Ronnie Govender says:

To see soccer at its scientific best go to Curries on Sunday!

PETER WILSON, famed British sportswriter, writing about the epic second encounter between Joe Louis and Max Schmeling, said "I saw twenty years of listic action packed into that one memorable round." I find myself sorely tempted to use the same superlatives in describing the match, this Sunday at Currie's Fountain, between Johannesburg's football wizards, Moroka Swallows and Blackpool; but to be more exact let's say that this one match should produce more thrills than we have seen at this ground in two seasons.

[illegible] memorable amateurs, in the art of ball passing and scientific manoeuvring and consequently, they will be out to show that africa is the best team of defence.

To them, football is a chessboard with a finely attuned several steps ahead. The object of skips and the attack will centre to the other.

It is in this context, therefore, that I see in the Blackpool defence a crisis in their side.

The ace ball artist in Sand Tsang Wan, [illegible] Moroka on several occasions against Rangers, and it was Sam's captivated up since then, as a result of which Sam [illegible] to [illegible] down.

On the other hand, the Buffalo [illegible] forward line should have a field day against the Blackpool defence which is as inefficient and erratic as [illegible]. A good battle is anticipated.

SWALLOWS HAVE THE EDGE

Bearing in mind the fact that the comparatively smaller Blackpool boys drew with them 4-4 in their last meeting, it would be interesting to find out how they go about trying to beat the sligh. They are too prolific a team to succumb in similar fashion.

OLD MAN NI, DESERVES A BOUQUET

I don't see eye to eye with veteran administrator, N I Naicker on many matters. Last Sunday, however, at the Parlwa reception, I met some agreed with what he had to say and was [illegible] mark for saying [illegible] so [illegible] and so forthright.

He told them had the "temerity" in the presence of white guests, to suggest whites were "some of Natal's best, so far the Blame for not being kept out of international sport is the fault of the coloured people."

Said Mr Naicker: "If the South African Government is prepared to send non-whites overseas to represent South Africa in sport, then it is [illegible] that the non-whites in South Africa are [illegible] to be represented in international sport."

I [illegible] Mr Naicker's [illegible] and [illegible] that [illegible] should [illegible] to [illegible] in sport on an integrated and not [illegible] basis.

A good battle is anticipated. Kick-off is at 3 p.m. at Currie's Fountain.

TALK OF THE BAZAAR

by The Fakir

COMMERCE and Industry in South Africa, quite apart from various State Departments, seem always to be moaning about the shortage of clerical staff. And when the Public Services [illegible] there is a pretty wide field for the average White [illegible] to move from. Yet, the supply is inadequate to meet the demand. But employers quite often complain that they are forced to make do with the frequently mediocre material [illegible]

This bus service leaves him standing at the stop

Sir — Through the medium of your valuable paper I would like to voice my opinion about the inadequacy of the transport between Sydenham and Durban, particularly for residents residing in the Avoca Road area.

The service in question operates between Sydenham and Durban via Sutton Road, North Coast Road, Avoca Road and Umbilo Road. Buses are supposed to run every 20 minutes but seldom operate to schedule.

I have been a regular bus user since the inception of the service and I consider myself fortunate if I catch a bus running to schedule during the peak hours.

Sometimes on a Saturday, particularly after shopping, during the morning peak hours the said pump buses are absent. If not full, before they

S. Rhodesia moves forward

SOUTHERN RHODESIA has taken a [illegible] in recent weeks steps which will make [illegible] Europe, who are anxious for racial peace and goodwill.

The first, is the calling of a national convention representative of all groups and interests. The convention, also has the support of Sir Edgar Whitehead, Prime Minister, say that they firmly believe that greater participation of all races in political, economic, community life at all levels, will contribute and create between the races be established in sufficient measure to ensure stability and progress for the future.

We cannot agree more with this view, and if Rhodesia will find that this step will, in the long run, bring handsome dividends.

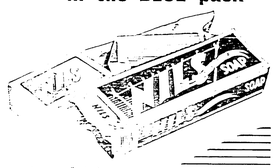

The second important step is the passing by the Southern Rhodesia Parliament of a Bill which will allow of the Assembly from 65 to 75 members, and for the time to admit African members.

This sounds revolutionary to most Whites, but is one which are welcomed by a substantial section of the African people in its favour.

This Frankenstein will scare you to death

"THE CURSE OF FRANKENSTEIN" — a haunting tale of terror, starring Peter Cushing, Hazel Court, Robert Urquhart and Christopher Lee, plays at the Scala this weekend.

The film is said to be unlike any previous horror film for screen provoking scenes. The story concerns the horror story of a creature created by man and forgotten by nature.

In appearance, the creature is said to be unlike anything seen on the screen as a result of the make-up artistry which frightened audiences on such films as the early "Frankenstein" efforts and the horror stories of the late Lon Chaney.

The role of the infamous Baron Frankenstein, the mad genius behind the creation of the frightful creature is played by Peter Cushing.

Seven-minute hoodoo strikes again

IT struck again, Pietermaritzburg United soccer's seven-minute hoodoo.

Remember the Natal Cup match that is just between Colenso and Maritzburg A.D.U.S. ended exactly seven minutes from time with the referee disallowing an equalising goal for the Colenso?

The hoodoo struck again — last Saturday at the Townsman Road cricket ground in the semi-final of the Inter-Town with the B Division's Nova and Sharks.

Seven minutes remained for play when Sharks, who were leading 1-0 and who the Shamrocks had twice missed spreading for off side, scored again. But the Shamrocks refused to continue with the game unless the goal was disallowed.

Nova scored in the second minute of the second half to make it 2-0. Despite this the Shamrocks refused to continue with the game unless the goal was disallowed.

In the other game Colenso had an easy passage to the semi-final of the Maccabi Cup competition with a 7-0 victory against Hotspur. A 4-2 victory against Shamrocks put Rangers into the final of the Buchanan Cup. Team was the Police Cup semi-finalist when they beat Nova four goals to nil.

TENNIS STARS BACK IN S.A.

Three South African tennis players, Ian Vermaak, captain of the Springbok Davis Cup team, Miss Renee Schuurman and Miss Sandra Reynolds, women's doubles finalists at Wimbledon this year, returned by the Union-Castle mail steamer Pretoria Castle which arrived in Durban on Tuesday morning.

ANOTHER BOMBSHELL:- NELSON RESIGNS

A SECOND bombshell was dropped in the tumultuous soccer world when the Natal sports administrator, Leon Nelson, dramatically announced his resignation as vice-president of the South African Indian Football Association and as an executive member of the South African Soccer Federation.

He did so in his speech at the conference convening by the Durban Indian Football Association of "local soccer bodies and aggrieved parties."

Mr. Nelson stated that he was resigning in disgust at the manner in which these bodies were running their affairs.

"The time had come for a complete change in South African soccer. Hereafter my affiliations to the SAIFA and the SANFA shall cease because of my love for the game.

"Henceforth, those positions serve no useful purpose. When we hold provincial and other representative matches we go all out to build up the gates. We have made soccer a purely commercial proposition.

"There is nothing wrong with that if this commercialism helps the ordinary player. But it doesn't and the result is that the players are badly neglected."

Mr. Nelson also expressed his disgust at what he called "party affiliations the decision who are selling the game must be done on a non-party basis."

One of those most powerful members, Mr. Nelson's sudden resignation is a big blow to the South African Indian Football Association and the South African Federation.

PLENTY OF BRAINWORK BUT LITTLE ZING

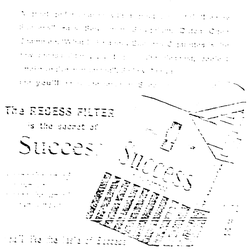

THE Mitres Soccer Knock-out tournament started at Kingsmead on Saturday. Play was of a very high standard and the tournament as an entertainment was enjoyed by all.

Most of the players showed plenty of brains and a good knowledge of the game but there was little zing in the play.

RONNIE GOVENDER SAYS:

TWELVE MONTHS TO LIVE OR DIE— AND S.A.S.F. STILL TOTTERING

THE fund fight for international recognition by our footballers has at last reached a climax. The International Football Federation resolved by 32 votes to 19 that during the next twelve months those bodies showing discrimination of race or politics must comply with the rules of F.I.F.A.

She won the women's singles and, with Miss Another Sadien, won the women's doubles, and with Bob Pillay won the mixed doubles. The Club also won the Northern Natal Knockout Cup. SPORTING FACILITIES — WHAT HAS HAPPENED?

WHILE there is a crying need for additional sporting facilities for the Indian community—the various Indian sporting bodies and other interested organisations are apparently not interested in channelling their requests for sporting facilities to the Durban City Council through a co-ordinating body, which would be representative of all the Indian sporting bodies of Durban.

GROUP AREAS SHOCK FOR "HILL" INDIANS

THIRTY-FIVE Indian families totalling about 400 people who are living on Harbour's Hill on the northern boundary of Pietermaritzburg, have been given notice to quit because the Group Areas Board has earmarked the Hill for occupation by members of the Coloured community.

A CHILD AT LAST

MRS. S. RAMDAS, [illegible] and 42-year-old wife of Umbumbulu, Natal, gave birth to her first child — a bonus [illegible] after 26 years of married life.

Mr. Ramdas, the husband, who owns nearly 1,000 acres of tobacco and vegetable farms, is 54 years old, and will retain the [illegible] Indian way of life, and wears a dhoti and turban.

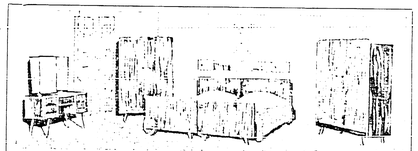

About 150 people friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Ramdas attended an extravagant party given by the couple to observe the third day of the birth of the child.

No name has yet been given to the boy, but it is anybody's guess that the proud parents, who have no sons, are spending hours thinking of a suitable name for the child.

Although Mr. Ramdas is extremely wealthy, he was not a known man because of the lack of children to grace his home.

Mr. Ramdas told the people at the party that wealth is of secondary importance when compared to his child, who is "the greatest treasure."

Mrs. Ramdas beamed: "The child is our heavenly wealth."

PROPHET DAY CELEBRATED IN SCHOOL

TALK OF THE BAZAAR

by The Fakir

AFTER the exodus, the return. Or shall we say that with the end of the "Emergency" a number of well-known political personalities have come up from "underground" and are once again in open circulation. In Durban alone, there were five prominent individuals who escaped the dragnet when they were released by Court order after the new wave of arrests which the Supreme Court declared was illegal at the time. And by the time the Emergency's regulations had been properly promulgated and the police had the power to detain, these five had just vanished.

There can be no doubt that some persons, presumably the modest, retiring sort of southern and western Cape folk, ran away on sheer panic. No matter, no parkdrill, but one does wonder whether it was right that hundreds of persons should have been sent unsettling and unsettling some of them a lot more outside the Union's borders. Maybe it's all going with the kind of programme work that Krishna Menon did for India in Europe. But didn't some of the others come back to tell how themselves as well? I don't know the answers, but no one can say that Mister and Mrs Smith's safety is in any way prejudiced by the presence in their house of a Mr Jones who was detained.

There has been a comparison with Gandhi's followers both in South Africa and in India who not only never evaded but courted arrest. But the comparison is not fair one. The circumstances were very different.

The Kampala was back at Durban harbour last week. People who sailed on this ship for India numbered only a few, and most of them were from the different towns of South Africa. Wat shown from Bloemfontein was Mrs. Sharda Goodare. She left for an India tour. Seen in this picture with Mrs. Goodare are some of the people who came to bid her bon voyage. They are, from the left: Mr. Goodare, Miss Latona Bonsal and Miss Vera Ebrahim.

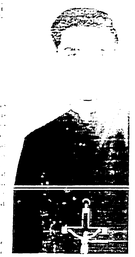

Miss Zaradakhtar Nathoo (left) and Miss Urvashi Chauhan, two of the stars who embellished concerts rendered as part programme of Indian classical dances staged by the Lund Academy in aid of the Natal Indian Blind Society at the Orient Hall, Durban, last week. The concerts will be restaged this evening, at the Orient Hall.

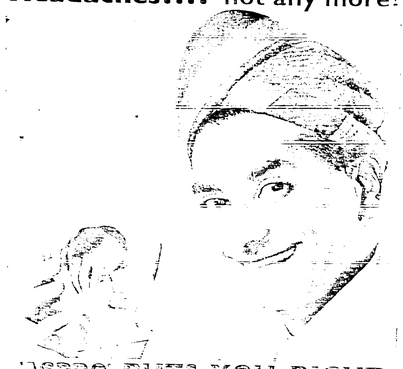

The Mayor of Durban, Mr. F. S. Miller, were speaking at the function held in Gray Street, Durban, last week.

PALMIET PROTEST MEETING

THE Western Areas Ratepayers Association is holding a mass meeting this evening at the Asiatic School, New Germany to oppose the Durban Corporation's proposal to move the Palmiet area of Pinetown for a suburban development.

In a circular to the Leader, Mr. [illegible] the secretary of the Association, said that the Council at the meeting on August 19 had decided to move the people from the Palmiet area to Mariannhill. Mr. [illegible] said that the Council at the meeting had not considered the views of the residents who had purchased their properties in the area in good faith. Mr. [illegible] said that the Council in making out the particulars which appeared on the agreements of sale of vacant land in the Durban "Wheredoes Not" folder had failed to explain its real intentions. He said that the Council had not informed the residents that it proposed to move them, and that it would retain the ownership of the Indian areas for another 15 years.

JACK WARNER, President, Warner Brothers Pictures ... has accepted the chairmanship of the Motion Picture Industry Committee of Project Hope. The announcement of the appointment came from Ernest R. NORTH-SOUTH CLASH TO AID GOOD CAUSE

THE curtain comes up again this weekend at the City-and Sports Ground on yet another clash between those old rivals, Northern Natal and Southern Natal for the Emmanuelson Cup. The entire proceeds on this match will go to the Natal Natives and Injured Players' Fund.

Since the Currie Cup matches of Natal, these sides have become bitter rivals and have never failed to deliver the goods whenever they meet.

Having won the Sam Cross and having produced NINE South African players this year, Northern hold the whip hand. Of late, Northern's soccer standards have soared.

But setting the factors in the clearing of the different centres in the All Africa Cup match, North Coastals and Coastals of Northern Natal beat Natalians and Upiands respectively.

Both DEE Vs' supporters, Coastals are out of the picture although they still have North Coast's topliners mainly from the Stella Football Club.

However the enthusing feature is the final triumph of Coastals.

But apart from the good soccer that this match promises, it should receive the support of every soccer fan.

The entire proceeds are to go for a worthy cause the late Amal Naidoo died while he was serving soccer, and it is the duty of soccer lovers to play the game by this great sportsman.

The Southern Natal team reads: M. Sangareddy, G. Schoole, Siva Millar (captain), K. Mamoodia, Bobbie Moodley, K. Govender, Bala Chinsamy, M. Lazarus, Stanley Pillay, Tommy Kammah, Devanath Naidoo.

Northern Natal (reserve S. Mandalsar) Kesa Moodley, Bills Naicker, R. Mohan, E. A. Moodley (captain), A. K. Singh, S. Cheddie, Mamukon Reddy, Lawrence Pakati, Otto Harrypersadh and I. Jamalodeen. Manager Mr. S. K. Naidoo.

Under 21: K. D. Pillay, V. Pandoo, V. Govender, E. Behjam, H. I. Sader, B. Mohangi, V. Naidoo (captain), B. Doodhia, S. Mia, D. Pillay and D. Naidoo. Manager Mr. A. O. Khan.

Natal favourites in razor-edge match on Sunday

THE razor-edged rivalry between Natal and Transvaal comes to a climax at Currie's Fountain this Sunday when both meet in a show-stopping match of the season. Both teams will be mixed combination and feature a galaxy of the Union's top stars.

[illegible] The question [illegible] how as can he do it?

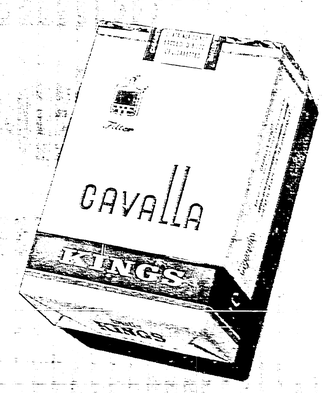

Despite Samuel Khuba's weaving and back-pedalling, he was not able to avoid Bobby Moodley's left to the jaw. This was Moodley's professional debut in the City Promotions hill at Currie's Fountain, and he lost on points.

Wham! Nagnor Govender and Joe Ndabela exchange blows in the lightweight encounter at Currie's Fountain, Durban. Tall Nagnor went on to win on points.

COUNCILLOR WITHDRAWS "BLOOMIN' INDIAN"

A DURBAN CITY COUNCILLOR, Mr. J. J. Higginson, chairman of the Council's Housing Committee, was asked to withdraw the words "Bloomin' Indians" which he used when referring to the Indian housing problem at a meeting called by the Western Areas Indian Ratepayers' Association on Sunday, to protest against the Council's intention to appropriate 250 acres of Indian-owned land in the Palmiet area at Springfield for a sub-standard housing scheme.

[illegible] TOURIST MEETING.

Amazing memory test

Child genius knows her politicians

TWO-AND-A-HALF years old Rosuga of Lordsburg, Transvaal, knows the names of all the Prime Ministers of the Commonwealth and also the names and details of all the Cabinet Ministers of the Union Government.

In addition, she can recite nursery rhymes as well as singing Tamil hymns, although she has not yet attended school.

When told of the child's remarkable memory and her ability to [illegible] among the names of the different Prime Ministers, "The Leader" wanted to see things for itself, and decided to give little Rosuga a test.

LIKES DE GAULLE

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Pudiacher, who are holidaying in Durban at the moment, brought her to the office and after she had greeted her childish craving for an ice cream, she proceeded to give a fantastic display of her ability.

Who is the Prime Minister of the Federation? Back came the answer: "Roy Welensky."

The Prime Minister of Canada? "Mr Diefenbaker."

She also gave the names of all the South African Cabinet Ministers with a rapidity not even possible for a Standard Six pupil — in fact, there are many adults who do not know the names of all the Cabinet Ministers of this country.

Mr. Pudiacher said that Rosuga started talking when she was only five months old. By the time she was 15 months, she could recite the Lord's prayer "Woolagabam" without a mistake.

At this time too, she had memorised several nursery rhymes. Finally she spoke English remarkably well for a child of her age for she [illegible] and Tamil.

According to her father, Rosuga loved a flair for public performance and after Saturday she could question Mr. Pudiacher about results in any particular province.

When we take her to the Snowcone, her favourite memory is so great that she can describe the scenes in a film, and also discuss the main characters," said her mother.

Rosuga does not like to play with children of her age, but prefers to be with adults and grown-up children.

All brothers together, says author

Mr. Edmund Bentley, the well-known British author, world traveller and a student of Yoga, told more than a thousand people at the Natal Tamil Vedic Hall on Sunday that every person was a spark and that love was a power at once efficient.

Speaking at the 74th birthday celebration of Swami Sivananda, the founder of the Divine Life Movement, Mr. Bentley said that there was a lesson of the Indian people particularly to the Hindus and the great cultural heritage and religious background for which Mother India was famous.

"There is a danger in much lives of circumstances of the Indian people and principles and customs which in Western countries are the birth of many evils," he said.

He said that the Indian people should not forget their cultural heritage.

"Unchristian" action by Christians condemned

THE Durban City Council's move to oust nearly 14,000 Indians in the Cumberwood-Cavendish area to make way for a massive Indian housing scheme there has been described by Mr. F. S. Isaacs, a farmer and head of the only Christian family there, as "Christian persecution."

Being a Christian, I am totally opposed to Christian persecution," Mr. Isaacs told "The Leader."

He said: "Besides the whole matter is the humiliation of the Christian faith. Surely among the many Indians in that area there must be a few Christians and Christ could not possibly approve of such persecution."

TWO BIG FILMS ON THE WAY

"TEMPLE of the White Elephant" and "Ramrod, the Vian of Pakistan", two films in CinemaScope and colour, are scheduled to be launched in November by Trefoil Films Limited, a company floated mainly by Italian, Pakistani and Swiss producers.

According to a spokesman for the Pakistan producers, the expenditure of "shooting" in Pakistan will be borne by the Pakistan partner and the expenditure abroad by the foreign partners.

The male lead in the first picture will be a Hull-wood lead, who will play a dual role. The female lead will go to an Italian actress. Pakistani actors and actresses also have roles in the films.

Equipment and technicians will come from Italy and Switzerland and processing will be done in an Italian laboratory.

The films will be made both in English and Urdu. It is estimated that about 400,000 rupees will be spent on each film. The first to go on the floors will be "The Temple of the White Elephant", to be "Shot" on location in Peshawar, Rangpur, Lahore and Dacca.

BROTHER OF SABU SHOT DEAD

CHARLES DANGERFIELD, a wealthy businessman and brother of Indian actor Sabu, was shot dead by a wife at his home in the suburb of Van Nuys, Los Angeles.

A few hours after the shooting the police said Dangerfield's wife, who divorced herself as Jan Sterling, turned up at the police station and said that he had shot Mr Dangerfield.

The police said that Sterling, a former employee of Mr Dangerfield, told a story that he knew Mr. Dangerfield often carried large sums of money so he went to his home to rob him. He fought the holdup and shot Mr. Dangerfield in the chest and then accidentally shot himself in the left arm.

The police found a wallet containing 600 dollars on the dead man.

Mr Dangerfield owned a furniture store and own apartment houses in San Fernando Valley. Mr. Arthur Weir, the manager of one of his apartment houses, told the police: "He was the nicest man a person ever met. He was always doing something for someone."

Ronnie Govender says:-

AND NOW IT WILL BE SUMMER SOCCER AT CURRIES

THE rebels have certainly come to town. Their presence is not only being felt but is causing considerable embarassment and heartaches within the ranks of the "opposition." And one thing the rebels have proved in the last two matches in Currie's Fountain is that they are bent on practising what they preach.

REBELS' ROUSING START

Natal avenge defeats by Transvaal

WITH two smashing successes at Curries Fountain within two weeks the "Soccer Rebels" have got off to a rousing start.

They succeeded, despite hostile opposition and "sabotage," in staging mixed soccer. Last week a 5,000-strong crowd, comprising a mixed audience, stood home for "Banana Boys" to a great S.A.I. victory over the so-far superior Transvaalers.

It was a highly entertaining match which had the crowd, towards the later stages, on its toes with excitement. But sound constructive soccer was lacking. The Transvaalers, usually employing positional and combined play were probably hampered by the absence of a few of their stars.

They came with ten men and Counts's chumach Chris Soon filled the gap.

But despite being at a loss on the execution of their usual scientific play, the boys from over the Vaal were no legends. They certainly tested one of Natal's strongest teams ever to the fullest, and the result was a grand game to the finish.

Wonder "Ballie" Page, once more displaying his winning form, which gained him an overseas professional contact, had the Natal defence on its toes on the opening minutes but soon the Natalians had him and the illustrious Bellerose Mhawa and Carlton Moles tagged.

Inner left Nick Ntuli had Transvaal keeper, Dick Nako, biting dust to stop a stinger. On the rebound from Nako's gripping fingers, Simone missed a wide open net with what appeared to be a "cert."

Dharmon Mohan, at his brilliant best, was a problem for the Transvaal defence but on two occasions he was robbed of carefully schemed goals by the unnecessary offsiderus of left winger Jerry Khanyile.

Khanyile, fast and tricky, spoilt a number of good moves by constantly wandering to the right from his left berth. But he made up for it when he just managed to get one past a sprawling Nako after Simone Moodley had slammed a Soons Morgan pass.

Khanyile seemed set for a second goal but the great Nako took the ball safely away from his poised feet.

Mhawa came back into the fight with a scorcher which had goal written all over it but it just grazed the top of the bar.

Pure, balanced by Mohan and Lionel Hamid moved more and the Transvaalers were at sea. Adding to their confusion was Natal's lower of strength in the half-line. Blondie Campbell, "the man they chase, away."

Blondie's robustness paid off and he had Mhawa more than worried.

But the Reef boys didn't ease the pressure and their attacks soon resulted in a Page equaliser.

Wound up, the Natalians rallied into the fray and with two more exciting goals from Dharmon Mohan and Simone, their just victory against Transvaal on three tests was sealed.

Dharmon Mohan, the South African soccer star, who was one of those injured in the motor accident in which the manager of the S.A. Indian team, Mr. Kuta Naidoo, was killed, had a great game against Transvaal. He scored two of Natal's three goals. Here, leaping high, he wins out in a duel with the Transvaal keeper, Edward "Fish" Nako.

HUSBAND DEAD—BURIED: WIFE DID NOT KNOW

Seeing his pastoral visit to Pietermaritzburg last week, the Archbishop of Cape Town, Dr. Joost de Blank, paid a visit to St. Paul's Indian School. TRANSVAAL APPEAL FOR SOCCER TRUCE

THE Transvaal Indian Football Association has sent a dramatic appeal to the South African Indian Football Association, the Natal Indian Football Association, and the Durban Indian Football Association to put an end to the present rift.

It has offered "any assistance which may be required" to restore order.

In its letter to D.I.F.A., the secretary states:

"I need not say, nor am I flattering your Association, when I say that D.I.F.A. has been, and is, the lighthouse of Indian soccer in this country. Your withdrawal is most disappointing and it will mean the complete destruction of what has been built with blood and toil for many years.

Stating that it did not know the reasons for the withdrawal, the letter adds, "I must say that at no time in our soccer administration in this country is unity more needed than today. Your withdrawal makes the members of our Association most sad and downcast.

At a time when your Association, the very founders of Indian soccer in this country, has let the field, our Association is not prepared to, and cannot sit back and watch it die. If there is anything which our Association can do to see unity is maintained in Natal, please do not hesitate to call upon us."

In letters of similar tenor to N.I.F.A. and N.I.F.A., Transvaal calls upon these bodies to do all in their power to restore unity at this crucial moment in the fight for international recognition.

It has offered the services of, amongst others, people such as retired administrators in the Rev. H. J. Nganomee, Bob Panday and H. Moodley.

FARMERS MAY TAKE LAND FIGHT TO COURT

INDIAN banana farmers of Weltevdarht, Cavendish and the Chatsworth area have decided to oppose the Durban City Council's intention to buy their land for a massive Indian housing scheme and to seek legal opinion to fight the Council if it still persists in going on with its plans to remove them.

DR. G. M. NAICKER, president of the South African Indian Congress, in a message to Dr. Ambrose Reeves, the Bishop of Johannesburg, who was deported last week, describes the action of the Government as "basic, arbitrary and high-handed," and he condemned the deportation as a "serious step which forces all democrats [illegible] protest against."

How winds of change have blown through Indian community

USING the famous Macmillan phrase, Dr. Alan B. Taylor, Medical Superintendent of the McCord Zulu Hospital, said in Durban on Saturday that the winds of change had certainly affected the Indian community of South Africa. From a people rooted in purdah and orthodoxy, they have now acquired a modern outlook on life.

Dr. Taylor was speaking on the occasion of the Silver Jubilee of the Star of South Africa at the annual meeting of the Star of Gandhi and Patwa Memorial Hall Committee. He said that he had noted with great satisfaction that Indian girls had shaken off the veil during the period of unrest in the Rand, and the Indian community at large.

Recently, many Indian women had received medals of recognition for their work in the Red Cross, and the Indian women were leaving the seclusion of the Indian compound and were taking their place in the world outside.

The time was fast approaching when there will be more doctors than the profession required. "Already, many doctors are finding it difficult to establish themselves in practice, and it will be only for the select few who can get there."

Speaking about the environment, Dr. Taylor said that the Indians were leaving the crowded areas and were moving into the suburbs. Here they were living in a better environment and were taking more interest in their children.

AT LEAST THE NATS ARE HONEST ABOUT IGNORING HUMAN RIGHTS

MR. BLAAR COETZEE, M.P. for Vereeniging (near Sharpeville), said at a republican meeting in Cape Town that if the Union became a republic, she would not sign the United Nations Declaration of Human Rights. There was, so he said, no purpose in signing such a "hypocritical, ridiculous and starry-eyed" document.

tion. Let us give them credit for refusing to do so. It would be the height of hypocrisy for them to sign such a document, when on their policies and actions they are committed to wholesale violation of its basic principles.

PRAISE FOR AID TO BLIND

MAN shares with animals many characteristics, but man alone on the strength of what distinguishes him from the animal world. Of man's similarities with animals - need mention only the ugly quality of wilfulness, which is absent of concern for the comfort and well-being of others," the Rev. A. H. Zulu, told the annual meeting of the Natal Indian Blind Society last Saturday.

"When man is utterly selfish he is utterly bestial. And where individuals in a community think too much of their own comfort to the comparative neglect of regard for the welfare of others, the decay of such a community sets in.

"The handicapped members in such a society must suffer cruel neglect physically but they suffer the treatment of animals. In such a society there will be constant strife and friction. Virtue is destroyed, anarchy reigns and man descends to the life of an animal."

Reverend Zulu said that a community was most fully served when the needs of the weakest members were most fully catered.

"It is both remarkable and inspiring to observe that in our South Africa bedevilled thought it is by discussion of all kinds, the entire South African community has been united in the genuine effort of concern for the blind. Here is that on one irreconcilable fact. Here the comments has the blind a great accomplishment and service to humanity deserve to be read of the Society.

Congratulations the Blind Society on its work among the handicapped on the community. Reverend Zulu said that it had done something which is recorded in human history.

"You may think this is an extravagant statement to make. It is not. It is a sober fact. It is true that the Natal Indian Blind Society has been but one unit of the organisations which now comprise many that attempted to serve mankind.

"The unselfishness from which it draws its inspiration is the noblest virtue which a principal of conduct for mankind can aspire to."

Lack of site holds up blind school expansion

THE difficulty of acquiring a suitable site within easy reach of Durban is preventing the Natal Indian Blind Society from going ahead with its multi-purpose project and expansion of the Arthur Blaxall School for the Blind.

Mr. K. M. Pillay, the President, said at an address at the Society's annual meeting at the M. L. Sultan Technical College last Saturday, that a site on the region of 40 to 70 acres which easy reach of the city and amenities was required.

It is with regret that I have to report that no have not made much progress on finding suitable site for our multi-purpose project and the expansion of the Arthur Blaxall School for the Blind.

NOT SETTLED

Malnutrition quiz: slow response

THE CSIR is making an all-out effort to gauge the full extent of the Union's malnutrition problem, but the 5,000-odd doctors in all parts of the country who have been asked to help are responding slowly. Replies by a circular requesting doctors in Government, provincial and private employ to provide analyses of malnutrition cases according to race, disease and month over a four-week period, are trickling the CSIR in a little.

According to an official of the CSIR's National Nutrition Research Institute (which is conducting the survey) it is clear from the replies already submitted that hospitals and local authorities responsible for clinics are reacting extremely well. A Cape Provincial hospital, for instance, delegated 10 doctors to tackle the questionnaire. Their reply deals with more than 900 non-White malnutrition cases.

Private doctors had been fairly slow in responding, however, the official said. This was probable, because most got the questionnaire when coming into contact with malnutrition cases; nevertheless, cases in the meantime are also of importance in assessing the complete picture.

It is essential for the purpose of the survey that as many replies reach us as possible. If a doctor in the Orange Free State has not had a malnutrition case to report it would be of interest to us to receive a letter to that effect."

The official appealed to all doctors who had collected data for the questionnaire to forward them immediately. Only a few could be made with an extension of their replies.

Malnutrition is a serious problem in the Union, especially among the non-Europeans, yet no reliable information exists on an overall extent nor the incidence of specific diseases like kwashiorkor, nutritional marasmus, pellagra, rickets, endemic goitre, anaemia and beriberi. The CSIR's survey is designed to fill this vacuum.

The first part of the questionnaire was aimed for early winter (May and June) when malnutrition was expected to be at its seasonal highest. Later this year, in November and December, doctors will complete the final part which coincides with an expected ebb in the occurrence of malnutrition.

HUMDINGERS FIZZLED OUT

THE most publicised event of the Comrades Marathon week-end, the "Humdinger" race between Jackie Mekler and Jackie Arkan, fizzled out in the first few miles.

Ronnie Govender says . . .

HOW ABOUT THAT INDIAN CENTENARY SPORTING FESTIVAL

IN our March 13 issue of last year, under the heading, "Let's Salute Our Sporting That-Ias' and 'Partees,' I suggested a mammoth sports festival as a Centenary commemoration event. With almost 53 days to go, we still do not know whether we're going to have any sort of commemoration at all.

In an ongoing report, the Centenary Observance Committee said, "This is indeed an historic occasion and we are now all faced with opportunity of pausing to reflect on the past and put our troubles behind us and with a view to future to those who have gone before us and who, in spite of tremendous obstacles, laid the foundation for progress and accomplishment, of which we are justly proud."

When the Committee was planning into a full-scale programme, the Emergency rudely arrested its progress with the result that we now find ourselves in almost the same situation as when we started off.

It is hoped, however, that the Committee will finalise its plans in all haste.

The Committee has nominated a Sports Committee under Mr. S. I. Soch. The Committee meets on a few days and I wish to refer to what I said last year:

"In a hundred years those who have gone before us have done much to improve port, not only amongst us, but amongst South Africans in general. The names of some of those who rendered yeoman service will live on.

"But what of Maimunthoo who scored that hat-trick for Blue Bells in that small clearing amongst the sugar cane way back when your YAL' fathers were little boys?

"These are the little men who gave to sport the best anyone can give, the sheer love for, and spirit of the game. These are the people we should remember.

"AND WHAT BETTER WAY TO REMEMBER THEM THAN TO MAKE MAMMOTH SPORTS FESTIVAL A MEMORIAL TO THEIR SPIRIT?

"With such a festival we will not only be making a salute to the outstanding achievements and contributions of our sporting 'Thathas and 'Partees' — we will also be giving our present day sportsmen an up-to-date incentive to go further.

PLAN TO INCORPORATE INDIAN FARMS

Mrs. Esther M. Naidoo, of Durban laboratory, discusses a point of interest with nurse-trainees at the Philadelphia General Hospital, where she has been an Associate Librarian since September last year. (See story on page two.)

THE Durban City Council is likely to cut the ground from under the feet of the farmers living in the Chatsworth area by applying to incorporate within the boundaries of the City of Durban, portions of the area required for the proposed Chatsworth Indian housing scheme, which are not presently within the area of jurisdiction of the Local Health Commission and are contiguous to the City's existing boundaries.

RACIAL CENSORSHIP OF FILMS ISSUE TAKEN UP

THE Federation of Film Societies of South Africa has taken up the matter of racial censorship with the South African Board of Censors at the request of the International Film Society, Durban, which has a multi-racial membership, said Dr. S. Cooppan, chairman of the Society.

In his annual report, Dr. Cooppan contends that no racial censorship should apply to films exhibited by established film societies.

With the lifting of the customs duty on films, a better choice of films would become available in the coming year. "This is the present opportunity that has come in the way of the film society movement," he said.

The proposed centenary film festival planned by the Society has been abandoned in view of the "unfortunate political tension existing in the country at the moment."

Two committee members—Dr. Cooppan and Mr. Ismail Mahomed—have been re-elected to the committee for a three-year term of office and Mr. Mahomed has been appointed treasurer in a co-opted capacity.

There would be at least 12 films screened in a season, and according to the report this would "ensure cheaper fare for the members as well as a wider choice and the individual will be better off."

WIDER SELECTION

Dr. Cooppan said that efforts would be made to obtain films from Pakistan, the Arabian-speaking countries, and other Eastern nations.

"The Society," adds Dr. Cooppan, "has a definite place in the cultural life of the city. We are anxious on building up a small community of people who are keen for the art of the film and committee will commence.

"If racially-minded and a narrow-minded outlook and attitude can be replaced by cultured film lovers, the work of our committee will have been worthwhile. We feel that we can afford to disregard the unfortunate action of two committee members and to show with other members who have resigned from the Society and to have nothing to do with the Society."

The report also referred to the Society's financial position.

SOCIETY TO SHOW OPERA FILM

THE International Film Society is showing "Madame Butterfly," which is reputed as probably the best opera film ever made, at the Avalon Theatre on Sunday next (October 2) at 5.30 p.m.

Starring Japanese and Italian actors, the production is based on Puccini's immortal musical story of love and tragic heroism.

In this film director Carmine Gallone has exploited the much-loved opera against the added with the cinema.

Practically every act is really every act is filmed in the very locale of the story. Thus, the opening act is filmed in the Nagasaki Prison of the 19th Century.

The combination of Japanese and Italian actors is very much in evidence in the film, and the result is a most successful blend.

The photography, of course, is of the highest order and the acting of the principals and the orchestration of the overture.

All in all, a most enjoyable production and one which will appeal to lovers of musical drama.

The film is open to members of the Society and their guests.

The girls were splendid but play needed cutting

"KOVILAN KANNAGI," the Tamil play which was staged to a capacity audience at the Durban City Hall last week by the M. K. Gandhi Seva-mandi School, brought to the fore some splendid acting by a cast of girls—all of them primary school pupils.

Nevertheless, production flaws and directorial faults were noticed in some of the scenes, despite the fact that there was a sincere effort on the part of the producers to overcome them.

For one thing, irrelevant music and songs marred the smooth flow of the play, and tended to make the play drag and bring out an audience which was so taken up with the antics of the girls that they were sitting in the edge of their seats almost waiting for the next scene as the drama unfolded in each scene.

Many dance items, which did not bring any colour or interest to the play, could easily have been cut out. A repeat scene had the effect of spoiling the impressive story ending with the supposed story ending with the supposed story ending with the supposed

Wrong date inscribed on tombstone

PEOPLE who visited the Mountain Rise Indian cemetery in Pietermaritzburg last Sunday morning to offer oblations to their dear departed were hoaxed on with interest when a tombstone was being dedicated for the memory of a six-year-old child who died on September 25, 1908.

But the inscription on the tombstone recorded "... and died on 23rd September, 1958," more than a century earlier.

Neither the child's parents nor the members of the family noticed the mistake until it was pointed out to them by an outsider.

The dead child's father, Mr. E. C. Pudney, explained that they had not seen the tombstone before it was erected. He left instructions that the mistake should be corrected.

Aces wreak havoc with Avalon

ACES came back into smashing form last Sunday when they trounced Avalon Rangers in the third clash between these teams at Curries Fountain. Avalon made a strong bid before half after a lacklustre showing. Aces won 5—0.

Showing their former slick combination, Aces had Rangers upon from the word go and only Manraj Sochi and Dharmon Mohan appeared to be seriously obstacle in the determined move down.

In great form, the energetic and formidable scheming N. Lall gammed home the first goal. It was a clean long ranger that Lall's wizard eye was through a bewilds latter defence.

The pic ally bonhos struck again at Avalon when the left back were details handled the ball after goalmin stopped it in front of a scored it with ease.

A shore turn up from the touch line from Papou Mkiat was met by Sochi and the opportunists stood he'd and the third goal was added before interval.

Breaking away from the half line in a interval Stoner Moodley had only the keeper to beat and he just lobbed the ball over his head to get the fourth. The fifth was another clean goal, this time from Sonny Morgan who was met at his best. The ball was gained at the far corner and keeper Randhime stood no helpineb as the ball sore in.

South Rangers beat Warwick Wolves 5—1, Crusaders beat Young Hearts 3—1, and Stratford Wanderers drew with Wags in the earlier match, 4—4.

"INDIAN" IS DROPPED

At its annual general meeting last Sunday, the Southern Natal Indian Soccer Union passed a motion to drop the word "Indian" from its name.

At the annual general meeting of the Natal Indian Soccer Union held on Sunday, Mr. A. K. H. Saleem was elected president in succession to R. Hurrick and Mr. Lock M. H. A. Shaik.

Ronnie Govender says:—

MR. BANSDA—YOU ARE BARKING UP THE WRONG TREE

MR. D. N. BANSDA'S appeal for a soccer truce is, no doubt, sincere, but it is hopeless for him to believe that his Quixotic belligerence will "help to restore peace to Indian soccer." Apart from his queer ideas on the conduct of sports-writers, it would appear from his argument that he hasn't read local papers properly, or if he has, he has gained a distorted picture because of his own myopic outlook.

[illegible] "the Press usually has an antagonistic attitude" [illegible] "the Natal" Mercury officials [illegible] a leader, as a result of his stand in the 1959 International meeting, has used the week-end action. Recommendation is seen as [illegible] of blaming the Press the scapegoat.

But it is surprising that Mr. should come from a respected an official as Mr. Bansda. Even since [illegible] canvassing a few singers on [illegible] worship of sport-writers.

However you [illegible] of the free dom of the Press Mr. Bansda. A sports-writer is not merely [illegible] write sensationally, is not worth his salt if he is writing more or [illegible]

MAMMOTH CONFERENCE TO LAUNCH CENTENARY

THE LEADER
Friday 7th October 1960
4d.

"Mathan" (Umlogazi) entices "Nuralan" (Dharamsagar) to come away with her on a scene from Gandhi Naidu's "Sevilan-Kannagi", which was staged at the Durban City Hall last week and as [illegible] repeated at the Radhakrishna Hall, Vera Souers Building, on Saturday at 8 p.m.

ON November 16 the Indians of South Africa will have completed three first hundred years in this country. For it was on that day a hundred years ago that the S.S. Truro, a British steamship brought the first batch of Indian labourers to work on the sugar plantations of Natal, which at that time faced the prospects of being given up by the White planters because of lack of suitable labour.

With the Indians' arrival, however, this gloomy picture changed to one of a promising future for the sugar industry.

To commemorate this historic occasion, the Hindu Maha Sabha of South Africa is holding a mammoth conference of Hindus at the Durban City Hall on the evening of November 18, followed by sessions on November 19 and 20 at the Natal Tamil Vedic Hall, Cornelia Street, Durban, to discuss matters pertaining to the cultural activities among the Hindu people and to devise ways and means for the future development of the community.

Papers on a variety of topics of interest to the Hindus are to be read by men and women of eminence.

On November 17 the Sabha will lay the foundation stone of its £75,000 Shankaracharya Memorial Hall at 49 Lorne Street, Durban. The building will be of two floors consisting of council chambers and an office for the Sabha, and two suites of offices on the first floor to be let to social welfare agencies.

Mr. S. R. Pather, President of the Sabha, told "The Leader" that the conference would be a "memorable" one in the history of the Hindu people of South Africa. Several hundred delegates from all parts of Natal, the Transvaal and the Cape, as well as from the Rhodesias, are expected to take part in the deliberations.

The Administrator of Natal, Mr. A. B. Trollip, and the Mayor of Durban, Mr. C. A. Milne, are among some of the important Europeans invited to attend the opening of the conference.

Simultaneously with the conference, the Sabha is publishing "The Hindu" its official organ.

According to Mr. Pather, it is expected to be a bumper issue containing articles by eminent writers, with a foreword by Dr. S. Radhakrishnan, Vice-President of the Republic of India.

Editors are Mr. S. Chotai, Mr. Rami Nowbath and Mr. R. D. Talla.

DURBAN CAR WOLVES: —MANY COMPLAINTS BY WOMEN

THERE seems to be more than one sex maniac moving around in a car in Durban according to the numerous telephone calls "The Leader" received during the week, mainly from women, who told of how they were given lifts by smartly dressed men who turned out to be "snakes."
