truth. In fact, Seaman was set to start negotiations but when the official soccer authorities took a retrograde step forward by setting up a Natal Football League for the purpose, he saw need to crowd in their way.

The main question was to see that footballers were paid for their troubles and he thought that the Football League would be sufficiently organised to do

Family Planning Scheme Offered to Indians

IN Durban alone there are over 29,000 Indians unemployed at the moment. With two many months. So feed, even the meagre sum raised as way of a weekly dole from the Unemployment Insurance Fund is not enough to feed adequately the large number of children of the unemployed, let alone clothing and educating them.

The correct number of children an Indian worker has, on a rough estimate, is six. It could be more and, except in a few cases, not less.

Social workers, who have to concern into child problems among the Indian community have attributed the presence of the large number of ragged, dejected children, and grossly toddlers, who roam their "up Grove" by polishing cars of citizens, earnest their bread, petty pilfering and stealing to the lack of knowledge by the parents in the scientific limitation of family and planned parenthood.

Although they maintain that unemployment is not the result of having too many children, all the same unemployment would not present a more serious problem if families had limited their children. The dole could go a longer way in giving what available best to the children.

In order to educate and help families the Planned Parenthood Association of Natal, which is affiliated to the South African Council for Maternal and Family Welfare, which in turn is affiliated to the International Planned Parenthood in London, is offering facilities for the Indian community.

The services offered by the Association, with a number of leading Durban doctors in attendance, and those desirous of taking advantage of this can visit the clinic at Boston Hall, 77 Albert Street, Durban, the Dr. K. Khan Hospitals, Lupin Road, Sparrebelt, and the Hippo Valley Clinic, Mayo South College, next to the Old Reformers.

[illegible] women into yet another avenue of employment of our males, the state of affairs, it is reliable understood, has evoked considerable concern among wives and other women of the men concerned.

[illegible] Indians "The Leader" of Mrs. N. M. Govender, Secretary of the Western Area Indian Ratepayers Association which incorporates Clare Estate-Overport, Pomona's Hill, Mount View Hills, Springfield and Newlands, with a total of over 30,000 people, said that this unemployment in the development and progress of the Indian community as we see it, is regarded as a very serious one.

"The male members in homes for Indians is well known to the Durban City Council, and though we read in many reports about ameliorating the present situation, we do not find the City Council co-operative or helpful to solve the problem for all-round Indians to build decent homes for themselves in the Indian area.

He said that Mr. Venkatrathnam had requested all ratepayers to lodge their complaints to it, and with the information received by the ratepayers would take up the matter with the City Council.

She added further that in our councils know of cases in which a few married women refused them jobs, just to get rids. These cases of affairs must be, remove the [illegible] from to the shops, she said.

Building land Not Suitable, Owners Told

INDIAN property owners in Clare Estate have reported that they were being refused building plans on the grounds that the soil there was not suitable for the erection of houses, as there was no proper drainage and sewage system.

Informing "The Leader" of this, Mr. N. M. Govender, Secretary of the Western Area Indian Ratepayers Association which incorporates Clare Estate-Overport, Pomona's Hill, Mount View Hills, Springfield and Newlands, with a total of over 30,000 people, said that this was a setback in the development and progress of the Indian community as we see it, it regarded as a very serious one.

S.A. People Will Find Their Own Solution, Says N.I.C. President

DR. G. M. NAICKER, President of the Natal Indian Congress, told the annual conference of the Congress in Durban last week that he was of the "firm belief" that the South African people had the ability to find a solution themselves to the problems that faced them in their country.

He said: "In the common fields and arenas of human endeavour the Union regrets and condemns the policies of the Government and their implementation.

He said that within the Union's borders, "we witness the spectacle of a country which is at war with itself. Within the Union's borders, we witness the spectacle of a country which is at war with itself. Within the Union's borders, we witness the spectacle of a country which is at war with itself.

HERBERT LOM (THE VILLIAN) DIES AGAIN

HERBERT LOM, who plays a number of Superman on the Rank Organisation's fourth coming adventure drama "Northwest Frontier" dies again. Lom may have died more frequently than Herbert Lom.

"I am quite used to it now," he says with sober humour. "I have been dying for years. In 'The King and I' which ran for 600 performances, I died nightly and matinees on Saturdays. 'Dying's easy, it's staying alive that's difficult."

His brilliant performance in "North-West Frontier" ends as he falls off the roof of a train after a fight with Kenneth More.

It is Herbert Lom who provides so much of the excitement on the train as it crosses across India. For he reveals himself as a fanatical Moslem bent on the destruction of the young Indian Police officer Kenneth More and Lauren Bacall are trying to take to safety.

CITY ROBBERS TOOK WRONG ENVELOPE

AN envelope containing a "Leader" credential and photographs of some of his close relatives, saved the life of Mr. V. S. Pillay of Stanger, when he was waylaid and robbed by three Africans, armed with long knives, last Friday evening, while he was walking through the old testing grounds towards Warwick Avenue in the centre of town.

NO LUCK

With their help doing so, Mr. Pillay kicked one African in the groin. "I was dumbfounded," said Mr. Pillay, "and I did not know what to do. There was no one on the road, and as the place was dark and as the place was dark, with tall bushes flanking on either side, I feared that something might happen to me." The two suspects took out the contents of Mr. Pillay's pockets and took off the ten odd shillings I had, thinking that this might satisfy them.

A mixed idea introduced at the Ray Cinema was the advertising "tie-up" by an air force with the film "Captain Horatio Hornblower" which was screened three last week. Mr. Norman Cook, the manager of the Ray, told the "Leader" that in future the Ray will have mixed attractions in the foyer which would be pleasing and informative. The picture shows some of the interested patrons viewing the set-up.

Fine performance by Widmark

CONVINCING one of the most outstanding casts ever assembled for a Western action production with incomparable outdoor backgrounds filmed in CinemaScope and De Luxe colour, Twentieth-Century-Fox's monumental "War-lock" will have its representation soon at the Avalon.

JOEL, KING OF CATTLE EMPIRE

JOEL McCREA, who stars as John Cord, Texas's greatest trail boss, in 20th Century-Fox's CinemaScope production of "Cattle Empire," which is due to open at the Avalon shortly, could easily qualify for an actual trail-driving job.

As the owner of a 27,000-acre ranch which he has built up over the years piece by piece, Joel spends almost as much time in the saddle as does a working cowhand. His ranch building ups back to the early film days when he was still an extra and Will Rogers advised him to save his money and buy some property.

After becoming a star, it was easier for Joel but he never got over the habit of working his own spread personally.

In "Cattle Empire," he plays the role of a tough trail boss who commits the unforgivable crime of the West, he's let cows shoot up a town at the end of a cattle drive. The story has, in many ways, all the exciting elements that went to make "Red River" a great Western motion picture.

The film shows in detail the life of the cowmen, which he knows so well. As a young lawyer's son, Joel worked on many Westerns and then got his big break when he played opposite Constance Bennett in "Sin Town."

He is the father of three sons both who has already appeared in films. David and Peter. "Cattle Empire" marks the fourth film for Joel.

Actors cursed weather and John Ford

THE only way to lick bad weather on location is to join it. This is the credo of John Ford, director of the multi-million dollar production, "The Horse Soldiers," a United Artists release, coming to this country soon. In dirty weather that causes most other film directors to tear the pip out of their hotel and utter resentful noises about budgets, Ford acquires added zest.

The ground was muddy. The cold and rain were miserable and the horses were unhappy. With this artistically speaking ideal climate sparring him, Ford drives his actors through a sticky morning's work.

It was raining, a hard cold driving rain. The wind was [illegible]

Sarkhot Lands A Promoter's Dream

PROMOTER Rajah Sarkhot, brains behind the successful City Promotions, has landed the catch of the year: the battle for the Bantamweight Championship of South Africa between Leonard "Sailor" Maseka and the Rand's Eric Nicolai. And that is no mean achievement, considering the fierce opposition he had to contend with from almost every promoter of note in the country.

The picture above shows the enviable Aces Football Club, who were chosen as the "Team of the Year" by the Durban Indian Football Association at its council meeting on Tuesday last. From (standing): Daddy Naidoo (treasurer), Sonny Moonsamy (captain), Ronnie Naidoo (vice-captain), Ronnie Govender (coach), Sandy Pillay (manager). Front row: Nicky Moodley (Club President), Sonny Naidoo, R. Manik, Sonny Moodley (The Player of the Year) and Thomas Singh.

Aces Earned Title Team of The Year

By R. S. GOVENDER

BY any stretch of imagination the well-acclaimed Aces Football Club has really created soccer sensation not only in the province but throughout the country. And the decision of the Durban Indian Football Association to choose them as the "Team of the Year" is a commendable one.

RONNIE GOVENDER SAYS

RACE MYTH IS EXPLODED BY FOOTBALLERS

I AM going to run the risk of treading on thin ice and discuss racial differences in sporting prowess. With the major sports now universalised—a quaint legend has developed—that different races are particularly adept at certain types of sport.

[illegible] all smiles and confidence, until the African boy entered the ring with his opponent. Apparently unperturbed by the weird atmosphere, the boy in the peculiar deep-throated chant of African sports fans, a distinct change came over the Indian lad.

[illegible]

Before the 20 years, the African was a little known force and most European sport was practically dominated by Indians. The Indians ruled the roost on at least three sports—soccer, hockey and cricket. But after the 20 years, African sportsmen entered most fields where they were hardly out of shouts as they were hardly out of shouts as they were hardly out of shouts as

Councillor Milne's Election as Mayor is welcomed

THE election of Councillor Cyril A. Milne last week was welcomed by the Natal Indian Organisation, whose President, Mr. P. R. Pather, told the "Leader" that this was a sign of the resurgence of a spirit of liberalism in the Durban City Council.

In an interview Mr. Pather said that the statement made by Councillor Milne immediately after his election indicated that he would see that no settled communities were uprooted under the Group Areas Act.

"As a Councillor he has always been sympathetic with the aspirations of the Indian people at Durban, and now as the chief citizen of our city, the Indian people would expect greater appreciation of their needs.

"The Group Areas proposals as they affect the Indian people," said Mr. Pather, "have been swinging like a pendulum and the time has arrived for the Councillors to take a determined stand against those sands in our community being scrambled."

INDUSTRY

Mr. Pather said that the major part of the Durban City Council's revenue was derived from industry and commerce and the Indian people had made a great contribution in the same sphere. He said he was therefore confident that the Council would be the instrument in ensuring the needs of our people.

PROGRESS

"A considerable progress has been made recently in the revision of the Group Areas plans, and it is hoped that the promises that have been made to the Indian community would be kept.

"Even when there are very good promises are made only to be broken. A witness to the promise made by the Council in 1947 to provide one acre open space for the Indians."

Boys' Home urgently needs £5,000

MRS. GIGIBAI BEVERY, the founder and organiser of the Durga Ashram (Home for Boys) at Riverside, is making an earnest appeal to the public to contribute about £5,000 immediately in order to make it possible for the Home to carry out alterations, additions and renovations to its building.

Appealing for this, Mrs. Bevery said that the Home required about £50 monthly for maintenance and the upkeep of the inmates. She said that she received a sum of £153 7s. 6d. from various donors in Natal and the Transvaal towards the maintenance of the Home.

"I am immensely grateful to the donors, and as the entire responsibility of running and maintaining the Home is in my hands, I feel that this is a most wonderful gesture on the part of the donors."

Mrs. Bevery said that the generous donations in kind and cash were gratefully received from several Indian businessmen and other citizens.

Warning to Bus Owners

A STERN warning to individual bus owners that if they did not comply with the wage agreement governing the conditions of their employment, was reported to the Department of Labour for prosecution was issued by Mr. P. M. Harrison, secretary of the Natal Passenger Transport Union, last week.

It followed a complaint by a group of several bus workers, all urged by Major G. N. Taylor of the South African Police that many of them were compelled to work 56 to 72 hours a day for wages which fell short of the law. The result was that some left early at the evening wheel, thus causing accidents.

In a letter to individual bus owners, Mr. Harrison said: "These allegations are interesting and disturbing and if you are satisfied that they are well founded, I suggest that owners are explaining the situation and are asking their employees to work only the hours laid down in the Wages Agreement could bring me face to face with a prosecution."

Stating that his Union was ready to meet any employer with any problems, Mr. Harrison said: "I am confident that the majority of employers will accept this in the proper spirit and be in a position to give effect to the agreement."

"UNFAIR COMPETITION" IS RUINING INDIAN BUS OPERATORS

IN a letter to the Minister of Transport, the Durban Bus Owners' Association, accused the Durban Municipal Transport system of "unfair competition" which is operating runs in hundreds of bus operator on routes served by the Municipality also.

as a result of an appeal in "The Leader" the candidates who came first in the Home Nursing and First Aid examinations, Junior Indian Nursing Division of the South African Red Cross Society, received cups and prizes.

The above picture shows some of the prize-winners with the examiner, Mrs. C. Southern, the Regional Commandant. They are, from left to right, Mrs. Hemapal Naidoo (Junior Nursing Superintendent), Mrs. Naidoo, Mrs. Maranthe Naidoo and Miss J. Chetty at the Red Cross.

Prizes were presented by Mrs. Southern and they were from left to right: Saraswathie Pather (Cup, St. Pat's—Sub Cups), Manger Moonsamy (Sr. Legard Cup), Leona Moodley (Jr. Cup), Thelma Moodley (Jr. Sub Cup), Marilyn Pillay (Division Sub Cup), Dharam Somanah (Hibberd Nadon Cup), Gunalan Kesten (A. Naidoo Memorial Cup) and Gopamah Kesten (J. T. Chandoo Cup).

In addition Saraswathie Pather won the Nur Sara Valliee Memorial Trophy for the highest marks in First Aid, and Dharam Somanah was given the K. D. Naidoo Cup for obtaining highest marks in Home Nursing.

The presentations took place at the Red Cross Hall, Old East Road, Durban.

Indians neglecting Springfield College, says Principal

MR. A. LEVINE, Principal of the Springfield Training College criticised the Indian community for not taking a sufficient interest in the College, and Mr. P. M. Pather, President of the Durban Indian Child Welfare Society and of the Natal Indian Organisation, appealed to Indian teachers not to leave the country to take up appointments overseas, last week.

Around the Capital

WITH C. G. MOODLEY

A FRIENDLY, hospitable people, bent on "doing unto others as they would be done by," was the impression I gained of the European community of the Lion's River district after attending the foundation stone-laying ceremony at Lidgetton on Saturday afternoon. And on Sunday, the Riddy family of Berzville, gave us oby-dooberry a pleasant insight of country hospitality.

UGH! WHAT A MEAL

WHEN Nikita Yoke was on Hong Kong she was given water to eat. And now, the Yoke Lad, who is at Pinewood Studios making special pictures with Joe "The Savage Jones" says raw veal meat is on the menu.

Yoke is an Eskimo in the film, and Eskimos eat everything raw on or nearly. Raw seal, whale, raw bear, Iceland fish, raw reindeer, and another delicacy never heard of — a cold birth-bath of caribou ears, plasmagan dung, ash cheese, and fermented bear brain. Ugh!

Yoke is not looking forward to tomorrow's meal with enthusiasm.

Delicious? Yoke Lee thinks not. So next week in "The Savage Innocents" he has to eat raw veal meat with bear oil sauce. Ugh!

If both several telecasts and several takes to capture the shot just as director Nicholas Ray wanted it. And each time Yoke and Anthony had to chew and swallow a piece of real uncooked veal, meat.

By the time the shot was "in the can" Yoke Lee was not feeling so well. Not for that matter was Anthony Quinn.

Anthony said: "The meat was not bad, but it was a lot too MUCH good food."

Man's mind in body of monster

THE fear that the human mind, divorced from the voice of conscience, would free all the evil in man's nature is the premise of the new Paramount science fantasy thriller, "The Colossus of New York" to be screened at the Stuh Jehan from Thursday.

Starred are Ross Hunter as a man's mind in the body of a monster; are Mala Powers, Robert Hutton and Charles Herbert. Hutton, a brain surgeon, grieves when his wife is killed in a car crash, leaving unmarried work with an experiment in the world. Wanting to keep a large part of another man, a composer of great talent, the brain of the dead scientist, so that it may continue to live, belongs to the head of an unscrupulous man who signed for man's bodies control.

But of such busy brains the subconscious of the human is not. Becomes a Frankenstein monster, a creature of the night, full of destruction, which should have been the most hardened science brains can offer at the edge of their wits.

Church hits out at baasskap

LONDON Tuesday. — Dr. H. H. W. Sangster, Moderator of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, says in an article in the "Glasgow Herald" today that the policy of the Church in Africa must be that of a reconciling force. "Some partnership between different peoples must be the ideal for which we work. Cruelty like that of South Africa, where a man, because he is coloured and therefore, in White opinion, has been unclean, must remain anathema to us."

SHOCK FOR HUSBAND

Young bride had daughter of 3

AFTER being married for only six months, a 20-year-old husband discovered that his pretty 21-year-old wife was already a mother of a three-year-old girl, living with one of her relatives away from town.

So shocked and stunned was he that he left the court after the case was adjourned for a week.

He told the Court that he met his wife at a dance and after a short courtship married her. He said that he was not aware that she had a child and that she had told him that she was single.

"After the preliminaries were over I found that she and I were a lot. She was pretty and young and above all seemed to be a willing partner to my amorous advances. In no time I fell headlong in love with her and she in turn gave me the impression that I was the best man in her life and seemed to love me endlessly too."

UNDATED

The husband said that he came to know of his wife already having a child when one day there was a quarrel between her and one of her relatives, a woman. "Both used strong words and the relative then asked me if I was aware that my wife had already a child by another man. Then she went on to relate the whole story.

War crimes: six new arrests

DURBAN Tuesday. — The Deputy Chief Public Prosecutor said today that investigations into Crimes committed in Auschwitz Concentration Camp during the Second World War had resulted in the arrest of six persons.

He said these were "only a small proportion of the number who were involved in the crimes committed at Auschwitz. Evidence was being collected against others."

He said charges were likely to be preferred against seven persons in connection with the six arrests.

Moon pictures ready soon, say Reds

LONDON Tuesday. — In an article in the Soviet Army newspaper Red Star today, Major-General P. Shabanov says that Russian scientists will soon be ready to photograph the moon.

He says that the Russian moon rocket will be launched when the results of the latest rocket and satellite launchings are carefully analysed.

Major-General Shabanov says the launching of the moon rocket will be the result of the work of many scientists and engineers.

CENTRAL GAIN REVENGE

By a "Leader" Reporter

In the opening game of County on Sunday, Central avenged last season's defeat by taking first innings points against New View School Old Boys, the reigning champions. New View School Old Boys fielded a depleted team as four of their regular players have transferred to other clubs.

Badges for Sports Writers

At its annual general meeting the Natal Sports Writers Club decided to award badges to members worthy of it. A special committee has been appointed to make the award.

It was also decided to choose a "sportsman of the year" annually. The members are still to decide on the points to be awarded.

The following were elected to office: Chairman, Obed Kunene (Bantu Choice); vice-chairman, Rajendra Dicks (Graphic); secretary-treasurer, K. R. Govender (Graphic); committee, Bonnie Govender (Bantu Boys), R. S. Govender (Natal Mercury), George Macalister (Golden City Post), Meegan Sodon (Newspapers Ramesh (Bantu Choice), K. D. Govender (Golden City Post), and C. G. Moodley (readers).

WHY SOCCER IN DURBAN SHOWED IMPROVEMENT

THERE is no gainsaying the fact that Indian soccer particularly in Durban made phenomenal strides during the past season. What is the secret of the decided improvement? Are we content to sit back complacently and rejoice that our soccer has reached its highest pedestal? Is there room for improvement? These are the questions that need progressive and satisfactory answers.

RONNIE GOVENDER SAYS

"I HOPE TO BREAK BOXING COLD WAR"

IF things go according to plan the "cold war" in South African Amateur boxing should come to an end as a result of a "summit conference" which was arranged by yours truly in Durban last week. Attending the conference were Mr. Ronnie Govender, Vice-chairman of the Western Province Non-European A.B.A. and delegate of the South African Non-European Amateur Boxing Association, and Mr. M. R. Cricketers back out

HANG your flags at half mast and drop your heads in shame—the cricketers have sold us out again. Just when it looked as if they were going to put on their hat in the onward march of non-White sport so they have sauntered, trotted, strolled, and ran as away as the new winds we are fighting for—the abolition of apartheid in sport.

I had always had very much faith in the Natal cricket union when I took it for granted that they would accept the resolution put forward by secretary T. A. Davis and chairman A. K. Sherran, to drop their racial ban.

The resolution was directed by the South African body.

It is hard to believe that the non-racial cricketers of South Africa, of which Natal is supposed to be one of the most progressive sporting bodies in the Union.

Railway is urged to employ more Indian labour

A TWO-DAY congress held at the South African Railway Staff Association, which has a membership of over 500, made an appeal to the Railway Administration to throw open the doors for more Indian labour in its various departments, particularly in its clerical division, where there was room for qualified personnel.

Other matters discussed by the congress were the Indian housing problem, the absorption of more Indians into the Railway Police division, extension of leave facilities and Medical Aid Pension.

The congress was opened by Mr. S. B. Hopkins, Superintendent, Staff, Natal, for the Secretary for Railways, Mr. C. R. Swart, of Hatch, Durban.

Mr. A. [illegible], the Staff Association's president, in his address to the congress, said: "Our members, like most railwaymen the world over, are the victims of a system of [illegible] grossly underpaid. We are determined in order to overcome [illegible]," he said.

He said that once "the sun will shine." Mr. Hopkins said that membership of the Association had improved a little. About 70 per cent. of the Indian staff were members of the association, and he appealed to the remaining [illegible] to join.

In his report Mr. Sigamoney, the president, said that the Railway Administration should not be giving preference to Indians, because of the clauses guaranteeing employment contained in the Act. He said that for the last year or so, the Administration had decreased the number of Indians employed on the railways. [illegible] Sikh bridegroom parted the pink nylon veil over the bride's face after their wedding at Newcastle and gasped, surprised: "She's beautiful. Actually I fell in love with her months ago, but never dreamed till this moment that she was to be my bride." According to strict Sikh custom no couple never see each other until after the wedding, which is always arranged by their families. But he never realised Gurmail Singh Ghuru, [illegible] of the East Punjab, and Surinder Kaur Ahrol, 19, of Newcastle, met face to face in a London hotel after the marriage had been arranged two years ago. Said Surinder's father: "I was less for war, but could not refuse my daughter." The pair were married in Sikh temple and [illegible] veiled bride.

PROFESSOR KUPER PRAISES INDIAN ACHIEVEMENTS

A SUGGESTION that there should be a community organisation incorporating commerce, industry and workers in the trade unions directed towards some particular aspect of a social welfare plan of communism, was made by Professor Leo Kuper, Head of the Department of Sociology, University of Natal, at the 25th anni...ary celebrations of the Muslim Home for Orphans and Destitute last Saturday.

"It is the duty of man to marry"

...According to the precepts of the Muslim religion, it was the duty of man to marry. At present, however, there was a tendency in the young people to ignore this duty. Many young men were frustrated in their attempts to marry because of the high cost of living. Some had the attitude of bachelorhood. These remarks were made by Mr. Hanif Mohammed, C.C. of Port Elizabeth, in Durban...

"Marriage should be encouraged. Parents should not oppose the wishes of their children to marry. It is the duty of two persons to establish a knowledge of one another. It is a union of two persons in accordance with the laws of God and the Prophet. Under the Islamic Family Laws, a father and son will not have to pay maintenance to their married daughters. Under the Islamic Family Laws, a husband is entitled to a dowry from his wife

Wealth worries poor man

Around the Capital

WITH C. G. MOODLEY

TODAY is Deepavali Day. And tomorrow, too. Days on the Festival of Lights. Hindus the world over will light their little clay lamps and pray to the Omniscient One. And, having prayed, will go to work to experiment and invent.

THE LAMP OF GOD

Lamps that gleam in the city. Lamps that flare on the wall. Lamps that shine on the ways of men, kindled by men are all. But the desert of burnt out ashes. Which only the lost have trod. Dark and barren and flowerless, is lit by the hand of God. Only the wanderers know it. The lost walk those that mourn. That Lamp in the desert darkens. And the pit that comes on the dawn.

Then the lost may come into safety. And the mourners may cease to doubt.

THE LAMP OF GOD WILL BE SHINING STILL WHEN THE LAMPS OF MEN GO OUT.

NOW ITS DARTS FOR THE BIG TIME

—SAYS RONNIE GOVENDER

MAN, this really is an era of dramatic progress in world-wide sport. Not only is the standard of our sport soaring to great heights but commendable work is being done in the organising of our sport on a national scale. And the success of these organisations is due mostly to the dedication and ingenuity of a few extreme individuals who put service before self.

30 teams in five-a-side soccer

By a Leader Reporter

THIRTY teams participated in the annual five-a-side soccer tournament held under the aegis of the Stamfield United Sporting and Social Club at Springfield grounds last Sunday.

Oldfloss, who played hello ruffs, reached the semi-final but were knocked out by Nelson's five. The winners were Grevenhurst, who were awarded the A. P. Leckie's Hearing Shield. They were also awarded the D. L. Chetham Outright Cup. Nelson's five were presented with the M.C. were presented with runners-up, outright.

MR. PATHER CONDEMNS CHINESE INVADERS

One of the first items on Bhamba Nellan's list—to the country—said Mr. P. R. Pather when he saw Pirmilla Naidoo performing this difficult traditional dance at the Natal Tamil Vedic Hall on Saturday afternoon. In this characteristic pose Miss Naidoo clearly exhibits poise and skill, which stem more from natural ability than intensive training, for she had only a few weeks to learn some of the intricate movements and expressions of the dance. Miss Naidoo, a pupil at the Durban Indian Girls' High School, said that she would love to go to India and study under the great masters there.

TAKEN TO TASK

"Some weeks back I was taken to task by a correspondent for having the temerity to attack the Communists. I have seen no proofs against the Communists from 1949 and I have studied their respective methods. No witness Chinese attack on India."

DAGGA-SMOKING TARZAN DIES

. . . and the gang mourns

A SAD group of young men in Mayfair are a gang of Indian Ganja addicts, who lost their chief friend and a fellow addict in such an untimely death. Their friend was not a human being, but a pet monkey named Tarzan. An Indian constable told the court he "Tarzan."

WHITE YOGI TELLS OF INDIA TRIP

SWAMI ATHMANANDA, the White Yogi who returned to South Africa after being initiated into the Holy Order of Sannyasi by Swami Sivananda, Head of the Divine Life movement, at Sivanda Kutir, India, gave a brilliant exposition of the philosophy of Vedanta and recounted many happy memories of his stay in India, when he addressed a large gathering of Europeans and Indians at the Natal Tamil Vedic Hall, Durban, last Saturday.
