TRAGIC PLIGHT

The mother does not work

because she is occupied with the child. Her aging mother receives an old-age pension and the monthly proceeds are donated by the Maxton Home for Orphans and Destitute.

Many persons would be willing to marry the mother, but the child is adopted to an institution.

There are so many rich individuals in the community who are well known for their public work and many a time they have responded to a call that came from the community's gratitude.

Why not now?

It does not require a very big amount to send the child overseas.

Surely, the community and the State would not like to see young men being wasted. Human compassion, faith in our country, and the gratitude of a mother would be worth far more than any other thing.

The management of both the

Shah Jehan and the Avon

yesterday denied allegations made by the African National Congress

Women's League that there was discrimination against African patrons at these cinemas.

Mr. P. M. A. Osman, General

Manager of the Avon, said: "It is our policy to provide the first in motion picture entertainment for all non-European, and the seating arrangement in the theatre is absolutely unrestricted."

Any person can demand any particular seat.

Mr. Osman added that if a seat was available, a patron irrespective of whether he was an African,

Coloured or Indian merely has to ask for it.

In a reference to a request from the Women's League not to show

any films which have been restricted

under the Cinemas Act, Mr. Osman

said: "Cinemas, like other commercial enterprises, can only exist by a complex network of interdependence, such as entering into contracts with exhibitors. As a result, it will be appreciated that refusing to screen certain motion-picture products is not quite so simple as it may appear. Indeed, such action would very likely constitute a breach of contract on our part."

SECESSION

Mr. Osman referred to the recent total ban on Africans entering Indian-owned cinemas under the Group Areas Act, and pointed out that at that time his organization

entered into protracted negotiations with the authorities to have the ban removed and succeeded in its endeavour.

Mr. A. M. Raiah, Managing

Director of the Shah Jehan, in a statement to "The Leader" said that there was no segregation against the numerous African patrons at his cinema. "Africans were not treated any differently from other patrons,"

he said.

Mr. Raiah said African patrons could occupy any seat whether it was in the front or back, and provided they were clearly dressed and followed the price of admission. This, he added, applied to Indian and Coloured patrons as well. "Even the complete agreement is available to African patrons," he said, "and they have been taken many times without any restriction whatsoever."

Most Africans, he said, usually occupied the lower priced seats.

This was due, of course, to the fact that they belonged to the lower income group. This applied also to the Coloured who came from the same group.

As to the suggestion by the Women's League that Africans were discriminated against in the Shah

Jehan Cinema, Mr. Raiah said: "Representatives of the community should be allowed to have the restrictions removed because this is a matter for the community to decide. Every possible assistance would be given by the Shah Jehan Cinema in any such representative body."

MISSING PROPS

The only thing missing from the set of equipment, shipped to South Africa for the filming of Legend of the East, was playing of the Regent Cinema in Pat-ernburg was a "Please don't disturb the set" sign.

Since most of the picture is set in the untrammelled wastes of the Sahara Desert, it had to look untrammelled. Hence, great pains were taken to see that there were no

footprints, jeep prints or dolly

tracks.

ALL-OUT WAR AGAINST ANTI-SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

The most crying need of the hour, when President Mohammad Ayub Khan took over the Government of Pakistan was the weeding out of corruption, checking of smuggling, hoarding, black-marketing, etc. These anti-social activities had taken into the veins of the new state. Smuggling had provided a special problem. All the efforts of the Government to provide consumer goods to the people were proving fruitless as the smugglers whisked away everything across the border. Some parts of the country were literally bottomless pits where anything put to help the people was drained out of India. The New Regime determined to check it and advised the following steps:

1. The activities of the SFE have been intensified and this has resulted in better detection and more effective pursuit of such officials.
2. Sanction for prosecution of officials are being issued promptly and without regard to their status.
3. Material furnished by the SFE is being used for screening out corrupt officials.
4. Institutions have been closed to the Privileges and the Kutch Administration to the effect that corrupt officials should be established for reporting cases of hoarding, black-marketing, etc. By the members of the public, that the public should themselves report such cases to the Enforcement Staff.

Surely the Council's recommendations for the Planning Committee does not bear any relation to these oft repeated statements."

"We hope that the Durban City Council will not sink its responsibility and place this vital matter on the shoulders of the Group Areas Board. The onus lies in the hands of the Durban City Council to do away with such grossly unjust measures which will divide the City's population."

winner had he done so, than another youth, purporting to be a supporter of the other girl, stepped in and gave the first youth a terrific uppercut to his jaw.

The two youths then fought among themselves, and in the ensuing din of battle, the girl with the penknife came forward and at the people gathered around, plunged it into the shoulder of her boy's opponent, before she could strike again. Mr. Naidoo caught hold of her wrist and took the knife away.

Mr. Naidoo said that when the fight ended, one of the girls had badly cut her hand, and the other was being treated for a laceration on her forehead. She was taken to the hospital, and the girl who had been the first to strike, was also taken to the hospital.

IN MEMORIAM

BOBBY MOODLEY. In loving memory of my dear husband and our dear Dad, who was called to rest on August 22, 1958. Gone is the face we loved so dear. Silent the voice we loved to hear. With tears we watched you sink. Alas! watched you fade away. Although we loved you dearly, We could not make you stay. We sat beside your bedside, As the lonely hours passed away. And, oh! our hearts were broken, To part with one we loved so dear. Deen in our hearts a memory is kept. Oh! one we loved and will never forget.

HUGE CROWD AT PRAYER MEETING

OVER 1,500 people filled the Gaudi Hall, Durban, last week, when the South African Federation of Women held a prayer meeting, which was opened by Rev. L. J. M. ASSOCIATION IS OUT TO AID FARMERS

An interesting lecture was given by Dr. A. J. Penz, Soil Conservation Officer of the Department of Agriculture at the Clifdale Government-Indian School, last Sunday.

The doctor outlined the aims and objects of the Soil Conservation Act and discussed the various aspects of remedial measures that could be taken co-operatively, and area that he would do his utmost in helping and guiding them in the following directions: Contouring, problems of disease factors affecting crops, introduction of the right crops and trees.

He pointed out that farmers must take advantage of the facilities provided for them by the authorities who were just as interested in the welfare of the agricultural lands as were the farmers.

Intervened property owners who had been requested to contact the Agricultural Association for particulars in connection with types of trees to be planted on their lands and to make arrangements for them to have their lands continued free of any charges whatsoever.

Mr. Pather attacks Centenary boycotters

In a scathing attack on the boycotters of the Indian centenary observations to be held next year, Mr. P. R. Pather, Chairman of the Natal Indian Centenary Committee, has asked those who advocate such a stand not to celebrate their birthdays, not to be a party to any wedding celebrations, to give up their cars, businesses and other luxuries, "so that they can sit on their haunches and meditate on their hundred years of oppression."

Mr. Pather attacks Centenary boycotters

Mr. Pather was speaking at the opening of a bazaar organised by the Greenwood Park Centenary Committee in its object.

He was satisfied that the entire Indian community was behind the Committee in its object.

"Such arguments are fallacious and I am convinced that better every item put up for sale will not only rally round the Committee, but before the bazaar was opened, the organizers collected nearly £320 from well-wishers, and the committee proposed to use this money to erect a monument to commemorate the centenary."

Mr. Pather said that the function was probably the first tangible evidence of the Indian people's desire to erect some monument to commemorate the arrival of the first batch of Indians from India.

He was satisfied that the entire Indian community was behind the Committee in its object.

"Such arguments are fallacious and I am convinced that better every item put up for sale will not only rally round the Committee, but before the bazaar was opened, the organizers collected nearly £320 from well-wishers, and the committee proposed to use this money to erect a monument to commemorate the centenary."

Nair, Principal of the College, expressed the hope that industry might see its way clear to grant the same encouragement to the boiler attendants as bachelors and the engineering industry in approving diplomas at the end of the month, will be visiting, at his own expense, the International Exhibition of Smog Abating Equipment. He regretted that its way clear to send a technical expert with him, whereas thousands of pounds were being spent by other sections of the Council.

Krishna Menon is Nehru's most loyal disciple

By ROMEO FERNANDES

IT was on a gloomy morning of November last that I happened to meet Krishna Menon, India's Defence Minister, Mr. V. K. Krishna Menon. He was withdrawn and lonely, sitting rather awkwardly with his hands clasped, white khadi. Mr. Krishna Menon did not impress me as one who had undergone so much hazardous adventure.

But in his burning eyes there was a shade of sadness. They had a restlessness about them, the soft, quiet gaze of a man who has seen too much of the sunny side of the world, of what man has made of man. A brilliant burster and a febrile legislator.

Krishna Menon was not only supported Nehru and to this day, Prime Minister of India. He was a loyal disciple. A deep thinker, a deep thinker, he was the only one in the Indian government who was not a member of the Congress party. He was a member of the Indian National Congress, but he was not a member of the Congress party.

Crippled girl is put on "work list"

Crippled with TB of her hips and bedridden for nearly eight years, 25-year-old Miss Jasodha Naidoo, of 10 Clare Road, Durban, has received a letter from the Department of Labour in reply to her application for a disability grant, stating that her case will be referred to the Department of Labour for suitable employment.

But, according to the girl's father, Jasodha cannot possibly be made to work as she cannot walk. The grant to her limbs, he said, are at times unbearable. "I don't understand the attitude of the Department of Labour in asking her to work. I am a poor man and a relief from the Department would assist me greatly in looking after her. At the moment, I am facing a heavy financial burden," Mr. Naidoo said.

Jasodha is the eldest of his 12 children. Mr. Naidoo said that his daughter was a normal child at the age of about 12 years. She was in standard IV at that time and she complained about pain in her hips. Day by day she was with difficulty that her legs were spreading apart. We consulted several doctors, but they could not help. We were told by them that Jasodha had TB of her hips.

HERPES ZOSTER. The desperate father then decided to send his daughter to the hospital, but having stayed there for over two and a half years, Jasodha's condition is gradually deteriorating. It is only when the West is able to accept the fact that the death of Russia's Volynsky in the recent crisis Menon is the present Cardinal Vishnu.

VICIOUS GOSSIP!

Remember the story of the girl who was reported to have been found drowned in a cafe cubicle recently? Well, there is an unhappy sequel to it for several people have attributed this disgraceful behaviour to a certain Durban girl.

The girl, whose name is being withheld for obvious reasons, has been the object of jeers and sneers by some people who have spread the story that she is the person referred to in the report. She has even been accused in the street by people who have asked her what it is all about.

The girl told "The Leader" this week that unless these disgusting allegations against her stop she will take legal advice on the question of defamation of character. She said she had witnesses who were prepared to sign affidavits on her behalf.

Strange Taxes

Bombay Mr. K. M. Modi told the Natalists Party's convention that the Government had not want respect for the spiritual heritage of the country.

If a girl gives a donation to a dancing school where girls are taught how to paint their lips, it is too free. But if a girl gives a donation to a temple it is taxed.

It is strange but it is a fact," Mr. Modi said.

SCALDED TO DEATH

A one-year-old child, Chandrasagar, of 4th Dalal Road, Claremont, Durban, was scalded to death last week when a pot of rice, which was cooking on a pressure stove, tipped on top of him.

Mrs. Pillay told "The Leader" that she left the child on the verandah. As she wanted to wash the kitchen table, she took the pressure stove and placed it on the stool and left the pot of rice on it to cook there. Mrs. Pillay went inside, and it was then that she heard piercing screams.

"I ran into the kitchen to see what was happening and was shocked to find my child crying and lying about with boiling rice covering his face and body, and the pressure stove fully ablaze with fuel spilled around it. I pulled Chandrasagar out but by that time he was seriously scalded," she said.

MR. NAIDOO JUST HAD TO ACCEPT

Mr. J. NAIDOO, Deputy Principal of the M. L. S. Naidoo Technical College, who, with his wife, Mrs. Esther M. Naidoo, will be leaving this week for the United States and Canada on a Carnegie Foundation Scholarship, was "forced" to accept a cheque, given as a gift to him, from the members of the College Council and the staff at a farewell luncheon held in his honor.

In presenting the cheque and other gifts, the Principal of the College, Mrs. H. Nairn, said that it was the desire of those who had contributed towards it to buy himself anything he might require on his trip.

But Mr. Naidoo stood up, added $5 from his pocket to the amount of the cheque and donated it towards the College's School Building Fund. Whereupon there was an air of disappointment from those present, including Mr. Nairn, who told Mr. Naidoo that he had undertaken an assurance that Mr. Naidoo would not refuse it.

Mr. Naidoo had no alternative but to accept the cheque.

TALK OF THE BAZAAR

by The Fakir

THE majority of non-whites take a little more than a very superficial interest in the White man's politics. Which is a pity, since so much of their activities have such a direct impact upon our lives. No, I won't comment since that is the preserve of my colleagues, but it has been extremely interesting to observe, over the years, the political development of Mr. L. L. Bond.

Mr. Bond commenced his career in municipal politics, by fighting a seat in a Durban North ward. Among his helpers at that time was Paul Sykes, yes, the Rev. Sykes of Pauline. I know how disappointed Paul Sykes was when Bond, upon being elected on a "let's all be friends" ticket, almost immediately took up the anti-Indian witchhunt.

That was the time when Mr. Bond, in a sure winner in Natal politics, Mr. Bond's rise was, therefore, quite meteoric. In a relatively short time, he became Mayor and played no mean part in the measures chosen by the Durban City Council towards its Indian subjects.

It was reported at the time when Archbishop Hurley expounded with him, Bond reminded the people that while his Grace was the guardian of his (the Archbishop's) spiritual welfare he had no right to interfere in his parishioner's temporal affairs. Mr. Bond was then chairman of the Catholic Men's Guild. But now, after he became very friendly with Mr. Robert McGregor, a fellow Catholic and United States Consul in Durban, and took in being to understand Mr. Bond's rise in politics.

Another woman attorney

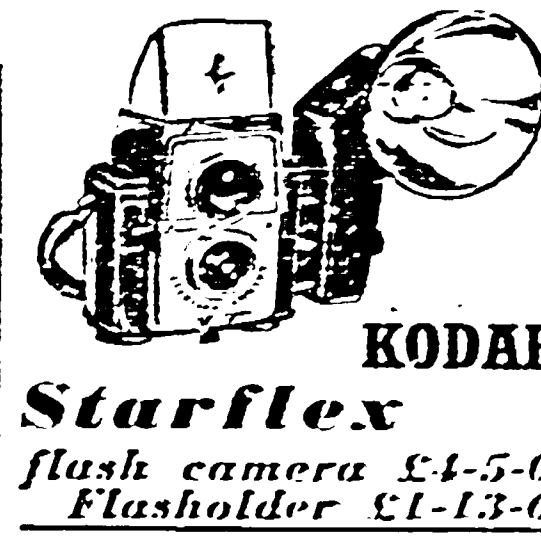

WHEN Mrs. Manohar Singh was admitted as an attorney of the Supreme Court at Pietermaritzburg last week, she became the first Indian woman to join the legal profession in Durban, and the second Indian woman in the Union of South Africa.

Mrs. Kinnison Singh, who is 25 years old and the mother of a three-year-old son, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Singh, and the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. Kinnison. Singh of Durban, and formerly of Lusitania, Her husband, Mr. Dhanraj Kinnison Singh is also an attorney, and she will join her husband's legal firm, to establish the only husband and wife legal practice in the province.

Mrs. Kinnison Singh studied at the Durban Indian Girls' High School, where she matriculated and thereafter obtained the B.A. degree at the University of Natal. She studied as an external student in obtaining her law certificate and secured her Attorneys and Clerkship with Messrs. George Singh & Co.

Wives Drive Husbands to Suicide

NOW it is the turn of husbands to commit suicide in Surashtra, India. In Lambot town alone at least four young husbands have preferred death to the "iron-fisted tyranny" of their wives in the last month.

The latest suicide is by a 25-year-old porter, Mahadeo, who drowned himself in a well. He is alleged to have committed suicide because of an unhappy married life.

Praise for M. L. Sultan Principal

IN an eloquent tribute, Mr. J. H. Naidoo, Deputy Principal of the M. L. Sultan Technical College, Durban, has done more for technical education for Indians than any other individual.

Mr. Naidoo, who is leaving this week for the United States and Canada with his wife, Mrs. E. Naidoo, has been a member of the staff and Council of the College since 1945.

He said that during his association with Mr. Naidoo, he never found a man more imbued with an ideal and to carry it out even when deeply faced with the difficulties of the Indian youth in the sphere of technical education.

Mr. Naidoo added that he was proud to have known Mr. Naidoo and his wife, Mrs. E. Naidoo, and to have seen them in their respective fields, to take something from the M. L. Sultan College and give it to those whom

WITH C. G. MOODLEY

JUST before the India-bound steamship Karanja is due to sail from Durban on September 4, the dock-siders may be forgiven for thinking that several Indian women had accepted the repatriation scheme. For on board the ship will be a party of women from Pietermaritzburg who will spend a six-month holiday in India.

Accompanied by Mr. S. R. Naidoo, the party includes his wife and their younger daughter, Miss Thandathane Naidoo, who recently returned from England after qualifying as a nurse. Mediamas, Miss Gomer, E. Soudha Moodley, Sathul Rajah, P. G. Chetty and Mrs. P. S. Moodley. They are bound on a pilgrimage to the Divine Life Society's headquarters at Rishikesh and visit to various parts of India.

These people will be hidden from view at a special service which will be held in the Gertrude Street Ashram this Sunday evening.

Also in the party are Mr. B. Naidoo, a director of the M. L. Sultan Service Station, his wife and their baby daughter.

UNDER the soft lights of the "Lambot Inn," the M. L. Sultan Technical College, Durban, has done more for technical education for Indians than any other individual.

Mr. Naidoo has been the president of the Institute for 20 years. The Rev. A. J. Chinnaiya will be chairman of the M. L. Sultan Technical College, Durban, which has secured financial aid from the Government of India.

The Union Department of Education, Arts and Science has awarded a grant of £25,000 to the M. L. Sultan Technical College, Durban, which has secured financial aid from the Government of India.

FOR THE INDIAN COMMUNITY ONLY

Follow the example of this wise couple!

"Collected by car from our rented house, we were soon looking at some of the wonderful view-site lots in Durban's largest suburb—fast developing RESERVOIR HILLS—our first surprise was that to own our own home would cost us less than we were paying in rent!"

"We then discussed plans for our new home under the Company's FREE ARCHITECTURAL SERVICE. We had the home of our choice designed FREE. Municipal approval of plans was attended to for us. A bond with interest at only 1.5% p.a. was obtained for us free of charge. All this more than saved the deposit on the bond. We didn't have to build until we wanted to."

"Now here we are so happily living amongst our friends and wondering why we didn't start saving money earlier by owning our own home at magnificent RESERVOIR HILLS. It really is so very easy and it costs nothing to find out about either land or home ownership at Durban's established Township for the Indian Community, RESERVOIR HILLS."
