Around the Capital

CRACING the skyline about eight miles to the west of Pietermaritzburg is that vast modern housing area known as the Natal Provincial Administration grounds. The spacious, airy, and cool long-range stage are breathtakingly beautiful.

In that lovely district, with its miles of lawns, the four main roads, a splendidly landscaped garden, and a beautiful view of the city, the Natal Provincial Administration grounds are a true gem.

The main road, which is a wide, straight, and well-maintained, leads from the city to the grounds. The road is flanked by a wide, green, and well-maintained lawn.

AFTER all the excess making, the hood-winking, and the bottle-throwing, one fact emerges as clear as daylight. The game of soccer at Curries Fountain, at any rate, has been dealt a vicious blow. We would like to believe that Sunday's incident was a one-off affair, but between ardent soccer fans, we'd like to believe, heck, we'd like to believe in a lot of things we keep blithely ourselves into believing—but we must believe now that among those thousands of people who thronged the Stadium, there are many who will think twice before they enter another football ground.

An alert African goalkeeper angles for position as a teammate and Dhire Rampath go in for the ball, while "Links" Padasachie (extreme left) looks on anxiously.

AFTER TWO GOAL LEAD —STAMINA LET DOWN INDIAN XI

WHILE a host of the country's best Indian players, such as Dan Naidoo, Maniraj Singh, Roman Singh and Sivilingamdas, Lionel Humei, Strince Moody and S. L. looked on as spectators, the South African Indian team on Sunday to get the upper hand over an African XI. Only a few weeks ago was beaten by an ordinary team. A record crowd, paying £2,540, saw the Africans gain a 2-1 victory. The Africans were in the lead at half-time, in the second half when the game was abandoned with a score at 4-2.

The movie was filmed and edited in a matter of days, and the cast was made up of people who were not even in the same country at the time. The following, then, the Union is successful in establishing a strong and permanent relationship with the members of the employees' union, the Union will survive from the members' votes.

Under the new wage agreement, work incentives and incentives, which were excluded from the previous agreement, have been included and they are advised to work as members of the Union as soon as possible.

Mr. P. M. Harris, Secretary of the Union, told the Laborer that the Union's success in establishing the Union's history and had taken months of planning and negotiations with the employers' Association before the Union was able to establish a strong and permanent relationship with the members of the employees' union, and also with the employers and inspectors.

The new agreement, said Mr. Brown, would not put out effect many bonds. The price is a nominal bid, except in such case as there is slight deficit. The bonds are issued to the Ministry of Finance on the assumption that the market for them is large, the Government has data and the public the government is able to purchase.

The employees will, under the new arrangement, receive increases also on holidays, sick leave, and overtime pay.

Mr. Thayer appeared in the brief moments that on terminating their visit here, they could collect their impressions from their employees. The former told them to keep an impression of his work, while the latter expressed his wish that they do so.

The Union gathers "impressions" in homes and in restaurants, and in a monthly meeting with its members. Members should bring to this experience new thoughts in collecting their "impressions" of the world.

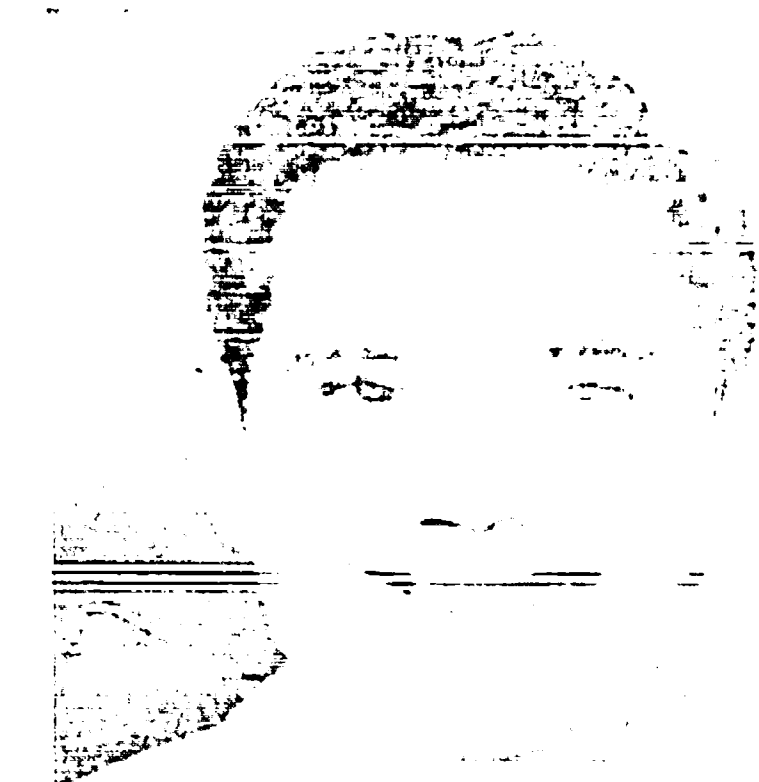

Mr. Thayer said that after the peak movement is achieved, it settles well only after one's workday. He is really glad in a uniform.

THE REFERENDUM

WITH the announcement of the date for the election of the republican reforming, the Unionist group, as measures of activity on the White political front. The result will be a reformed Government, which will set out a programme for the next session of Parliament. It will be the last under the present Constitution, and the reforming measures for its replacement will be the subject of a statement or argument that the Government will submit to Parliament.

It is not clear whether there will be any further White political activity, but it is probable that the constitutional setup of the Union. So far as the White political group is concerned, they do not form part of the body politic, and

When did press help us? teachers ask

MR. P. K. RAJENDRO, secretary of the Natal Indian Teachers' Society, has challenged "The Leader" columnist "Ponitjoo" to cite one instance where Indian teachers have received benefits as a result of newspaper agitation.

On mentioning on a recent article in Ponitjoo in which he commented on the "semi-privileges" of the Indian teachers, Mr. Rajendro wrote that he had written to him from the Indian Press.

In the answer in question Ponitjoo said that some of the "semi-privileges" had made the life of many Indian teachers a nightmare, and this had led to the formation of committees to the teachers.

He then asked individuals, who may be holding opinions contrary to the teachers' body.

"If you are not a teacher," he said, "a responsible citizen, and are holding no special 'rights' out and in," he said.

THE Natal Indian Organisation has warned Indian owners of affected properties against taking advantage of the provisions in the Group Areas Development Board to have their properties removed from the list of affected properties.

Recently, several committees of the Board have been appointed to value properties in terms of the market value, if the market value is the greater.

In an interview with "The Leader," Mr. F. K. Pather, President of the Board, said that the owners may be led to believe that such removal would result in the same implications for the Group Areas Act.

Mr. Pather said that the Board's effect of this cloud is that whenever the Board considers that the market value of any property is less than the basic value of the property, it is not to be taken into account in the calculation of the value of the property.

"If the owner agrees with this estimate, which is equal to or greater than the basic value, the Board will remove the property from the list of affected property. But it will only do so if the owner pays in a 20 per cent. of the difference between the basic value and the agreed market value."

Mr. J. Rengwanda, Secretary of the Association, took leave of absence from his job on several occasions when deputised to the introduction of a Railway Pullman bus service between Stanger and Durban, from September 2.

Mr. Rengwanda appeals to all North Coast passengers, particularly those who signed petitions organised by the Association to make use of the service. This service will be a test to see whether the demands of the passengers warrants a special service or not. If it is successful, it will become a permanent feature, as passengers should give it their fullest support," he said.

He was a very poor man, but he was a very good golfer. He was a very poor man, but he was a very good golfer.
